Katzenbach Seeks OKd Rights Bill

From Press Reports

Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach conferred Friday with Senate leaders in an effort to save the administration's civil rights bill. He apparently had little success.

After the meeting, Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield said that the situation, which revolves around the determined opposition of Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen, was "still on dead center."

White House Press Secretary Bill Moyers, however, brushed aside Dirksen's previous comment that the bill was dead for all practical purposes and declared: "we're not going to give up on the hope or the effort to get the bill passed."

No Quorum

Due to flagging interest and absenteeism, the Senate failed to achieve a quorum again Friday. Only 48 senators were present.

Senators who usually support such legislation made up the bulk of the absentees.

Southern opponents who have made themselves personally scarce in previously aborted sessions showed up today willing to start their off-and-on filibuster.

Of the 52 senators who did not put in an appearance and thus left the Senate without the 51 majority required to do business, 38 voted for passage of the 1965 voting rights bill. Thirty of the absentees were Democrats and 22 Republicans.

This seemed to bear out the observation of Dirksen — who opposes the open housing provision of the legislation — that the bill "needs a few friends—it has plenty of enemies."

Partial Ban

The most controversial part of the House-passed bill is the open housing section which carries a partial ban on discrimination in the sales and rental of housing. Another disputed section would ban discrimination on the selection of juries.

The bill also would give the Justice Department new powers to initiate civil rights suits, strengthen federal laws protecting Negroes and civil rights workers, and impose criminal penalties against agitators who cross state lines to incite violence.

Dirksen has opposed the open housing provision on grounds that it is not constitutional and represents unwarranted government interference. He told UPI before the meeting with Katzenbach that he thought the jury clause also was "bad."

Curtis, Hruska Among Those Absent Senators

Washington (AP) — Sens. Roman Hruska and Carl T. Curtis, Nebraska Republicans, were among those absent for a roll call which failed to produce a quorum and forced the Senate to adjourn Friday.

$1,000 Fine To Be Paid NU For 1962 Theft Of Painting

Baltimore (UPI) — A 25-year-old Maryland teacher, who admitted stealing a painting from the University of Nebraska in 1962, was fined $1,000 and given a three-year suspended sentence Friday in Federal District Court.

Judge Roszel C. Thomsen ordered Melvin R. Hayward Jr., of Ellicott City, to pay the fine to the University. Hayward admitted he took the painting while he was in the air force at Lincoln, Neb., and attended art classes at the university.

The painting involved was "A Golden Age", by Benjamin West, painted in 1777. It was valued at about $6,500 when the university bought it.

Hayward shipped it by bus to Baltimore and the theft was discovered when he tried to sell it to an art dealer here. The painting has been returned.

Town's Namesake Was State's Own Paul Bunyan

By DEAN TERRILL
Southeast Nebraska Bureau

Barada—Come looking for a story of this town's future and you're immediately referred to its past.

To one Antoine Barada, a name that even now excites the small fry of his Richardson County namesake. With the development of Indian Cave State Park, visitors may someday be buying souvenirs of his Paul Bunyan-like exploits.

"He was Indian and a great outdoorsman and you still hear stories of his tremendous strength," noted grocer Earl Howard Jr. "Old Barada has been dead 80 years or so, but the tales continue of how he lifted 500-pound rocks and maybe even bigger ones."

Creole

As a matter of fact, according to Lewis C. Edwards' "History of Richardson County," the Creole once raised a 1,700-pounder that was displayed for years in St. Louis. It was near that city where he was born in 1807 of a full-blooded Omaha mother and "an educated Frenchman" father.

A boyhood trip (1816) with the Northwestern Fur Co. made him a lifetime enthusiast of the game-rich Missouri bluffs, and he helped greet the first white settlers of the area. Perhaps the only man alive remembering him personally also recalls his great love of hunting.

"They used to tell how Barada took some white neighbors on a trip after buffalo," reflected Louie Buchholz, 88 and probably the oldest man in Barada Precinct. "When they returned, one father learned he had lost four children to diphtheria. They're buried right in this cemetery."

Wife Josephine

The small Catholic cemetery also is the resting place of "the count," as Barada was called by friends, and of his French wife Josephine. The 12th of 13 children, Buchholz was always more than impressed with the couple's annual visit to with his parents'.

"For that occasion they would arrive in all their paraphernalia, feathers and all," recalled the retired farmer. "The older kids had me scared to death of the man, so I'd hide out 'til they had gone. My dad always said it didn't matter how big our Dutchmen were, at a barn-raising that Indian could outlift any three of 'em."

Although the colorful settler had several children, none are believed living around the land their father loved. His own description of it (in 1875, as recounted by Edwards) reveals this attachment as well as a surprising scholarliness:

"When I look around me and see the smiling farms, expensive dwelling houses and comfortable homes that deck the prairies of Richardson County, I can hardly believe it is the same territory I explored in 1816."

Reds Penetrate Capital District

. . . ELECTION THREATENED

Saigon (AP)—Viet Cong guerrillas blew up a train on the outskirts of Saigon Saturday in a daring pre-election attack.

The combined passenger-freight train was hit by two land mines, apparently electrically detonated, and by automatic weapons fire.

Six persons were injured and four cars of the train were damaged. Two of the cars were derailed.

Mounting Surge

The train attack was the latest in a mounting surge of pre-election terrorism that began Friday night when at least 30 Viet Cong troops infiltrated into the waterfront area of Saigon.

The black-uniformed Viet Cong moved into the capital despite a bombing and strafing attack by U.S. jets and helicopters whose flares and tracers lit up Saigon.

Eight terrorist attacks were reported in the city, one against civilians distributing election literature.

Over North Viet Nam, three communist MIG 21s made a firing pass at a flight of U.S. planes Friday about 30 miles south of the Chinese border but did no damage, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

Switch Duty

Aground, American and allied forces carried the brunt of the action as the South Vietnamese government switched troops to duty for Sunday's constituent assembly elections.

Reporting on air strikes Friday against the communist north, the U.S. spokesman said the three late model MIGS swirled in on the Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs about 50 miles northeast of the strategic Tonkin Gulf seaport of Haiphong.

The Thunderchiefs took evasive action and contact with the MIGS was broken, the spokesman said. It was the first time in nearly a month U.S. planes had tangled with communists MIGS.

Further north between Haiphong and the Chinese border, Navy planes from the U.S.S. Constellation sighted two North Vietnamese patrol craft with bombs and rockets, spokesman said.

Navy Planes

The planes received antiaircraft fire on an identification run, called in additional Navy planes, and attacked the craft with boms and rockets, sinking one and damaging the other.

In minor ground action, a company of 235 U.S. Marines clashed with the enemy near Hoi about 25 miles south of Da Nang killed 11 of them. Marine casualties were called light.

Vietnamese soldiers and militiamen were being posted at the 5,238 polling places to combat rising communist terrorism which, in incidents Friday, claimed five more lives.

The nation's five million eligible voters, some in areas under Viet Cong domination, are to select 108 members of the assembly from 530 candidates, all professed anti-communists. Councils of the Montagnard tribesmen will name nine other assemblymen to assist in the writing of a constitution.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky is hopeful that 60% of South Viet Nam's voeters will turn out to demonstrate rejection of the communists and a minority of radical Buddhists—both of whom have called the election a farce. The latter are trying to promote a boycott.

The radical Buddhist leadership, splintered by Ky's alternate toughness and political maneuvering, mustered a dozen monks for a protest march on the U.S. embassy.

Although the demonstration was a pale shadow of past efforts, it brought an immediate police crackdown. Eight monks were arrested.

Soldiers Take Wild Jaunt With Napalm

Saigon (UPI)—Two American soldiers in a napalm-laden Armored Personnel Carrier (APC) raced wildly through the streets of terror-plagued Saigon early Saturday in a drunken joy ride.

American and Australian military police fired dozens of shots into the air trying to stop the APC which had been stolen from an engineer battalion of the U.S. 25th Division.

The two soldiers had been drinking and drove in from the outskirts of the city, chased through the heart of Saigon toward the Chinese residential district of Cholon.

A half dozen military police cars armed with machineguns joined the chase. At one point the MPs pulled alongside the APC but were forced into the curb.

The joyriding soldiers jammed the throttle to the floorboard and hit speeds up to 45 miles an hour, trying to shake their pursuers, as they roared through the side-streets, back into the heart of Saigon and then back toward Cholon.

On the outskirts of the city, with Viet Cong territory just ahead and illumination flares overhead, the soldiers pulled to a stop.

State Capitol Cleaning Begins

Mist from the process partly obscures Nebraska's famed Capitol as it gets a scrubbing down for the state's 1967 Centennial Year. Ron Harrison, an employe of L. L. Leupold & Sons of Lincoln, is using plain water under high-pressure to remove dirt, stain and microscopic growth from the exterior limestone. The stone will then be waterproofed by a silicon preparation. The contractor will get a $3,000 bonus on his $46,200 contract if the work is completed by Dec. 31. (Star Photo.)

Lincoln-Developed Aerospace Classes Moving Into 5 Cities

By LUCILLE HUTCHINSON
Star Staff Writer

Aerospace science units developed last summer in a federally financed project will be taught in all elementary schools in the Lincoln, Kearney and Grand Island systems and in pilot schools in Hastings and Omaha Westside.

This use of the results of the federal aerospace education project administered by the Lincoln district was reported to the advisory committee here Friday during a discussion of the $118,000 curriculum development project and evaluation.

One of three summer aerospace committees worked eight weeks developing curriculum to be used as a part of elementary science classes. The units introduce up-to-date aerospace concepts for kindergartners through sixth graders.

Starting Sooner

"A number of concepts brought out in the first and second grade relating to space weren't taught until high school a few years ago," Lincoln Supt. Dr. Steven Watkins pointed out.

Watkins also pointed out that the aerospace project is "not an attempt to move something else out of the curriculum."

Another curriculum committee investigated methods to involve aerospace concepts in other facets of education, such as using stories about space in reading, and arithmetic problems, and space vocabulary for spelling words.

Eleven pilot schools in the participating school systems will be using the experimental material involving space concepts in areas of the curriculum other than science.

A third committee studied kinds of instructional materials available and integrated use of films, special books, demonstration equipment, models and others into the aerospace education effort.

To Ask Money

On the basis of tenative approval for a three-year project, the aerospace staff intends to submit a request for another year's allocation of funds to revise the elementary curriculum where necessary and develop junior high aerospace curriculum next summer.

In-service training for elementary teachers using the aerospace project materials was explained to the advisory committee. Teachers from all over the state who participated in the summer sessions will be meeting periodically to work further on integrating aerospace enrichment materials into the classroom, project supervisor Mrs. Karen Timmons said,

A large portion of the project money is being spent on instructional materials available on a loan basis to all school systems participating in the aerospace experiment.

Gemini 11 Pilots Shrug Off Pinhole Leak Delay

Cape Kennedy, Fla. (AP)—The Gemini 11 pilots, their bold space journey delayed by a fuel leak so small only X-rays could see it, took disappointment in stride Friday with eager eyes on Saturday—their new launch day.

Astronauts Charles Conrad and Richard F. Gordon Jr. got the "go" for an 8:25 a.m. (CST) launch after technicians, tediously using a syringe, patched a pinhole break in the Titan 2 booster's fuel system.

Though frustrated, both Conrad and Gordon, in the words of fellow pilot Navy Capt. Alan B. Shepard, "were glad the trouble was discovered well before launch. Both said they waited a long time for the Gemini 11 flight and another day wouldn't make a big difference."

They took it so calmly, in fact, that after being given the disappointing news by Shepard, they stayed in bed for an extra couple hours of sleep.

All had sailed along smoothly until just seven hours before the Titan would have blasted the astronauts skyward for the 44-orbit rendezvous, link-up and space walk trip—one that could produce a patch of space firsts.

As Gordon and Conrad slept, a launch crewman carrying a lunch-pail size electronic gadget called a "sniffer" got the warning. The device did its job—smelling a hint of toxic fumes, obviously spewing from the rocket's side.

Not knowing the seriousness of the leak, officials ordered the scrub. By noon, X-rays isolated the hole to a minute spot in the oxidizer tank that forms the outer skin of the 90-foot machine.

"It was only a pinhole in a welded area," an official said. Indeed it was—only 1-500th of an inch wide.

Could Have Flown

"We could have flown with this pinhole," one spokesman said, "but for pad safety reasons they (officials) wanted to take a good long look at it before actually flying."

To fix it, a solution commonly called water glass, technically known as sodium silicate, was shot into the hole with a syringe, forming a ceramic-like seal. It was then covered by an aluminum patch.

The delay did not affect the mission's flight plan, one that calls for the world's quickest rendezvous. Gemini 11 is to catch an Agena target rocket 90 minutes after launch. Previous space chases have lasted four hours or more.

An Atlas booster is poised to power the Agena into a 185-mile high orbit at 8:48 a.m. (CST) with Navy Cmdr. Conrad and Lt. Cmdr. Gordon racing into pursuit 97 minutes later.

North Viet Nam Calls Infiltration American Myth

Tokyo (AP)—North Viet Nam Friday termed communist troop infiltration into South Viet Nam a "myth" created by the United States.

It rejected as a hoax President Johnson's statement that he will schedule withdrawal of all U.S. forces from Viet Nam if anyone shows him a schedule when infiltration from the North will be halted.

North Viet Nam Calls Infiltration American Myth

Tokyo (AP)—North Viet Nam Friday termed communist troop infiltration into South Viet Nam a "myth" created by the United States.

It rejected as a hoax President Johnson's statement that he will schedule withdrawal of all U.S. forces from Viet Nam if anyone shows him a schedule when infiltration from the North will be halted.

President Signs Auto, Road Safety Measures

Washington (UPI) — President Johnson, noting that traffic accidents kill three times as many Americans as do wars, signed into law Friday two bills he said would reduce "this senseless loss of lives . . . pointless injury . . . heartbreak."

Dr. William Haddon

Appointed Safety Chief

At a White House Rose Garden ceremony, the President signed the traffic safety act setting federal safety standards for autos and the highway safety act creating a national driver register.

Johnson announced that Dr. William J. Haddon Jr., nationally known safety expert and graduate of the Harvard Medical School, would be nominated as administrator of the new National Traffic Safety Agency which will work with the automobile industry to set up the safety standards.

Labor Day Dead

The President noted that over the Labor Day weekend 614 Americans died in automobile accidents compared with 29 U.S. servicemen killed during the same period in the Viet Nam war.

"In this century," he said, "more than one and a half million of our fellow citizens have died on our streets and highways—nearly three times as many Americans as we have lost in all our wars."

Johnson conceded there was no "magic solution," but he said that through the two new laws "we are going to cut down this senseless loss of lives . . . the pointless injury . . . the heartbreak."

The traffic safety measure permits the federal government to set safety standards or design and construction of all new cars sold in the United States, starting in the fall of 1967.

The 26 safety standards now required for all new vehicles bought by the federal government are expected to be the basis for the new standards. These include interior padding, telescoping steering columns and dual braking systems.

Prototype Cars

The bill also calls for development of prototype safety cars of the future, mandatory disclosure of automobile defects, federal tire standards and a federal register of drivers who lose their licenses.

The highway safety bill assists states in programs of driver training and licensing, highway construction and maintenance, street and highway lighting, and special traffic laws and enforcement.

It provides $267 million over three years in aid to states for highway, driver and traffic safety programs.

Johnson noted that the new laws would be administered within the Commerce Department, but he said he hoped they would soon be transferred to a new department of transportation, which the administration proposes to create.

About 200 persons were on hand for the ceremony, including members of Congress and federal and state highway and safety officials, and auto critic Ralph Nader.

RED BLOC JOINS U.N. TRY TO KEEP THANT

United Nations, N.Y. (AP)—Communist bloc countries lined up for the first time Friday with other U.N. member countries seeking to draft U Thant for another term as Secretary-General. U.N. diplomats hoped for some kind of reply from him next week.

Poland and Hungary made known their desire to see Thant change his decision of last week not to offer himself for a new five-year term. Members of the Latin-American bloc also conveyed to Thant its desire to see him carry on after his term expires on Nov. 3.

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko, president of the U.N. Security Council for September, will be host to the 14 other council members at its monthly luncheon next Wednesday. Thant is customarily a guest at the monthly luncheon, and U.N. diplomats believe this will afford an opportunity for the council to informally express to him the overwhelming desire of the majority of the U.N. membership that he stay on in the job.

The luncheon is expected to take place at the Soviet mission to the United Nations, and will provide a chance for a frank exchange of views.

Bohdan Tomorowicz, the Polish ambassador, met with Thant and later told reporters he conveyed the view of the Polish government that it would welcome a change in his decision. Tomorowicz was presenting his credentials as the new permanent U.N. representative for Poland.

The Hungarian U.N. delegation released a cable from Foreign Minister Janos Peter to Thant expressing hope that "the delicate and difficult international situation and the repeated expressions of trust put by you by member states will move you to change your decision."

A five-man delegation from the Latin-American block paid a group call on Thant. They came from Argentina, Chile, Guatemala, Paraguay and Uruguay.

Sources close to Thant said he told the Latin Americans he was deeply touched and would take the bloc's views into consideration.

Carmichael Challenges Riot Laws

Atlanta, Ga (AP)—Stokely Carmichael, head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), has asked a federal court to declare unconstitutional Georgia antiriot and insurrection laws under which he was arrested.

A suit filed on behalf of the "Black Power" advocate and his organization also challenged Atlanta's disorderly conduct ordinance and asked that a three-judge panel be appointed immediately to hear the case. No hearing has been set.

The petition called for a permanent injunction against the mayor and other officials to prohibit "impeding, intimidating, hindering" SNCC members in exercising their rights.

Attacking the validity of five Georgia code selections on insurrection, inciting to riot, riot and unlawful assembly and the city's disorderly conduct ordinance, the suit charges they violate "fundamental guarantees of free speech, press, assembly, and the right to petition the government for redress of grievances."

Earlier Carmichael 25, had waived preliminary hearing and was ordered held for grand jury action under $10,000 bond on charges of inciting a Tuesday slum disturbance which left 15 persons injured.

The jury was in session Friday, but recessed without considering the case. A spokesman said it would be next week or possibly the following before Carmichael's case would be heard.

Boss Says: Work As You Please

By EDDY GILMORE

London (AP)—A factory director who told his workers to work as they please as long as they do their jobs is happy with the results.

Three weeks ago, Kenneth Thompson, production director of a fiber-spinning factory, announced he wanted to stop clock-watching, so he told his 90 employes:

Come and go as you want.

Take as long as you like for tea breaks.

If you want to have a cigarette, take off and smoke one.

"But I want maximum efficiency", he warned, "and I want quality production and want effort for the money I pay."

A number of the workers are ex-miners who've been laid off their regular jobs. They are earning a basic $49 weekly.

Said Barry Staples, 25:

Foreman Colin Fletcher commented:

"One or two tried to take advantage of the new order, but I had a word with them and now they're doing fine."

Thompson summed up:

"Management is not running this scheme because we are philanthropists. We think it will pay us."

The factorys checking-in machines have been taken down.

"Clocks cost money," said the director. "When you don't have clock watchers you don't need clocks."

Quakers Say U.S. Stops Viet Parcels

New York (UPI) — The Society of Friends (Quakers) charged Friday that the United States government has intercepted humanitarian gift parcels sent to North and South Viet Nam via Canada.

A spokesman for the society said parcels addressed to the Red Cross in Hanoi, Saigon and Viet Cong controlled territories had been returned to its offices in New York as undeliverable. It also said U.S. banks and branches of American banks in Canada had been ordered by the U.S. Treasury Department to withhold payment on three checks to the Canadian Friends Service Committee.

The Quakers have protested to the White House, the spokesman said, in a letter asking President Johnson "to review the moral basis and authority of such restrictions on humanitarian relief."

"We would hope that you might take the leadership in stopping the spiral of indiscriminate violence while opening channels for unrestricted relief—that the humanity of this great nation might not be lost in the heat of battle," the letter said.

The society plans to file an application with the Treasury Department for release of its impounded funds and establishment of some procedure "to extend relief to all who suffer in Viet Nam." It had arranged with the Friends to Service Committee in Canada, a Quaker organization, to provide such a channel prior to the government's crackdown on all aid to communist forces in Viet Nam.

Earlier, a Quaker group in Philadelphia announced that the first of its shipments of medical relief supplies for people in all parts of Viet Nam was scheduled to be shipped from Montreal Friday. It said the shipment included $300 worth of anti-biotics and anti-malarials described as "only a beginning."

Lawrence Scott, cochairman of the Philadelphia group, said supplies addressed to the Red Cross in Saigon would be mailed from the Montreal post office while equivalent shipments for the Red Cross in Hanoi and Viet Cong-held areas would be shipped aboard the Russian liner ander Pushking.

Third Soldier Found Guilty

Ft. Dix, N.J. (AP)—Pvt. David A. Samas, 20, of Modesto, Calif., was found guilty Friday of refusing to go to Viet Nam, the same charge on which two companions were convicted and received prison terms at hard labor.

A 10-man military court deliberated 25 minutes before reaching the verdict. He had been charged with willfully disobeying an order that he board an aircraft bound for Saigon from nearby McGuire Air Force Base.

Samas' wife, Marlene, was in the audience. She clasped her hands in prayer and bit her nails as the verdict was being given. When she heard the word "guilty," she buried her face in her hands and wept.

Earlier Friday Pfc. James A. Johnson Jr., 20, of New York, was sentenced to five years at hard labor, dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of pay. On Wednesday, Pvt. Dennis Mora, 25, of New York, received a three-year sentence on the same charge.

The three soldiers were picked up by military authorities in New York July 7, 17 days after the Samas were married. The soldiers had told a news conference the week before that they would not fight in Viet Nam. They called the war "illegal, unjust and immoral."

Assassin Was In U. S. Mental Hospital

Washington (UPI)—The assassin of South African Premier Hendrik Verwoerd visited the United States at least seven times from 1942 to 1947 and was confined in mental hospitals on several occasions, immigration records indicated Friday.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service's records show that Dmitrio Tsafandakas made most of the trips during World War II as a merchant seaman. But he also once was deported for illegal entry.

A man with his name and aliases once was "excluded" from this country on mental grounds, once escaped from a hospital in South Carolina and at least twice was confined to Boston Psychopathic Hospital.

The Justice Department has turned these immigration records over to the State Department for relay to the South African government, it was learned.

U.S. officials said the information on Tsafandakis was transmitted "voluntarily" to Pretoria, although there was no request from the South African government. One official said he was unaware of any request for information either since the assassination or when Tsafandakis was hired as a parliamentary messenger.

Aliases

Records show that the man, born Jan. 14, 1918, in Lourenco Marques, capital of the Portuguese territory of Mozambique, also was known to U.S. authorities as Dimitrio or Dimitro Tsafandas and Dimitrio or Dimitro Tsafardos.

Canadian immigration authorities said Thursday that a man identified in official files as Dmitrio Tsafantakis deserted a ship in Newfoundland in September, 1942, and came to the United States.

It is about then that sketchy U.S. records pick up the trail.

The first recorded U.S. arrival of the man believed to be the assassin held in South Africa was Dec. 9, 1942, when he illegally entered the country at Calais, Maine, by crossing the St. Croix River on foot over the ice.

He next appears on immigration records—which do not show all of his U.S. entries—as being confined in the Boston Psychopathic Hospital on April 3, 1943.

Tsafandakis was transferred to Metropolitan State Hospital in Waltham, Mass., and held there until his discharge June 24, 1943. He was deported from Boston Sept. 3, 1943, shipping out on the S. S. Pillory, an American registered ship.

On Aug. 13, 1944, he arrived at Charleston, S. C., as a passenger on the S. S. Wisteria from London where he had been hospitalized as a merchant seaman on an American vessel.

He was placed in the Roper Hospital in Charleston, and an Immigration Service board of inquiry ordered him "excluded from the United States on Sept. 2, 1944, under Section 3 of the Immigration Act of Feb. 5, 1917." The section covers "mental grounds."

On Sept. 23, 1944, he escaped from the Roper Hospital. On Oct. 4, he was apprehended in Boston and taken to public health facilities on Ellis Island, New York.

On Feb. 25, 1945, he left on the Greek vessel S. S. Maria Nicolau from New York City.

Three Children Are Treated For Malnutrition, Injuries

Baltimore, Md. (AP) — "I'm hungry. I'm hungry."

This was the reply 4-year-old Arthur Chavis gave to police as they tried to question him after he was found tied to a heavy suitcase and suffering from malnutrition in an apartment here Friday.

Arthur was with his two sisters, Jennifer, 3, and Althea, 2, when police entered the downtown apartment where they lived. Police said the two girls were also suffering from malnutrition.

Police said they entered the apartment to serve a warrant on James Chavis, whom they identified as the childrens' father. They said the warrant had been sworn out by Bernice McKnight and charged Chavis with assaulting her. Miss McKnight, according to police, also lived in the apartment.

She and Chavis, who earned $75 a week as a construction worker, were placed under bail of $2,000 each and held for the action of the grand jury on charges of mistreating the boy at a hearing before Judge Howard L. Aaron of municipal court.

Chavis was also held for action of the grand jury on the assault charge for an additional $500 bail.

Police quoted Miss McKnight as saying that Arthur was being punished because he took a cake from the refrigerator.

The three children were taken to Mercy Hospital where they were fed and examined. Police said X-rays showed Arthur had two fractured ribs and possibly had suffered a broken leg. They said both were old injuries.

They added that Jennifer was treated for a bruised chest and Althea had once suffered a broken arm. Jennifer weighed 21 pounds and Arthur 23.

Miss McKnight told police she received $235 a month from the welfare department. Police said she is the mother of the three children.

President Signs Auto, Road Safety Measures

Washington (UPI) — President Johnson, noting that traffic accidents kill three times as many Americans as do wars, signed into law Friday two bills he said would reduce "this senseless loss of lives . . . pointless injury . . . heartbreak."

Dr. William Haddon

Appointed Safety Chief

At a White House Rose Garden ceremony, the President signed the traffic safety act setting federal safety standards for autos and the highway safety act creating a national driver register.

Johnson announced that Dr. William J. Haddon Jr., nationally known safety expert and graduate of the Harvard Medical School, would be nominated as administrator of the new National Traffic Safety Agency which will work with the automobile industry to set up the safety standards.

Labor Day Dead

The President noted that over the Labor Day weekend 614 Americans died in automobile accidents compared with 29 U.S. servicemen killed during the same period in the Viet Nam war.

"In this century," he said, "more than one and a half million of our fellow citizens have died on our streets and highways—nearly three times as many Americans as we have lost in all our wars."

Johnson conceded there was no "magic solution," but he said that through the two new laws "we are going to cut down this senseless loss of lives . . . the pointless injury . . . the heartbreak."

The traffic safety measure permits the federal government to set safety standards or design and construction of all new cars sold in the United States, starting in the fall of 1967.

The 26 safety standards now required for all new vehicles bought by the federal government are expected to be the basis for the new standards. These include interior padding, telescoping steering columns and dual braking systems.

Prototype Cars

The bill also calls for development of prototype safety cars of the future, mandatory disclosure of automobile defects, federal tire standards and a federal register of drivers who lose their licenses.

The highway safety bill assists states in programs of driver training and licensing, highway construction and maintenance, street and highway lighting, and special traffic laws and enforcement.

It provides $267 million over three years in aid to states for highway, driver and traffic safety programs.

Johnson noted that the new laws would be administered within the Commerce Department, but he said he hoped they would soon be transferred to a new department of transportation, which the administration proposes to create.

About 200 persons were on hand for the ceremony, including members of Congress and federal and state highway and safety officials, and auto critic Ralph Nader.

RED BLOC JOINS U.N. TRY TO KEEP THANT

United Nations, N.Y. (AP)—Communist bloc countries lined up for the first time Friday with other U.N. member countries seeking to draft U Thant for another term as Secretary-General. U.N. diplomats hoped for some kind of reply from him next week.

Poland and Hungary made known their desire to see Thant change his decision of last week not to offer himself for a new five-year term. Members of the Latin-American bloc also conveyed to Thant its desire to see him carry on after his term expires on Nov. 3.

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko, president of the U.N. Security Council for September, will be host to the 14 other council members at its monthly luncheon next Wednesday. Thant is customarily a guest at the monthly luncheon, and U.N. diplomats believe this will afford an opportunity for the council to informally express to him the overwhelming desire of the majority of the U.N. membership that he stay on in the job.

Bohdan Tomorowicz, the Polish ambassador, met with Thant and later told reporters he conveyed the view of the Polish government that it would welcome a change in his decision. Tomorowicz was presenting his credentials as the new permanent U.N. representative for Poland.

The Hungarian U.N. delegation released a cable from Foreign Minister Janos Peter to Thant expressing hope that "the delicate and difficult international situation and the repeated expressions of trust put by you by member states will move you to change your decision."

Sources close to Thant said he told the Latin Americans he was deeply touched and would take the bloc's views into consideration.

Quakers Say U.S. Stops Viet Parcels

New York (UPI) — The Society of Friends (Quakers) charged Friday that the United States government has intercepted humanitarian gift parcels sent to North and South Viet Nam via Canada.

A spokesman for the society said parcels addressed to the Red Cross in Hanoi, Saigon and Viet Cong controlled territories had been returned to its offices in New York as undeliverable. It also said U.S. banks and branches of American banks in Canada had been ordered by the U.S. Treasury Department to withhold payment on three checks to the Canadian Friends Service Committee.

The Quakers have protested to the White House, the spokesman said, in a letter asking President Johnson "to review the moral basis and authority of such restrictions on humanitarian relief."

"We would hope that you might take the leadership in stopping the spiral of indiscriminate violence while opening channels for unrestricted relief—that the humanity of this great nation might not be lost in the heat of battle," the letter said.

The society plans to file an application with the Treasury Department for release of its impounded funds and establishment of some procedure "to extend relief to all who suffer in Viet Nam." It had arranged with the Friends to Service Committee in Canada, a Quaker organization, to provide such a channel prior to the government's crackdown on all aid to communist forces in Viet Nam.

Earlier, a Quaker group in Philadelphia announced that the first of its shipments of medical relief supplies for people in all parts of Viet Nam was scheduled to be shipped from Montreal Friday. It said the shipment included $300 worth of anti-biotics and anti-malarials described as "only a beginning."

Lawrence Scott, cochairman of the Philadelphia group, said supplies addressed to the Red Cross in Saigon would be mailed from the Montreal post office while equivalent shipments for the Red Cross in Hanoi and Viet Cong-held areas would be shipped aboard the Russian liner ander Pushking.

Third Soldier Found Guilty

Ft. Dix, N.J. (AP)—Pvt. David A. Samas, 20, of Modesto, Calif., was found guilty Friday of refusing to go to Viet Nam, the same charge on which two companions were convicted and received prison terms at hard labor.

A 10-man military court deliberated 25 minutes before reaching the verdict. He had been charged with willfully disobeying an order that he board an aircraft bound for Saigon from nearby McGuire Air Force Base.

Samas' wife, Marlene, was in the audience. She clasped her hands in prayer and bit her nails as the verdict was being given. When she heard the word "guilty," she buried her face in her hands and wept.

Earlier Friday Pfc. James A. Johnson Jr., 20, of New York, was sentenced to five years at hard labor, dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of pay. On Wednesday, Pvt. Dennis Mora, 25, of New York, received a three-year sentence on the same charge.

The three soldiers were picked up by military authorities in New York July 7, 17 days after the Samas were married. The soldiers had told a news conference the week before that they would not fight in Viet Nam. They called the war "illegal, unjust and immoral."

Work To Start Oct. 1 On Big Cheyenne Dam

Sidney (AP) — Construction could start about Oct. 1 on the biggest dam and reservoir ever to be constructed in Cheyenne County under the auspices of the Soil and Water Conservation Service. The structure will hold 400 acre feet of water.

Plans call for the dam to be set up on the Roy Nelson farm one mile north of Point of Rocks in the area which has been hard hit in recent years by the torrential summer rains.

In that particular vicinity five bridges were washed out in the heavy rains that hit in the summer of 1965. Lesser rainfall has caused damage this summer.

Soil Conservation officials have been working on plans for the dam since the first of the year. The construction will be a joint project of Mrs. Harry Anderson, Nelson, Cheyenne County and the Soil Conservation Service.

The flood waters gushing from this area find their way into the Lodgepole Creek after rampaging through acres of farmland, over country roads and across the highway and the Union Pacific tracks.

Nebraska Real Estate Group Elects Ringer

Omaha (AP)—Leo B. Ringer of Norfolk, who has been serving as a district vice president, was named to head the Nebraska Real Estate Association in 1967.

The association reaffirmed its stand for a sales and-or income tax as a replacement for the state property tax.

District vice presidents: W. Perry Rankin, Hastings; Charles Rasmussen, Omaha; E. H. Weerts, Columbus, Jeff Nitzel Jr., Grand Island

Junior district vice presidents: Don P. Harrington Jr., Lincoln; Robert F. Mitchell Jr., Omaha; J. Stuart Hales, Norfolk; Ray E. Stephens, Broken Bow.

Coed's Condition After Accident Is Still Critical

Jean Higgins, 21-year-old University of Nebraska student from Schuyler, remained in critical condition at Bryan Memorial Hospital Friday from injuries suffered Thursday in an Interstate accident which took the life of a companion.

Lynn Diann Broyhill, 21, Dakota City, was killed in the accident. According to the State Safety Patrol, a car driven by Miss Higgins attempted to pass another auto and struck a State Roads Department maintenance truck that was stopped in the passing lane on the highway.

The driver of the truck, Fred Borchers, 59, Lincoln, and the driver of the other auto, Ken Powell, 19, Fremont, and a passenger, Mark Frazier, 19, Springfield, were not injured.

Lancaster Deputy County Atty. Ronald Lahners said Friday that the accident is still being investigated and determination whether charges will be filed will not be made until sometime next week.

Fairbury Junior College Closes Enrollment At 377

Fairbury — Enrollment has been closed at Fairbury Junior College with the official registration of 377 students, according to President Fred Drexler.

This represents an increase of 27 over the 1965 fall semester enrollment. For the past several semesters the college administration has limited enrollment to 350, the figure regarded as utilizing faculty and facilities to the fullest.

With the completion of a new science-library building scheduled within two months and with the addition of more full-time instructors, the larger enrollment was accepted, Drexler explained.

FBI Investigates Eppley Airfield Threat Of Bomb

Omaha (AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation Friday was investigating an Eppley Airfield bomb threat.

A restaurant at the airport received a telephone call Thursday night saying a bomb had been planted in the baggage claiming area.

Judge Denies Salazar Request

Hastings (AP) — District Judge Edmund Nuss denied Friday the request of Joseph Salazar Jr. to vacate his life sentence on a second degree murder charge and appoint counsel for him.

Salazar was sentenced by Judge Nuss for the April 24 slaying of Henry Spady in Hastings. Salazar, in his post-conviction motion, claimed he was denied "certain constitutional rights."

Judge Nuss said "the record in this case completely refutes and repudiates" each of the contentions made by Salazar, who now is serving his term in the pentientiary.

Multi-City Unit Approach To Get Industry Praised

Beatrice (AP)—John Everroad of Omaha praised Nebraska municipalities Friday for using the multi-city unit approach to attract new industries.

Everroad, Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, said in an address at a fund raising barbecue here that cities must look upon themselves as contributors to the entire state economy when they build one small factory. "There are no islands in Nebraska," he said.

Everroad declared cities are not getting the salesmanship out of the state where it should be strongest and this has forced cities to band together to remedy Nebraska's industrial ills.

He called on the electorate to "hire yourselves some good salesmen in November."

"With the right salesmanship in the capital," he said, "we can build a new state with a boom beyond belief."

Rep. Cunningham Platform 'Based On Scare Words'

Omaha (UPI)—Richard M. Fellman told Omaha homebuilders that he is conducting a strong campaign for Congress against a 10-year incumbent "whose platform is based on political scare words written by eastern Republicans.'

Fellman, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Second District, said his opponent, Glenn Cunningham, has been in Congress as each of the present problems has developed. Fellman said Cunningham "must bear his full share of blame for inflation, high taxes, skyrocketing interest rates and foreign affairs."

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Mrs. Anna Wurtz does it for "my girls" and makes a full-time job of it.

Sports Fan

Cheer leaders and pep club members, not only at Polk High School but at other schools in the neighborhood, depend upon her for their uniforms—and make her a sports fan by insisting that she go to the games "to see how nice they look."

Many have gone through high school in Wurtz-made wardrobes and still retain their home-town seamstress after they've gone away to college.

"I've never run into a job I wouldn't tackle," she said, taking a few minutes away from her trusty sewing machine, where a wedding outfit—the fourth this season—was taking shape, along with a coed's new garments

Sewing — she also tailors coats and men's suits—has been her main means of support for the last 15 years, but "I do it more for the pleasure, because I really enjoy doing it and getting acquainted with so many people."

"My greatest pleasure is in working for the school girls. My only contact with them is when they come in to have work done."

Mrs. Wurtz began sewing the summer following her high school graduation at Stromsburg, and she later became an expert in materials while clerking in the local dry goods store for 25 years.

In the meantime she raised two daughters, one of whom, Mrs. Oscar Jones of Polk, has become a needle-and-thread whiz, in her own right.

"I get up at five, start sewing by six and go until about nine at night," said the kindly great-grandmother. "And I'll keep it up as long as the good Lord will let me."

"Why should I quit and sit around to find fault with the young people? They have a wonderful life, and I'm all for them."

July's Hot Spell Helped Set Records At City Pools

The hot, humid spell in July helped boost summer use of Lincoln swimming pools to a record high, the City Recreation Dept. reported Friday.

The attendance figure was the highlight in a summary of participation in organized municipal recreation activities from June through the first full week in September.

Dula said the activities reached a grand total of 508,545 participants for the period. Total attendance for August alone was 103,306.

14,635 In Softball

The Men's City Softball League, together with slow pitch softball, had an attendance of 14,635 men at games and tournaments, while the Women's City Softball League had approximately 10,000 participants.

Keen-Time dances held weekly at Pershing Auditorium and Antelope Pavilion drew 12,382 high-schoolers, while 5,256 ninth-graders attended Nine-Hi dances.

The city playgrounds, along with the new Playmobile and Show Wagon, had a big turnout, Dula said. Attending the playground sessions were more than 145,000 children, and more than 7,500 youths and adults took part in the Show Wagon program.

17,000 Boys

The city recreation baseball season, which ran June 12 to Aug. 12, saw 17,726 boys taking part, the superintendent reported.

The total participation in the adult and youth tennis programs was approximately 5,000, Dula said, adding, "The attendance at the youth tennis program was high, but there wasn't much participation in the adult classes."

Total attendance at all activities for the ill and handicapped was 1,560, the Good Time Club activities drew 3,587 senior citizens and the various art classes had more than 2,670 participants.

Other activities included lessons in diving, canoeing and boating.

Escapee Given Additional Year

A Nebraska Men's Reformatory inmate who walked away from a work detail Thursday was back in custody Friday.

James Lee Clayter, 18, of Omaha pleaded guilty Friday in Lancaster District Court to escaping from prison and was sentenced by Judge Elmer Scheele to an extra year.

Astronaut's Dad Dies

New Concord, Ohio (AP) — John H. Glenn Sr., the father of the United States' first orbiting astronaut, died. He was 71.

Search Resumes For Art Miller, Stuart Resident

Stuart (AP) — A search was resumed Friday for Art Miller, about 55, of Stuart.

Miller disappeared Wednesday afternoon while helping other members of his family working in a hay field on a ranch 12 miles southwest of Stuart. He stopped the mower he was operating, got off and walked away, Mrs. Lloyd Thurlow, Stuart Civil Defense director, said.

She said the family thought Miller was going to make a phone call but he did not return. He was seen in Stuart Wednesday afternoon.

A party of 150 men and 20 saddle horses from the Atkinson, Bassett and Stuart areas began the search Thursday. They resumed Friday and were expecting CAP planes from Omaha to join the hunt.

Robert Herrick, Bell Telephone Official, Is Dead

Omaha (AP)—Services will be held Saturday for Robert Herrick, 44, general plant manager for the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. in Nebraska. He died Thursday.

Herrick, a native of Estherville, Iowa, had been with the company 17 years. He was a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., and served as a Marine captain during the Korean War.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter; five sons; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Herrick of Des Moines, and two sisters.

Omaha To Host Rose Society's Meeting, Show

The show headquarters will be the First Federal of Lincoln building 2120 South 42nd Street.

Rose show judging will be Saturday. The show will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sunday.

Among speakers during the five-day meeting will be Harry Wheatcroft, Nottingham, England; Carl J. Holst, president of the Minnesota Horticultural Society, and Dr. Robert M. Zollinger, American Rose Society president.

Taxes Major State Issue, Says Tiemann

Beatrice (UPI) — Norbert Tiemann of Wausa, GOP candidate for governor, said Friday the major issue in the campaign is taxes.

He said he hopes the voters will turn down the income tax law enacted by the 1965 legislature. The reason, he said, is that the law provides for the state board of equalization to set the rate of taxes. This should be done by the legislature, Tiemann said.

Commenting on other topics, the gubernatorial nominee said he favors issuance of revenue bonds to speed state highway work. He said there isn't too much a governor can do about the interstate program because it is 90% federally financed.

Favors Junior Colleges

Tiemann said "before anything happens in Nebraska in the way of progress, we must start with educational excellence." He said existing institutions of higher learning should be upgraded. He added that a system of junior colleges should be established and more vocational schools should be built.

Another thing the state should do, according to Tiemann, is make an investment in a research center or research facility.

IFYE Delegate To Uruguay Off For Washington

Susan Wiles, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wiles of Bennet, left Friday for Washington, D.C., on the first leg of a trip to Uruguay where she will live for six months as Nebraska delegate in the International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) program.

She will spend a week in Washington in an orientation session, prior to leaving on September 17 for Montevideo, Uruguay. Miss Wiles, a former Lancaster County 4-H member and a June, 1966, graduate of the University of Nebraska, will live with eight different families during her six-month stay.

The International Farm Youth Exchange program is a two-way exchange of the U.S. with rural young people of 68 other countries. IFYE is conducted by the National 4-H Club Foundation and coordinated by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Nebraska Far Behind In Ag Agents Compared To Others

. . . Dr. Adams Tells Extension Board Heads

Kearney — Nebraska would need an additional 64 county agents and 36 home agents in order to be comparable with other major agricultural states in services provided by Extension, according to the of the University of Nebraska Agricultural Extension Service.

This would give the state an average of one agricultural agent per 600 farms and one home agent per county Extension office. Speaking to a group of 70 County Extension Board presidents here Friday, Dr. John L. Adams said only alternative to a larger staff is the amalgamation of smaller counties into two, three and four-county organigations.

He said Nebraska ranks sixth in the U.S. in cash receipts from farming and ranching, but 27th in number of Extension workers.

Dr. Adams said $498,000 in state support and $548,000 in county funds would be required to add the additional 100 agents.

NU Regent Robert Raun of Minden told the Extension presidents that there is a critical need for more funds for the University of Nebraska. Terming expenditures for teaching, Extension and research an investment, he said the University must be prepared for continuing substantial increases in enrollment. He predicted the University will have more than 20,000 students within the next four years.

Raun praised Nebraska high schools for helping students to become better prepared academically for college work.

"We are very happy to have fewer dropouts in college," Raun said, "but even this is contributing to our snowballing enrollment."

Jack O'Brien, 45, Dies; Had Heart Valve Transplant

Council Bluffs, Iowa (AP) — Jack R. O'Brien, 45, advertising manager of the Council Bluffs Nonpareil, died Friday after suffering a heart attack.

He had undergone surgery for a heart valve transplant last February and returned to work only two months ago.

60 Job Corps Girls Moving Into Paxton

Omaha (AP)—About 60 girls will move into the Paxton Hotel Sunday as the first of its new Job Corps tenants.

Director Robert Anderson said Friday that the hotel is undergoing renovation which will cost more than $200,000.

The heating-air conditioning plant is being improved and the ballroom is being remodeled into a gymnasium-assembly room, he said.

By next March the hotel will house 450 girls. The Regis Hotel Job Corps Center, which has been in use for sometime, will have 350.

Anderson said the plan is for new enrollees to move into the Regis, stay there until entering vocational training, then move to the Paxton.

About 30 days before graduation, the girls will move back to the Regis to serve as advisers to new enrollees. Rules will be relaxed and a "halfway house" atmosphere will be created for the soon-to-graduate girls, he said.

What Is a Seventh-day Adventist?

● He believes in a free conscience
The Seventh-day Adventist believes that freedom of speech, religion, press, and assembly not only are constitutionally guaranteed rights but more—they are rights given by God Himself, who created us with the power of choice and intended that we should use it in matters of conscience.

● He believes in voluntary worship . . .
To the Adventist, state or church-enforced observance of a day of rest or method of worship is repulsive. He believes the church should be free to persuade men but never to force men by resorting to civil powers to cause them to observe any specified form or day of worship.

● He believes in citizen responsibility . . .
As a prospective citizen of Heaven the Adventist cannot take human life. But as a citizen of his country he can help to save life by service in the medical branch of the armed forces. He even prepares for this service at his own expense before military induction.

Summary of Conditions

A broad trough of low pressure will remain over the two-state area and will continue to affect the weather over Nebraska and west Iowa Saturday and Sunday.

The main moisture tongue licks up from the gulf just south of the two state area and only isolated showers or thundershowers are likely over northwest Nebraska and the northwest half of Iowa Saturday.

Temperatures over the area will show little change with the cloud amount affecting what little change there is.

GREAT-GRANDMOTHER . . . Mrs. Wurtz outfits her share of Polk High School.

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Mrs. Anna Wurtz does it for "my girls" and makes a full-time job of it.

Sports Fan

Cheer leaders and pep club members, not only at Polk High School but at other schools in the neighborhood, depend upon her for their uniforms—and make her a sports fan by insisting that she go to the games "to see how nice they look."

Many have gone through high school in Wurtz-made wardrobes and still retain their home-town seamstress after they've gone away to college.

"I've never run into a job I wouldn't tackle," she said, taking a few minutes away from her trusty sewing machine, where a wedding outfit —the fourth this season—was taking shape, along with a coed's new garments

Sewing — she also tailors coats and men's suits—has been her main means of support for the last 15 years, but "I do it more for the pleasure, because I really enjoy doing it and getting acquainted with so many people."

"My greatest pleasure is in working for the school girls. My only contact with them is when they come in to have work done."

Mrs. Wurtz began sewing the summer following her high school graduation at Stromsburg, and she later became an expert in materials while clerking in the local dry goods store for 25 years.

In the meantime she raised two daughters, one of whom, Mrs. Oscar Jones of Polk, has become a needle-and-thread whiz, in her own right.

"I get up at five, start sewing by six and go until about nine at night," said the kindly great-grandmother. "And I'll keep it up as long as the good Lord will let me."

"Why should I quit and sit around to find fault with the young people? They have a wonderful life, and I'm all for them."

July's Hot Spell Helped Set Records At City Pools

The hot, humid spell in July helped boost summer use of Lincoln swimming pools to a record high, the City Recreation Dept. reported Friday.

The attendance figure was the highlight in a summary of participation in organized municipal recreation activities from June through the first full week in September.

Dula said the activities reached a grand total of 508,545 participants for the period. Total attendance for August alone was 103,306.

14,635 In Softball

The Men's City Softball League, together with slow pitch softball, had an attendance of 14,635 men at games and tournaments, while the Women's City Softball League had approximately 10,000 participants.

Keen-Time dances held weekly at Pershing Auditorium and Antelope Pavilion drew 12,382 high-schoolers, while 5,256 ninth-graders attended Nine-Hi dances.

The city playgrounds, along with the new Playmobile and Show Wagon, had a big turnout, Dula said. Attending the playground sessions were more than 145,000 children, and more than 7,500 youths and adults took part in the Show Wagon program.

17,000 Boys

The city recreation baseball season, which ran June 12 to Aug. 12, saw 17,726 boys taking part, the superintendent reported.

The total participation in the adult and youth tennis programs was approximately 5,000, Dula said, adding, "The attendance at the youth tennis program was high, but there wasn't much participation in the adult classes."

Total attendance at all activities for the ill and handicapped was 1,560, the Good Time Club activities drew 3,587 senior citizens and the various art classes had more than 2,670 participants.

Other activities included lessons in diving, canoeing and boating.

Escapee Given Additional Year

A Nebraska Men's Reformatory inmate who walked away from a work detail Thursday was back in custody Friday.

James Lee Clayter, 18, of Omaha pleaded guilty Friday in Lancaster District Court to escaping from prison and was sentenced by Judge Elmer Scheele to an extra year.

Astronaut's Dad Dies

New Concord, Ohio (AP) — John H. Glenn Sr., the father of the United States' first orbiting astronaut, died. He was 71.

Search Resumes For Art Miller, Stuart Resident

Stuart (AP) — A search was resumed Friday for Art Miller, about 55, of Stuart.

Miller disappeared Wednesday afternoon while helping other members of his family working in a hay field on a ranch 12 miles southwest of Stuart. He stopped the mower he was operating, got off and walked away, Mrs. Lloyd Thurlow, Stuart Civil Defense director, said.

She said the family thought Miller was going to make a phone call but he did not return. He was seen in Stuart Wednesday afternoon.

A party of 150 men and 20 saddle horses from the Atkinson, Bassett and Stuart areas began the search Thursday. They resumed Friday and were expecting CAP planes from Omaha to join the hunt.

Robert Herrick, Bell Telephone Official, Is Dead

Omaha (AP)—Services will be held Saturday for Robert Herrick, 44, general plant manager for the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. in Nebraska. He died Thursday.

Herrick, a native of Estherville, Iowa, had been with the company 17 years. He was a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., and served as a Marine captain during the Korean War.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter; five sons; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Herrick of Des Moines, and two sisters.

Omaha To Host Rose Society's Meeting, Show

The show headquarters will be the First Federal of Lincoln building 2120 South 42nd Street.

Rose show judging will be Saturday. The show will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sunday.

Among speakers during the five-day meeting will be Harry Wheatcroft, Nottingham, England; Carl J. Holst, president of the Minnesota Horticultural Society, and Dr. Robert M. Zollinger, American Rose Society president.

Taxes Major State Issue, Says Tiemann

Beatrice (UPI) — Norbert Tiemann of Wausa, GOP candidate for governor, said Friday the major issue in the campaign is taxes.

He said he hopes the voters will turn down the income tax law enacted by the 1965 legislature. The reason, he said, is that the law provides for the state board of equalization to set the rate of taxes. This should be done by the legislature, Tiemann said.

Commenting on other topics, the gubernatorial nominee said he favors issuance of revenue bonds to speed state highway work. He said there isn't too much a governor can do about the interstate program because it is 90% federally financed.

Nebraska News

Favors Junior Colleges

Tiemann said "before anything happens in Nebraska in the way of progress, we must start with educational excellence." He said existing institutions of higher learning should be upgraded. He added that a system of junior colleges should be established and more vocational schools should be built.

Another thing the state should do, according to Tiemann, is make an investment in a research center or research facility.

IFYE Delegate To Uruguay Off For Washington

Susan Wiles, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wiles of Bennet, left Friday for Washington, D.C., on the first leg of a trip to Uruguay where she will live for six months as Nebraska delegate in the International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) program.

She will spend a week in Washington in an orientation session, prior to leaving on September 17 for Montevideo, Uruguay. Miss Wiles, a former Lancaster County 4-H member and a June, 1966, graduate of the University of Nebraska, will live with eight different families during her six-month stay.

The International Farm Youth Exchange program is a two-way exchange of the U.S. with rural young people of 68 other countries. IFYE is conducted by the National 4-H Club Foundation and coordinated by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Nebraska Far Behind In Ag Agents Compared To Others

. . . Dr. Adams Tells Extension Board Heads

Kearney — Nebraska would need an additional 64 county agents and 36 home agents in order to be comparable with other major agricultural states in services provided by Extension, according to the of the University of Nebraska Agricultural Extension Service.

This would give the state an average of one agricultural agent per 600 farms and one home agent per county Extension office. Speaking to a group of 70 County Extension Board presidents here Friday, Dr. John L. Adams said only alternative to a larger staff is the amalgamation of smaller counties into two, three and four-county organigations.

He said Nebraska ranks sixth in the U.S. in cash receipts from farming and ranching, but 27th in number of Extension workers.

Dr. Adams said $498,000 in state support and $548,000 in county funds would be required to add the additional 100 agents.

NU Regent Robert Raun of Minden told the Extension presidents that there is a critical need for more funds for the University of Nebraska. Terming expenditures for teaching, Extension and research an investment, he said the University must be prepared for continuing substantial increases in enrollment. He predicted the University will have more than 20,000 students within the next four years.

"We are very happy to have fewer dropouts in college," Raun said, "but even this is contributing to our snowballing enrollment."

60 Job Corps Girls Moving Into Paxton

Omaha (AP)—About 60 girls will move into the Paxton Hotel Sunday as the first of its new Job Corps tenants.

Director Robert Anderson said Friday that the hotel is undergoing renovation which will cost more than $200,000.

The heating-air conditioning plant is being improved and the ballroom is being remodeled into a gymnasium-assembly room, he said.

By next March the hotel will house 450 girls. The Regis Hotel Job Corps Center, which has been in use for sometime, will have 350.

Anderson said the plan is for new enrollees to move into the Regis, stay there until entering vocational training, then move to the Paxton.

About 30 days before graduation, the girls will move back to the Regis to serve as advisers to new enrollees. Rules will be relaxed and a "halfway house" atmosphere will be created for the soon-to-graduate girls, he said.

Jack O'Brien, 45, Dies; Had Heart Valve Transplant

Council Bluffs, Iowa (AP) — Jack R. O'Brien, 45, advertising manager of the Council Bluffs Nonpareil, died Friday after suffering a heart attack.

He had undergone surgery for a heart valve transplant last February and returned to work only two months ago.

What Is a
Seventh-day Adventist?

- He believes in a free conscience
The Seventh-day Adventist believes that freedom of speech, religion, press, and assembly not only are constitutionally guaranteed rights but more—they are rights given by God Himself, who created us with the power of choice and intended that we should use it in matters of conscience.

- He believes in voluntary worship . . .
To the Adventist, state or church-enforced observance of a day of rest or method of worship is repulsive. He believes the church should be free to persuade men but never to force men by resorting to civil powers to cause them to observe any specified form or day of worship.

- He believes in citizen responsibility . . .
As a prospective citizen of Heaven the Adventist cannot take human life. But as a citizen of his country he can help to save life by service in the medical branch of the armed forces. He even prepares for this service at his own expense before military induction.

The Conservation Log Jam

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

President Johnson this week signed two major bills—one a $13.9 billion package containing $22 million for rent supplements and the other a $300 million bundle for beefing up mass transit systems in metropolitan areas. We have no argument with these proposals and, in fact, believe them to be programs essential to the future development and welfare of the nation.

Nebraska, however, will not have a big stake in either of them. It is not likely that we will use the mass transit aid program, at all, and will probably make no more than limited use of the rent supplement program. On the other hand, the President will soon be facing another appropriations bill. It will be one including funds for planning and new starts in watershed conservation districts. In this, Nebraska has a vital interest but the program has its problems. The President in his budget to Congress asked for only 50 new planning projects and 35 new starts throughout the nation for the coming fiscal year.

In Nebraska Interest

This is a curtailment of activity in keeping with the demands of the Viet Nam war and the inflationary trends in the economy. But we think that conservation is a poor place to let the ax fall. The nation can afford the mass transit program and the housing program and it can also afford a sound conservation program.

The fact is that we cannot afford not to push ahead with conservation. In another column on this page yesterday was a quote from Mrs. Joe Heitz in the Schuyler Sun, a Nebraska weekly newspaper. She said: "There need never be a flood if proper precautions are taken at the source of the streams and their adjacent watersheds."

Thus, Mrs. Heitz is angered when she sees flood waters destroying the land and property of the people of Nebraska. It is late and getting later, she warned. "God made the world with just so many tillable acres. From these acres we must feed billions of people. We just can't afford to let this soil be washed out into the ocean . . ."

That says it about as well as it can be said but there are some other pertinent facts in the situation. A House and Senate conference committee has agreed to a conservation bill that calls for 100 new planning projects and 80 new starts, about double the President's recommendation. It is hoped that this recommendation stands up through final legislative action and endorsement by the President. If it doesn't, the future of Nebraska will have been seriously hampered.

The truth is that the federal program could be doubled again and still leave us with a long row to hoe. In control of the watersheds of the state of Nebraska, we now have less than half a start on things. There are 98 watershed development projects in the state in some stage of formation and this includes 45 that are still pending on application for planning money.

At the last meeting of the State Soil and Water Conservation Commission, it was estimated that there is a 15-year backlog of watershed applications pending federal approval and congressional funding. This may not be as bad as it looks but it isn't good.

It is based on the current restricted program at the federal level which would improve in the event of a stabilization of the economy or an end to the Viet Nam conflict. Nebraska would be allocated three planning projects a year under current thinking, which would take it 15 years to get the job done on the 45 applications it has pending.

Obviously, this is too long to wait. The state commission, of course, intends to keep pushing on its allocation of planning funds and construction. Toward that end, it will seek a 25 percent increase in appropriations from the Legislature in 1967. This is vital if we are to maintain our momentum and if we are to be ready when the day comes, as it surely will, when the federal funding is accelerated. In the Elkhorn, Blue and other watersheds, there is a new awakening to the obvious need for and benefits of an integrated conservation program. We must take advantage of this heightened public interest and must maintain the structure of our state agency.

Awareness Of Need

This is no time to cut back on the state level and it is hoped senators realize this in January. At the national level we need strong leadership to push those interests that are essential to our state, along with our national efforts aimed at problems not so squarely on our doorstep. As it is, the voice of the Midwest is too often not heard in quarters where decisions are made.

Viet Nam Election

There are times when democratic processes won't work. An example is the election tomorrow in Viet Nam.

Premier Ky has set up a slate of candidates for a constitutional convention to determine the future outlines of government. He can hardly lose the election. Meantime, the Viet Cong are busy shooting the voters. The candidates thus far have somehow been preserved. But their turn for pressure is yet to come.

The election must be held, we will admit. The situation demands it and the whole procedure might avert more serious circumstances. But it is not an election in the American sense. Democracy requires selfrestraint and a willingness for all to accept the will of a free majority. War torn Viet Nam is no place for that, especially since it has no experience in democratic action.

But the campaign has achieved some things. It has shown the ruthlessness of the communist forces and their determination not to permit public judgment. They are killing, torturing and bombing not only the village leadership, but anyone who wishes to participate in the election. Of course, no political system based on recognition of people could prevail. Communism has frequently showed its authoritarianism, but never more dramatically than in Viet Nam. It gives us a measure of our overall problem there.

Democracy is a manifestation of an elevated form of society. Authoritarianism is of a lower order. It is based on bloodshed and terror.

One must take some satisfaction out of the election because it denotes a start in the right direction. But much needs yet to be done and a sufficiently advanced society over there is still some distance off.

The Mountain Federation

These states between the Mississippi River and the western mountains—aware of their lack of population and their lower place on the national economic scale—are always probing for new ideas which will change things. The thinking has not been too ingenious.

But a little farther west there has arisen a fresh idea which will bear watching.

Colorado, Arizona, Utah, Wyoming, New Mexico, Montana and Idaho, have decided to pool their efforts. They have lately formed a Federation of Rocky Mountain States.

This new federation is not primarily political. But seven states can field 14 senators and a greater number of congressmen, who, if assembled in a bloc, comprise political power.

The federation hopes to operate in what it calls the gray area between what the states individually ought to be doing and what the federal government is doing. It will not limit itself to business and commerce, but proposes also to encourage and support civic, cultural, educational, scientific and technological activities. It proposes to eliminate duplication and friction between the member states and to drive them equally toward one goal — the improvement of the region.

A budget of $1 million has been subscribed for the first two years and this is sensible, for in a capitalist economy planning must be bolstered by the capital to put it across.

Editorial Of The Day

'No' And 'Nyet'

From The New York Times

Recent events suggest that the power of negative thinking can be as potent—and as unwise— in Washington as in Moscow. The words "no" and "nyet" mean the same thing after all, in English and Russian respectively.

Speaking in Detroit yesterday, President Johnson routinely rejected General de Gaulle's peacemaking proposals for Vietnam. The President's negativism was no surprise, since a State Department spokesman had already expressed the orthodox view that it is up to Hanoi to take the first step. Regardless of the dour reading that the Administration may make of General de Gaulle's motives for intervening in Southeast Asia at this time, sophisticated diplomacy could have turned his initiative to this country's advantage.

Pravda put on an equally bleak performance the other day by its surly editorial reply to Mr. Johnson's plea for Moscow-Washington cooperation In terms of Soviet orthodoxy, this rejection has its own logic. When Peking screams daily about "Soviet-American conspiracy," the Russian leaders believe they cannot afford to give the Chinese ammunition for further attacks by publicly acknowledging the constructive nature of the President's proposals. Pravda was therefore instructed to take the standard dreary line that Mr. Johnson was only engaged in a maneuver to distract attention from American escalation in Vietnam.

But the Soviet Government has long demonstrated its skill in asserting one position in public while moving away from it in private. The true test of the Soviet reaction to Mr. Johnson's speech will be provided by diplomatic developments in the months ahead. Will the good beginning already made toward a space treaty terminate successfully? Will it be possible to make further progress toward curbing nuclear proliferation and banning all nuclear tests?

Congress Is Unfree Of Interest Conflict

WASHINGTON—A former member of the cabinet died the other day whose career marked a milestone in the battle to prevent government conflicts of interest. He was Howard McGrath, Truman's attorney general, former senator from Rhode Island, former governor of that state and former campaign manager for Truman.

Despite his long career and despite all that he had done for Truman, the latter fired him in the 1952 row over mink coats and gifts given to government officials.

To clean out conflicts and set up standards for gift-giving, Truman had invited Newbold Morris, a New York independent and son-in-law of Judge Learned Hand, to come to Washington and serve as a special assistant in the Justice Department.

One of the clean-up remedies Morris concocted was a questionnaire to be signed by every cabinet member and every government executive, stating what stocks and bonds, what property he held, and what he had acquired during his term of office.

Attorney General McGrath refused to sign, and Truman fired him. McGrath had taken no gifts, but he had acquired property. During his long career as U.S. attorney general, governor of Rhode Island and senator from that state, he had acquired a large share of the Textron textile mills and the Lincoln Downs racetrack at Pawtucket.

To reveal this would have been embarrassing, so McGrath refused to complete the questionnaire, and was fired.

The important point to be underlined today is the fact that the executive branch of government has progressed a long way since McGrath's day while Congress has retrograded.

Today, under Johnson, the executive has stricter rules on gifts than ever before in history, with an arrangement whereby an official's stocks, bonds and other property are listed with the civil service commission before he enters government. If his government decisions make money for his investments, this fact can be ascertained immediately.

But on Capitol Hill just the opposite holds true. There is no means of checking on a senator or congressman as to whether his vote promotes his investments.

Rep. James Scheuer, D-N.Y., refrained from voting on the housing bill because he is an apartment house owner.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., refrained from voting on Agriculture Department appropriations because they contained money for the farm lime program and his farm manager had received lime payments under that program.

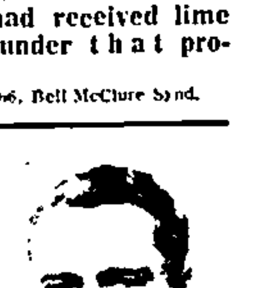
Brain Drain Hurts Our Aid Effort



WASHINGTON—In a New York hospital, virtually all resident physicians and interns are Indian, Chinese, Iranian, Pakistani, Argentinians. In a small research laboratory on Long Island, four of the scientists and at least a half dozen skilled technicians are from developing countries around the world.

This is the brain drain that annually transplants to affluent America thousands of the brainiest and most highly trained men and women from where they are desperately needed. Because it defeats one of the principal aims of aid to the developing countries, policymakers here have suddenly become concerned over the extent of the brain drain.

No one knows its exact scope. But as the United States spends billions of dollars to aid struggling new countries, the unlimited American demand for specialists and technicians at the same time siphons off the very people who might make aid effective. A United Nations report showed that 43,000 scientists and engineers emigrated to the United States between 1949 and 1961. While this sounds like a relatively small number, many of them came from countries with virtually no trained and specialized personnel.

The same U.N. report showed that of 11,200 immigrants from Argentina alone between 1951 and 1963, half were technicians and professional men, 15 percent high-level administrators and 38 percent skilled workers. An article in Foreign Affairs underscoring the brain drain's threat to the developing world reports that 28 percent of the interns and 26 percent of the resident physicians in American hospitals in 1964-65 were foreign graduates, nearly 11,000 in all, and 70 to 80 percent were from developing countries.

Many of these men and women were educated in American universities under a variety of aid programs and with the help of the big foundations. While they may have gone back home briefly, they quickly returned to the land where opportunity and the resources for research are plentiful. So significant has this movement become that as one observer expressed it, "The movement of high-level human resources may, to a great extent, account for the persistent and ever-widening gaps between rich and poor areas."

The first tentative steps are being taken to try to check a trend that negates the usefulness of much of the American aid flowing out to developing countries. The distinguished geochemist of the California Institute of Technology, Harrison Brown, foreign secretary of the National Academy of Sciences, is encouraging the formation in a half dozen countries in Latin America, Asia and Africa of indigenous national science councils. American scientists will cooperate in helping to start these councils.

Then GBR takes over.

Have you noticed that the number of applicants for the Husker Marching Band has increased in the past few years now that glamorous bowl trips have become annual winter fare for bandsmen?

Yes, says Director Jack Snider.

There has been a noticeable increase in applications the last four years, he noted. Those four years, of course, represent the Devaney era—with bowl games tagged on the end of each.

"Winning football has made a difference in the band," Snider pointed out.

This year, 300 students tried out for positions. The 175-man aggregation will boast 117 "lettermen" and 58 new members, making it an unusually experienced band.

And, for the first time in recent memory, all Big Eight schools which play in Lincoln this year are sending their bands along.

Phil Sorensen told Lincoln JayCees this week about all the problems he had with the donkey which led his cart in the State Fair parade through downtown Lincoln.

The donkey, he was told, had to be handled with a whip. Well, it seems that the animal decided to stop at every metal crossbar in the street, and candidate Sorensen was left with the choice of whipping him on or sitting in the street.

"Every time I used the whip, I thought: 'There go 500 votes.' But every time I stopped, I thought there go 500 more," Sorensen said.

"If he can't handle a donkey, how can he handle the state?"

To complicate matters further, the donkey moved up close behind a horse in the parade, "and everytime the horse stopped, we would bump up against him, and there would go 500 more votes," Sorensen said.

"Next time," Nobby Tiemann helpfully suggested, "follow an elephant."

Finishing up:

—When congressional contenders Clair Callan and Bob Denney appeared on KOLN-TV's "Meet the Candidates" show to answer newsmen's questions, they each preempted the panel quiz "To Tell The Truth." Will the real congressman please stand?

—Now that they've hit the cellar (spreading doom and gloom only in pockets of isolated resistance), let's break up the Yankee-haters.

—Iowa Republicans have nominated an Iowa State professor to take on Democratic Gov. Harold Hughes, and Iowa Democrats have nominated an Iowa State professor to challenge Republican Sen. Jack Miller. Is this the year of the intellectual in Iowa, or some plot formulated in Ames to try to finally get that football game with SUI?

—If Ted Kennedy comes to Omaha on Sept. 23, as tentatively planned, he'll be playing opposite Richard Nixon and the Republican state convention, both scheduled for Omaha on the same date.

First national political figure to make it to the NU campus this school year will be Thruston Morton. He'll be at the Nebraska Union next Wednesday afternoon for a coffee hour and a press conference.

Posse Activities

Lincoln, Neb.

It is quite evident that Sheriff Merle Karnopp is reaching in the clouds for accusations he is making against Bob Colin stating that his office wanted the Sheriff's Posse to sponsor a football team and that as president of the posse at the time, Bob Colin was opposed to it.

After reading his prevarications, as a past president and a member of the board of directors at that time, I would like to make it clear to everyone what actually took place. Sheriff Karnopp or Deputy Sheriff Vince McNeil have never approached the posse with the possibility of sponsoring a team or any other youth activity. During a posse board meeting, one of the board of directors, Bob Lane, who at that time was a regular deputy sheriff, advised the board of directors that he and Deputy Del Zieman approached Sheriff Karnopp asking his permission to have the sheriff's office act as a sponsor of a midget football team to compete in the city football league.

Deputy Lane advised the board that Sheriff Karnopp was opposed to the idea and gave the reason that the sheriff's department could not be liable in the event some boy might be hurt. Being extremely interested in youth programs, Deputy Lane asked the posse board of directors if they would be interested in sponsoring this team. The response of the board and President Bob Colin was enthusiastic. Deputy Lane proceeded to explain the requirements necessary to sponsor the midget team and at that time it would have cost approximately $2,200 for uniforms and equipment. It was the unanimous decision of the board that this project, no matter how worthwhile, could not possibly be sponsored by the possee due to the lack of funds.

In the past, the Sheriff's Posse has approached Sheriff Karnopp a number of times requesting permission to have some type of money-making projects such as bake sales, performances by the drill team, special guard duty with private concerns and traffic control, enabling the posse to have funds to sponsor all types of youth activities and donations to charitable organizations that have been made in the past out of the pockets of the members. In each case, Sheriff Karnopp's answer was "no."

During my seven years as a member of the possee, not once has Sheriff Karnopp shown any interest in the posse and its functions other than at election time or once or twice a year during posse activities that involve a guest celebrity or events that involve publicity. I am sure any citizen who is acquainted with Bob Colin knows his feelings and desire to promote all types of youth activities.

Sales Tax

Lincoln, Neb.

I am writing to complain about the ever increasing tax on property here in Nebraska. I can realize that the state needs more money, but why always the property owner? People who have tried to save a little money and have bought a home are being penalized for their efforts now.

Nearly every state in the Union has a state sales tax and we are just hurting ourselves by not having one, as we can't leave our state to go anywhere else on business or a vacation without paying from one to five dollars or more in sales taxes per day toward that state. Yet all those people can come to or through Nebraska without leaving us a dime.

A state income tax will never touch anybody from out of state, either, and it always hurts the working people more than nearly anyone else, as they can't deduct depreciation, advertising, parties and many other items before paying their tax, as some businesses can.

The cost of meat, milk and fruits, in fact most groceries, is higher here than on the West Coast or in many other states and yet the wages paid here are lower. We can't blame the young people for leaving here when they graduate from our universities and trade school, as Nebraska has not much to offer them.

I cannot see where our tax system has helped attract much industry, as we have very little compared to other states around us.

A sales tax would probably hurt a few businesses in Omaha, as they would lose some trade from Council Bluffs, since they don't pay sales tax here but do in Iowa, So probably their senators are against a sales tax. But the majority should rule, and seemingly the people want it; why not the senators in this state?

Callan Record

Lincoln, Neb.

Of all political contests this year in Nebraska, there is no greater gap between the qualifications of candidates than that between Congressman Clair Callan and his opponent. Mr. Callan's qualifications through past experience and proven abilities provide Nebraskans with one of their most competent congressional representatives in history.

There are just a few of the facts since Mr. Callan has been in office:

(1) Our congressional district has secured eight new watersheds, a national record.

(2) Lincoln has secured House authorization and initial funding for a main post office and federal building, the only city with two such major projects approved in one year.

(3) Forty-six community post office facilities have been built or improved in our district.

Let Mr. Callan, the only Nebraskan on the Agriculture Committee, stand on his record. Let fact, not meaningless cliches and half-truths, determine our state's future.

The Conservation Log Jam

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

President Johnson this week signed two major bills—one a $13.9 billion package containing $22 million for rent supplements and the other a $300 million bundle for beefing up mass transit systems in metropolitan areas. We have no argument with these proposals and, in fact, believe them to be programs essential to the future development and welfare of the nation.

Nebraska, however, will not have a big stake in either of them. It is not likely that we will use the mass transit aid program, at all, and will probably make no more than limited use of the rent supplement program. On the other hand, the President will soon be facing another appropriations bill. It will be one including funds for planning and new starts in watershed conservation districts. In this, Nebraska has a vital interest but the program has its problems. The President in his budget to Congress asked for only 50 new planning projects and 35 new starts throughout the nation for the coming fiscal year.

In Nebraska Interest

This is a curtailment of activity in keeping with the demands of the Viet Nam war and the inflationary trends in the economy. But we think that conservation is a poor place to let the ax fall. The nation can afford the mass transit program and the housing program and it can also afford a sound conservation program.

The fact is that we cannot afford not to push ahead with conservation. In another column on this page yesterday was a quote from Mrs. Joe Heitz in the Schuyler Sun, a Nebraska weekly newspaper. She said: "There need never be a flood if proper precautions are taken at the source of the streams and their adjacent watersheds."

Thus, Mrs. Heitz is angered when she sees flood waters destroying the land and property of the people of Nebraska. It is late and getting later, she warned. "God made the world with just so many tillable acres. From these acres we must feed billions of people. We just can't afford to let this soil be washed out into the ocean . . ."

That says it about as well as it can be said but there are some other pertinent facts in the situation. A House and Senate conference committee has agreed to a conservation bill that calls for 100 new planning projects and 80 new starts, about double the President's recommendation. It is hoped that this recommendation stands up through final legislative action and endorsement by the President. If it doesn't, the future of Nebraska will have been seriously hampered.

The truth is that the federal program could be doubled again and still leave us with a long row to hoe. In control of the watersheds of the state of Nebraska, we now have less than half a start on things. There are 98 watershed development projects in the state in some stage of formation and this includes 45 that are still pending on application for planning money.

At the last meeting of the State Soil and Water Conservation Commission, it was estimated that there is a 15-year backlog of watershed applications pending federal approval and congressional funding. This may not be as bad as it looks but it isn't good.

It is based on the current restricted program at the federal level which would improve in the event of a stabilization of the economy or an end to the Viet Nam conflict. Nebraska would be allocated three planning projects a year under current thinking, which would take it 15 years to get the job done on the 45 applications it has pending.

Obviously, this is too long to wait. The state commission, of course, intends to keep pushing on its allocation of planning funds and construcion. Toward that end, it will seek a 25 percent increase in appropriations from the Legislature in 1967. This is vital if we are to maintain our momentum and if we are to be ready when the day comes, as it surely will, when the federal funding is accelerated. In the Elkhorn, Blue and other watersheds, there is a new awakening to the obvious need for and benefits of an integrated conservation program. We must take advantage of this heightened public interest and must maintain the structure of our state agency.

Awareness Of Need

This is no time to cut back on the state level and it is hoped senators realize this in January. At the national level we need strong leadership to push those interests that are essential to our state, along with our national efforts aimed at problems not so squarely on our doorstep. As it is, the voice of the Midwest is too often not heard in quarters where decisions are made.

Viet Nam Election

There are times when democratic processes won't work. An example is the election tomorrow in Viet Nam.

Premier Ky has set up a slate of candidates for a constitutional convention to determine the future outlines of government. He can hardly lose the election. Meantime, the Viet Cong are busy shooting the voters. The candidates thus far have somehow been preserved. But their turn for pressure is yet to come.

The election must be held, we will admit. The situation demands it and the whole procedure might avert more serious circumstances. But it is not an election in the American sense. Democracy requires selfrestraint and a willingness for all to accept the will of a free majority. War torn Viet Nam is no place for that, especially since it has no experience in democratic action.

But the campaign has achieved some things. It has shown the ruthlessness of the communist forces and their determination not to permit public judgment. They are killing, torturing and bombing not only the village leadership, but anyone who wishes to participate in the election. Of course, no political system based on recognition of people could prevail. Communism has frequently showed its authoritarianism, but never more dramatically than in Viet Nam. It gives us a measure of our overall problem there.

Democracy is a manifestation of an elevated form of society. Authoritarianism is of a lower order. It is based on bloodshed and terror.

One must take some satisfaction out of the election because it denotes a start in the right direction. But much needs yet to be done and a sufficiently advanced society over there is still some distance off.

The Mountain Federation

These states between the Mississippi River and the western mountains—aware of their lack of population and their lower place on the national economic scale—are always probing for new ideas which will change things. The thinking has not been too ingenious.

But a little farther west there has arisen a fresh idea which will bear watching.

Colorado, Arizona, Utah, Wyoming, New Mexico, Montana and Idaho, have decided to pool their efforts. They have lately formed a Federation of Rocky Mountain States.

This new federation is not primarily political. But seven states can field 14 senators and a greater number of congressmen, who, if assembled in a bloc, comprise political power.

The federation hopes to operate in what it calls the gray area between what the states individually ought to be doing and what the federal government is doing. It will not limit itself to business and commerce, but proposes also to encourage and support civic, cultural, educational, scientific and technological activities. It proposes to eliminate duplication and friction between the member states and to drive them equally toward one goal — the improvement of the region.

A budget of $1 million has been subscribed for the first two years and this is sensible, for in a capitalist economy planning must be bolstered by the capital to put it across.

Editorial Of The Day

From The New York Times

Recent events suggest that the power of negative thinking can be as potent—and as unwise— in Washington as in Moscow. The words "no" and "nyet" mean the same thing after all, in English and Russian respectively.

Speaking in Detroit yesterday, President Johnson routinely rejected General de Gaulle's peacemaking proposals for Vietnam. The President's negativism was no surprise, since a State Department spokesman had already expressed the orthodox view that it is up to Hanoi to take the first step. Regardless of the dour reading that the Administration may make of General de Gaulle's motives for intervening in Southeast Asia at this time, sophisticated diplomacy could have turned his initiative to this country's advantage.

Pravda put on an equally bleak performance the other day by its surly editorial reply to Mr. Johnson's plea for Moscow-Washington cooperation In terms of Soviet orthodoxy, this rejection has its own logic. When Peking screams daily about "Soviet-American conspiracy," the Russian leaders believe they cannot afford to give the Chinese ammunition for further attacks by publicly acknowledging the constructive nature of the President's proposals. Pravda was therefore instructed to take the standard dreary line that Mr. Johnson was only engaged in a maneuver to distract attention from American escalation in Vietnam.

But the Soviet Government has long demonstrated its skill in asserting one position in public while moving away from it in private. The true test of the Soviet reaction to Mr. Johnson's speech will be provided by diplomatic developments in the months ahead. Will the good beginning already made toward a space treaty terminate successfully? Will it be possible to make further progress toward curbing nuclear proliferation and banning all nuclear tests?

Congress Is Unfree Of Interest Conflict

WASHINGTON—A former member of the cabinet died the other day whose career marked a milestone in the battle to prevent government conflicts of interest. He was Howard McGrath, Truman's attorney general, former senator from Rhode Island, former governor of that state and former campaign manager for Truman.

Despite his long career and despite all that he had done for Truman, the latter fired him in the 1952 row over mink coats and gifts given to government officials.

To clean out conflicts and set up standards for gift-giving, Truman had invited Newbold Morris, a New York independent and son-in-law of Judge Learned Hand, to come to Washington and serve as a special assistant in the Justice Department.

One of the clean-up remedies Morris concocted was a questionnaire to be signed by every cabinet member and every government executive, stating what stocks and bonds, what property he held, and what he had acquired during his term of office.

Attorney General McGrath refused to sign, and Truman fired him. McGrath had taken no gifts, but he had acquired property. During his long career as U.S. attorney general, governor of Rhode Island and senator from that state, he had acquired a large share of the Textron textile mills and the Lincoln Downs racetrack at Pawtucket.

To reveal this would have been embarrassing, so McGrath refused to complete the questionnaire, and was fired.

The important point to be underlined today is the fact that the executive branch of government has progressed a long way since McGrath's day while Congress has retrograded.

Today, under Johnson, the executive has stricter rules on gifts than ever before in history, with an arrangement whereby an official's stocks, bonds and other property are listed with the civil service commission before he enters government. If his government decisions make money for his investments, this fact can be ascertained immediately.

But on Capitol Hill just the opposite holds true. There is no means of checking on a senator or congressman as to whether his vote promotes his investments.

Rep. James Scheuer, D-N.Y., refrained from voting on the housing bill because he is an apartment house owner.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., refrained from voting on Agriculture Department appropriations because they contained money for the farm lime program and his farm manager had received lime payments under that program.

Brain Drain Hurts Our Aid Effort

WASHINGTON—In a New York hospital, virtually all resident physicians and interns are Indian, Chinese, Iranian, Pakistani, Argentinians. In a small research laboratory on Long Island, four of the scientists and at least a half dozen skilled technicians are from developing countries around the world.

This is the brain drain that annually transplants to affluent America thousands of the brainiest and most highly trained men and women from where they are desperately needed. Because it defeats one of the principal aims of aid to the developing countries, policymakers here have suddenly become concerned over the extent of the brain drain.

No one knows its exact scope. But as the United States spends billions of dollars to aid struggling new countries, the unlimited American demand for specialists and technicians at the same time siphons off the very people who might make aid effective. A United Nations report showed that 43,000 scientists and engineers emigrated to the United States between 1949 and 1961. While this sounds like a relatively small number, many of them came from countries with virtually no trained and specialized personnel.

The same U.N. report showed that of 11,200 immigrants from Argentina alone between 1951 and 1963, half were technicians and professional men, 15 percent high-level administrators and 38 percent skilled workers. An article in Foreign Affairs underscoring the brain drain's threat to the developing world reports that 28 percent of the interns and 26 percent of the resident physicians in American hospitals in 1964-65 were foreign graduates, nearly 11,000 in all, and 70 to 80 percent were from developing countries.

Many of these men and women were educated in American universities under a variety of aid programs and with the help of the big foundations. While they may have gone back home briefly, they quickly returned to the land where opportunity and the resources for research are plentiful. So significant has this movement become that as one observer expressed it, "The movement of high-level human resources may, to a great extent, account for the persistent and ever-widening gaps between rich and poor areas."

The first tentative steps are being taken to try to check a trend that negates the usefulness of much of the American aid flowing out to developing countries. The distinguished geochemist of the California Institute of Technology, Harrison Brown, foreign secretary of the National Academy of Sciences, is encouraging the formation in a half dozen countries in Latin America, Asia and Africa of indigenous national science councils. American scientists will cooperate in helping to start these councils.

Survey Team Asks Hospital Updating

By Associated Press

CLAIR CALLAN
Continuing Help At VA

Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., disclosed Friday that a survey team has recommended a series of improvements at the Lincoln Veterans Administration (VA) Hospital, which at one time was marked for closure but which has since received a new lease on life.

Callan said rapid progress is being made on plans for converting the hospital into "a dynamic medical and surgical facility."

The survey team began its studies of the hospital after VA Administrator William Driver inspected it last October. The team's recommendations are now under study at the "highest echelons" of the VA, Callan said.

Callan said he understands the team recommended air-conditioning of the facility, updating of the laboratory with the possibility of adding an emphysema treatment unit, and other modernization and remodeling steps.

'Continuing Thing'

The congressman said he plans to push the improvement program until it is finally completed, thus assuring that the Lincoln hospital "will be a continuing thing."

Dr. Melvin Boykin, the Lincoln VA Hospital director who participated with Callan in a news conference Friday, said the air conditioning step would be "a boost to our morale."

The VA hospital now has 250 beds but Dr. Boykin said he has recommended that the number be reduced to 208 to relieve crowding, and that about 27 beds be converted into nursing care beds, taking care of patients who no longer need to be kept in acute care facilities but who need more care than they could receive if placed in nursing homes in their communities.

Funds for the hospital improvements probably will be asked of Congress in the budget for fiscal 1968, Callan said.

Callan also told his news conference he is optimistic about lining up co-sponsors for a bill he introduced two weeks ago which would coordinate federal services to the handicapped. He said research has disclosed that 88 programs for the handicapped are being administered by 24 agencies spending an aggregate of $9 billion.

Callan's bill proposes setting up a special council on handicapped to coordinate the efforts, improve the service and get more returns for the dollars spent.

Staff Lacking

Similar coordinating efforts need to be made in other fields, Callan said, but congressmen lack the staffs to do the necessary research, and congressional committees are too "bogged down" with work to do the job.

Callan also said he intends to support appropriations at a level which would balance the federal budget, even if it means deferring some worthy programs.

Denney Claims Callan Wrong On Farm Income

Robert V. Denney of Fairbury, Republican candidate for First District congressman, said Friday his opponent should "get the facts about farm income straight."

Denney said Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., talked about continued improvement of farm income in a recent news release.

"By the use of the word 'continued,' Mr. Callan is giving the impression that he and his party have delivered the farmers into the promised land of prosperity. That just isn't so," he said.

"Net farm income in Nebraska last year was $527 million, approximately the same as it was in the year 1950. The truth is that the farmer is no better off than he was in 1950. That is hardly 'continued' improvement."

Denney said Callan refuses to talk about the high cost of farm production or net farmer income.

U.S. Ambassador, Foreign Minister Of France Confer

Paris (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen conferred with Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville for three hours Friday, mostly on the future of U.S. bases in France.

Informed sources said no conclusions were reached.

Part of the discussion was on the possible reactivation of the bases in case of conflict. The sources said that the two also talked about the Vietnamese question and President Charles de Gaulle's Cambodia speech in which he invited the United States, but not North Viet Nam, to adopt a schedule for withdrawal of troops from Viet Nam.

School Units Are Attacked By NSIA Head

By Associated Press

The executive secretary of the Nebraska School Improvement Association (NSIA) said Friday it is now obvious that the true objective of the 1965 educational service unit law was to create "an intermediate or super school district system" in Nebraska.

NSIA spokesman S. H. Brauer Jr. said the recommendation of a legislative study committee for a statewide system of area schools for handicapped children recognizes that the educational service unit law was not designed to provide programs for the handicapped.

"We stated before the bill was passed by the Legislature that the educational service units would never provide a workable or satisfactory solution" to the problem of educating or training the handicapped, Brauer said.

"We contended from the beginning that the mentally retarded and physically handicapped were being "victimized" by supporters of the law "as a smoke screen to divert attention away from the bill's true purpose."

Brauer said the proposed system of area schools comes nearer to providing "a practical and realistic program to help the mentally retarded than anything advanced heretofore, but still leaves much to be desired."

Action On Complaint Against Misle Put Off

The State Motor Vehicle Dealers License Board deferred action on a 1966 complaint against Misle Chevrolet Co. of 4949 O in the face of a 1963 injunction.

Assistant Atty. Gen Calvin advised the board that the terms of the Lancaster District Court's injunctive order of Oct. 10, 1963, were so broad as to prevent the board from taking action on any complaint against the Lincoln car dealer until the order is modified or lifted.

Joseph Ginsburg, attorney for Misle, presented the 1963 order during an informal hearing Friday on a complaint by Kenneth L. Franks, doing business as Bud's Electric Co., against Misle.

No Hearings

The order, issued by District Judge Bartlett E. Boyles, enjoined the board from holding or attempting to hold any hearings regarding the revocation or suspension of Misle's dealer license and infringing upon his right to do business.

Ginsburg said the order was still in effect because it had never been resolved or dissolved.

The board instructed its attorney to attempt to obtain clarification or modification of Judge Boyles' order.

Good Test

Left pending by the old injunctive order was Frank's complaint that the Misle firm had failed to honor a written agreement involving the repair of the transmission of his truck.

He alleged that Misle had given a written agreement to make the repairs without charge under warranty, but then billed him $102 for the work.

Nebraska City Aide Critical Of Pollution

By Associated Press

A Nebraska City official has complained that smaller Nebraska communities have been forced to treat their wastes discharged into the Missouri River while the City of Omaha has not.

State Sanitation Engineer T. A. Filipi Friday read to the Nebraska Water Pollution Control Council a letter from Vern Livingston, manager of the Nebraska City Utilities Department.

In the letter, Livingston said:

"It is our understanding that Omaha is still dumping raw sewage into the river.

"If this is the case, we do not think that it is fair to require Nebraska City, Plattsmouth, Bellevue and many of the other smaller communities to spend their money to remove pollution from the Missouri River if the largest polluter of them all is permitted to continue dumping sewage into the river."

Student Gets Two Years' Probation In Hit-Run Case

A University of Nebraska student, charged with leaving the scene of a March 12 accident in which a three-year-old child was injured, was placed on probation for two years Friday by Judge Elmer Scheele.

Randall E. Varilek, 19, of Beemer, had pleaded guilty to the charge Aug. 16, having pleaded innocent earlier.

According to Lancaster County Att. Paul Douglas, the youth signed a statement in which he admitted he was driving with a suspended license at the time of the accident.

Varilek turned himself in to authorities two days after the accident in which Bryan K. Claussen of Storm Lake, Iowa, was injured while visiting Lincoln friends at 4226 Madison.

Widow Yearns For Country Life

By ROBERT PETERSON

Q. "I'm a widow, 60, working as a cafeteria manager. But I'm sick of the city and the hard pace of managing a big food service. I yearn to get out into the country and live a more relaxing life. But I haven't been able to save up enough money to retire. What should I do?"

A. Why not go to a nice suburban community and see if you can't find a job as housekeeper in someone's home. There are thousands of well-to-do families eager to offer comfortable quarters and good salary to someone who can do light cooking, manage shopping, and supervise housekeeping activities.

Q. "My problem is that since retiring I get up in the morning and sit there over my coffee with the awful realization that I haven't got a thing that has to be done all day. How do people cope with this?"

A. They go out and find things to fill the vacuum. They join clubs and take offices which give them specific duties. They take up creative pursuits, and learn how to do woodworking, weaving or ceramics. They volunteer their services to worthwhile organizations, and they visit shut-ins. You can do all these things, too.

Q. "What do you do about someone who keeps pestering and calling you? I'm a bachelor who has never known anyone in my apartment building, and don't want to. But then someone introduced me to a woman on the second floor who got my number and keeps calling me. What's to be done?"

A. Sounds as if you've become so ingrown that you're afraid to make contacts. Why not get acquainted with this woman? She may have a lot to offer, and may introduce you to others who can help you break out of your shell. Don't become a hermit and recluse — something that could happen very easily if you shut people out of your personal life.

Q. "It makes me mad to hear our new minister pandy around on fundamentals. I was brought up with a literal Protestant belief in the Bible, yet this young man tells us there's some doubt about the golden streets in Heaven, and some doubt about the nature of sin. What do you say?"

A. If, as a Protestant, you don't like what your minister is preaching, you can always find another church. Each minister brings to the pulpit unique ways of interpreting the Bible. And each era brings new insights and concepts of Biblical interpretation. You can let a minister guide your thinking, but you still have the right to interpret religious concepts as you please.

Q. "I think it's a crime the way science keeps some older people alive when they're helpless bed cases, suffering losses of mind and body which make them tantamount to the living dead."

A. You have a point, but I think we're all glad to live in a society where science makes every effort to keep us alive—including those few who are seemingly helpless and have no chance of recovery. It could be pretty shattering to our ideals and sense of confidence if science weren't interested.

Survey Team Asks Hospital Updating

By Associated Press

Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., disclosed Friday that a survey team has recommended a series of improvements at the Lincoln Veterans Administration (VA) Hospital, which at one time was marked for closure but which has since received a new lease on life.

CLAIR CALLAN

Continuing Help At VA

Callan said rapid progress is being made on plans for converting the hospital into "a dynamic medical and surgical facility."

The survey team began its studies of the hospital after VA Administrator William Driver inspected it last October. The team's recommendations are now under study at the "highest echelons" of the VA, Callan said.

Callan said he understands the team recommended air-conditioning of the facility, updating of the laboratory with the possibility of adding an emphysema treatment unit, and other modernization and remodeling steps.

'Continuing Thing'

The congressman said he plans to push the improvement program until it is finally completed, thus assuring that the Lincoln hospital "will be a continuing thing."

Dr. Melvin Boykin, the Lincoln VA Hospital director who participated with Callan in a news conference Friday, said the air conditioning step would be "a boost to our morale."

The VA hospital now has 250 beds but Dr. Boykin said he has recommended that the number be reduced to 208 to relieve crowding, and that about 27 beds be converted into nursing care beds, taking care of patients who no longer need to be kept in acute care facilities but who need more care than they could receive if placed in nursing homes in their communities.

Statement By Chinese Encourages LBJ

Washington (UPI)—President Johnson said he was encouraged by the statement of Red Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi that neither Red China nor the United States wants a conflict in Asia.

The President told his news conference that "we are always glad when other nations feel that they have no reason to engage in a confrontation with us."

He made the statement in reply to a question about his reaction to the remarks by Chen Yi earlier this week.

Asked whether the United States was doing anything to follow up the possibility of easing tensions which seemed to be implied by the Red Chinese official's statement, Johnson said the United States always "pursues every means available to us" to achieve better understanding and better relations with other countries.

The President reiterated a pledge that the United States was willing to "lay down on the table a schedule of withdrawal" of American troops from Viet Nam — provided that "someone else lay down their own schedule of withdrawal."

In Tokyo Japanese politicians who issued the first statement accredited to Chen Yi said any inference that an easing of tension was contained in the Chen Yi remarks was wrong.

The Japanese politicians said "there had been varieties of interpretations" of Chen Yi's remarks to the Japanese mission.

4 Postmasterships Approved By LBJ

They are John W. Hamer of North Loup, Ernest E. Kuhl of Orleans, Rex C. Heltman of Wallace and Robert F. Brazda of Wisner.

The best newsmen in London work for you...(because they work for us).

Is K. C. Thaler a qualified newsman? Just listen to this: He has attended universities in four countries, has degrees in both law and economics. He speaks four languages fluently, two others well. His news career covers Germany during the growth of Nazism; Austria, Czechoslovakia, the Balkans, France. He has covered almost every major international conference in Europe since World War II. He has interviewed practically every important statesman in postwar Europe. He is now chief diplomatic reporter for United Press International in London. He works for us because we are a subscriber of UPI. Even when his news is bad, it can't be better handled.

Statement By Chinese Encourages LBJ

Washington (UPI)—President Johnson said he was encouraged by the statement of Red Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi that neither Red China nor the United States wants a conflict in Asia.

The President told his news conference that "we are always glad when other nations feel that they have no reason to engage in a confrontation with us."

He made the statement in reply to a question about his reaction to the remarks by Chen Yi earlier this week.

Asked whether the United States was doing anything to follow up the possibility of easing tensions which seemed to be implied by the Red Chinese official's statement, Johnson said the United States always "pursues every means available to us" to achieve better understanding and better relations with other countries.

The President reiterated a pledge that the United States was willing to "lay down on the table a schedule of withdrawal" of American troops from Viet Nam — provided that "someone else lay down their own schedule of withdrawal."

In Tokyo Japanese politicians who issued the first statement accredited to Chen Yi said any inference that an easing of tension was contained in the Chen Yi remarks was wrong.

The Japanese politicians said "there had been varieties of interpretations" of Chen Yi's remarks to the Japanese mission.

4 Postmasterships Approved By LBJ

Russians Concerned About Quality Of Higher Education

Moscow (AP)— The Soviet leadership expressed concern Friday about the quality of higher education in their country and ordered steps to improve it.

The Soviet press published a report on decisions enacted by the ruling Central Committee of the Soviet Communist Party and the cabinet, speaking of "serious shortcomings" in the training of specialists in science and other fields at Soviet institutions of higher education.

The shortcomings were not spelled out. But the importance of the problems was underscored by the fact that the leading party and government organs took steps to contend with them.

Key Step

One of the key steps, in the view of diplomatic sources here, was an order designed to tie university research more closely to the day-to-day needs of Soviet industry by encouraging university officials to enter into contracts with industry on practical research projects.

The university would be allowed to keep 75% of the profits from the contract and invest the proceeds in university programs.

Only sketchy details were given on the other measures ordered, but they included these general moves:

—Increased investment in research and other facilities. Each Soviet government ministry was authorized to invest the equivalent of $2,775,000 a year in university training programs for specialists in its field—for example the Ministry of Health for medical specialists.

Better Teachers

—Improved training for teachers and higher requirements for teaching posts.

—Increased teaching staff.

—Increased control by the Ministry of Higher and Specialized Secondary Education on the quality of training programs at institutes throughout the country.

—More leeway for university rectors to decide where research funds should be invested and the right for some to start university publishing houses.

The report said "the most important task" is "to improve the quality of the training of specialists." At the same time, steps were taken to improve ideological training in Marxism-Leninism and to increase party control over this field of education.

Mary Anne Martha Pedroza was not expected to live when she was born three months prematurely six years ago, weighing just two pounds. But she started to school this week, a very much alive first grader.

Protest Group May Extend To 16 States

Houston (UPI)—Two ministers who claim to be co-leaders in the Lower Rio Grande Valley protest march were planning Friday to expand their organization to 16 states in the Midwest, including Nebraska, the Southwest and West.

Rev. Antonio Gonzalez, a Roman Catholic priest, and Rev. James L. Navarro, a Baptist minister, said they hoped their work in the other states would lead to a march on Washington by 1968, the next presidential election year.

The men said they were trying to upgrade the living and working conditions of the large Latin American populations and the migrant workers in these states.

Nebraska Listed

The states are California, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan, in addition to Texas.

Father Gonzalez said his group, the Valley Workers Assistance Committee, would try to get minimum wage laws, better education for children of migrant workers, improved methods of transportation and stricter safety laws.

The committee was formed after valley melon pickers went on strike early this summer. Father Gonzalez said it was not formed to help organize the strike but to try to feed the hungry families of striking workers.

Every County

He said he hopes eventually to have a committee chapter in every county in the state of Texas.

"They will be organized primarily for food for the starving people in the valley," he said.

By starving people, Father Gonzalez said he meant those who were hungry and suffering from malnutrition.

"I was told of several who died of malnutrition or complications, other diseases they got when they were weak," he said.

He said most of the deaths were in Star County and were pre-school age children. In Austin, the State Health Department said its records do not show any deaths in the valley due to hunger, thirst or exposure last year.

Taylor Asks De-Escalation

Tokyo (UPI) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor Friday suggested that "a gradual de-escalation" by both sides could lead to a negotiated peace in South Viet Nam.

He insisted, however, that the U.S. now plans to continue hitting the enemy hard until the communists become convinced no military victory can be achieved.

In a news conference here, the retired general, who now serves as a White House consultant, said he would favor the Russians opening peace talks, but conceded this would be a "difficult area" for them.

Taylor said he feels the Russians are assisting Hanoi to assert their ideological leadership over Red China.

"My impression is, however, that the Russians are not getting any joy out of it."

The former chairman of the U.S Joint Chiefs of Staff and U.S ambassador to Saigon has been in Japan since Monday at the invitation of the Research Institute of Japan. He will return to the U.S. after a brief vacation at a resort area here this weekend.

In the news conference, Taylor reasserted the U.S. position that North Viet Nam could be included in the Southeast Asia development plan once peace has been restored in South Viet Nam.

Computers Protested

New Delhi (AP) — Nearly a million persons have signed a petition protesting the use of computers and other automation devices in job-short India. The petition, weighing 440 pounds, was presented to Parliament.

New Federal Judges Listed By President

Washington (UPI) —President Johnson nominated six new judges Friday, including two to fill new federal positions.

The President sent to the Senate for confirmation the nominations of Gerald Heaney, Duluth, Minn., to be U.S. Circuit Court judge for the 8th Circuit, and Frank A. Kaufman, Pikesville, Md., to be U.S. District Court judge for the District of Maryland. Both are new positions.

The other nominees were Alexander B. Harvey II, Baltimore, to be federal judge for Maryland, succeeding Harrison L. Winter; Robert F. Peckham of Palo Alto, Calif, to be U.S. district judge for the Northern District of California, and James A. Von Der Heydt, Juneau, Alaska, to be federal district judge for Alaska, succeeding Walter H. Hodge who is retiring.

Heaney's Eighth Circuit nomination includes St. Louis, Missouri, Kansas City, Mo., Omaha, Neb., and St. Paul, Minn. He is a Duluth attorney and a Democrat.

Car-Motorcycle Crash Injures Lincoln Boy

A Lincoln boy, 17, was injured Friday afternoon in a car-motorcycle accident at 34th and J.

Kenwood E. Staley Jr., 2820 So. 48th, was released from Bryan Memorial Hospital after treatment of cuts and bruises. Staley was thrown from his motorcycle after colliding with a southbound car driven by Barbara Barnawell, 31, of 3400 J, police said.

Actor Paiva Dies

Burma's Leader, Johnson Issue Joint Viet Peace Call

Washington (AP) — President Johnson and Burma's neutral leader, Gen. Ne Win, ended two days of private talks Friday with a joint call for an early and peaceful settlement in Viet Nam.

A joint communique said the two leaders also "stressed the urgent need to secure general and complete disarmament under effective international control."

"They were deeply concerned over the serious dangers inherent in the spread of nuclear weapons and expressed the hope that the nuclear test ban treaty would be extended to cover underground tests as well," the communique said.

No mention was made of Communist China, but concern over the spread of nuclear weapons obviously would embrace that country. Burma shares a 1,200-mile land border with Red China.

On Viet Nam the communique said Johnson outlined his efforts "which he is determined to pursue with the greatest vigor in behalf of an early settlement for peace with justice."

"The two leaders reaffirm their earnest desire for an early and peaceful settlement in Viet Nam," the statement said.

Ne Win leaves for New York Saturday morning, en route to Los Angeles.

Judge Appoints Panel To Decide Sanity Of Speck

Chicago (UPI)—A judge appointed a panel of mental experts and Friday gave them six weeks to decide whether Richard Speck, accused slayer of either nurses, is sane and fit to stand trial.

Criminal Court Judge Herbert C. Paschen approved a list of five psychiatrists and a physician drawn up by the state's attorney's office and Speck's lawyer, Public Defender Gerald Getty.

He ordered the panel to pick two psychologists to aid in the examination of the 24-year-old Texas seaman and drifter in Cook County hospital.

Argentine Police Tear Gas Students Protesting Seizure

Cordoba, Argentina (UPI) —Police fired tear gas and a water cannon Friday night to disperse a mob of about 1,000 students protesting government seizure of university administrations throughout Argentina.

No injuries were reported.

The protest followed two nights of disorders in which one student was shot and wounded, eight policemen injured and about 60 persons arrested.

In Buenos Aires, about 200 students staged a protest demonstration Friday night in the downtown section of the city, but the police made no attempt to interfere.

Organized labor in Cordoba, meanwhile, scheduled a "token protest" rally in front of union headquarters to protest "police repression." Union labor also staged a one-hour "token work stoppage" to protest developments.

The rector of the University of Cordoba Thursday suspended all classes indefinitely, Organized student groups, however, voted to continue their protest strike movement.

"They were deeply concerned over the serious dangers inherent in the spread of nuclear weapons and expressed the hope that the nuclear test ban treaty would be extended to cover underground tests as well," the communique said.

No mention was made of Communist China, but concern over the spread of nuclear weapons obviously would embrace that country. Burma shares a 1,200-mile land border with Red China.

On Viet Nam the communique said Johnson outlined his efforts "which he is determined to pursue with the greatest vigor in behalf of an early settlement for peace with justice."

"The two leaders reaffirm their earnest desire for an early and peaceful settlement in Viet Nam," the statement said.

Ne Win leaves for New York Saturday morning, en route to Los Angeles.

New Federal Judges Listed By President

Washington (UPI) —President Johnson nominated six new judges Friday, including two to fill new federal positions.

The President sent to the Senate for confirmation the nominations of Gerald Heaney, Duluth, Minn., to be U.S. Circuit Court judge for the 8th Circuit, and Frank A. Kaufman, Pikesville, Md., to be U.S. District Court judge for the District of Maryland. Both are new positions.

The other nominees were Alexander B. Harvey II, Baltimore, to be federal judge for Maryland, succeeding Harrison L. Winter; Robert F. Peckham of Palo Alto, Calif, to be U.S. district judge for the Northern District of California, and James A. Von Der Heydt, Juneau, Alaska, to be federal district judge for Alaska, succeeding Walter H. Hodge who is retiring.

Heaney's Eighth Circuit nomination includes St. Louis, Missouri, Kansas City, Mo., Omaha, Neb., and St. Paul, Minn. He is a Duluth attorney and a Democrat.

Car-Motorcycle Crash Injures Lincoln Boy

A Lincoln boy, 17, was injured Friday afternoon in a car-motorcycle accident at 34th and J.

Kenwood E. Staley Jr., 2820 So. 48th, was released from Bryan Memorial Hospital after treatment of cuts and bruises. Staley was thrown from his motorcycle after colliding with a southbound car driven by Barbara Barnawell, 31, of 3400 J, police said.

Los Angeles (AP) — Character actor Nestor Paiva, seen in motion pictures and television shows since 1937, died after a short illness, friends reported.

Judge Appoints Panel To Decide Sanity Of Speck

Chicago (UPI)—A judge appointed a panel of mental experts and Friday gave them six weeks to decide whether Richard Speck, accused slayer of either nurses, is sane and fit to stand trial.

Criminal Court Judge Herbert C. Paschen approved a list of five psychiatrists and a physician drawn up by the state's attorney's office and Speck's lawyer, Public Defender Gerald Getty.

He ordered the panel to pick two psychologists to aid in the examination of the 24-year-old Texas seaman and drifter in Cook County hospital.

Argentine Police Tear Gas Students Protesting Seizure

Cordoba, Argentina (UPI) —Police fired tear gas and a water cannon Friday night to disperse a mob of about 1,000 students protesting government seizure of university administrations throughout Argentina.

No injuries were reported.

The protest followed two nights of disorders in which one student was shot and wounded, eight policemen injured and about 60 persons arrested.

In Buenos Aires, about 200 students staged a protest demonstration Friday night in the downtown section of the city, but the police made no attempt to interfere.

Organized labor in Cordoba, meanwhile, scheduled a "token protest" rally in front of union headquarters to protest "police repression." Union labor also staged a one-hour "token work stoppage" to protest developments.

The rector of the University of Cordoba Thursday suspended all classes indefinitely, Organized student groups, however, voted to continue their protest strike movement.

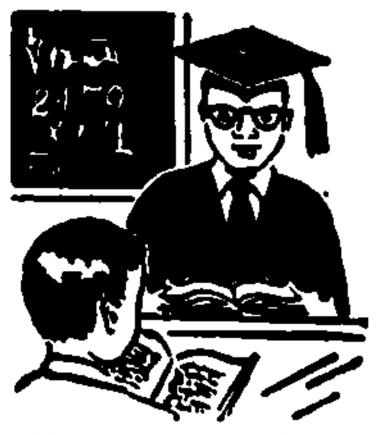
NASON ON EDUCATION:

Daughter Has Difficulty Writing Reports

By DR. LESLIE J. NASON



Dear Dr. Nason:

My daughter has difficulty writing reports. Realizing this, her last two teachers allowed her to make oral presentations in lieu of written reports. However, this year her teacher may insist that she follow the procedures of the rest of the class and actually put her report on paper.

She expresses herself well, but when she sits down with pencil in hand all thoughts seem to leave her mind and she cannot even make a start.

Do you have any suggestions to help her?

T. A., Camden, N.J.

Answer:

Two things can produce a block in the writing procedure—lack of facility in handwriting and lack of organization of thoughts. Handwriting practice drills can solve the first problem.

A simple scheme that works well in the organization of thoughts before writing is as follows: Have her start by making a scratch paper, pencilled list of the ideas she expects to express. Then have her survey the list and decide the order in which these ideas will be presented. She should then start writing, explaining the first idea just as she would explain it verbally to you—not with the thought of making it perfect.

Having put all of the ideas on paper in somewhat rough form, she can then edit what she has written, making revisions necessary and produce her final result.

Dear Dr. Nason:

My grandson graduated from high school in June without required grades for university entrance. He has registered at a junior college and if he makes satisfactory grades, there he can then transfer to a four-year college.

What can you suggest? He needs help.

A. M. Fresno, Calif.

Answer:

Your grandson is fortunate that he lives in California where so many junior colleges are available. He should be encouraged to give this "second chance" his best efforts.

Since his study procedures did not produce the desired results in high school, the same ones would be even less effective in college. He must make some changes.

The general advice is to make out a study schedule—listen to his teachers, study hard, get all work turned in on time. This advice is good, but cannot solve the problems of a student who has developed poor learning habits.

Encourage your grandson to set a goal of becoming a better student and work diligently toward reaching it. To this end, he should inquire regarding efficient learning methods from each of his instructors as well as his counselor. Sometimes, discussions with students who are succeeding will help less successful students to discover and correct their own weaknesses.

Dear Dr. Nason:

Our son is a high school senior majoring in music. He plays in the school orchestra and also in a dance band. Music takes up so much of his time and attention that he neglects some of his other studies. Although he wants to attend college, his grades are a little too low to meet the requirements of the college of his choice.

How can we convince him that his other subjects are as important as music?

R. N., Bayonne, N.J.

Answer:

Have a counselor or teacher talk over his learning plans with him. He needs a complete checkup in this area.

In a similar situation, I discovered that the boy wrote with a cramped hand. His learning procedures were about as inefficient as his handwriting. It was not the distraction of music, but ineffective study skills that caused the seeming lack of attention to other subjects.

Student's Success Termed Measure Of School's Worth

"Your success in college is the true measure of our success," Dr. Merk Hobson, vice chancellor and dean of faculties, told University of Nebraska students attending the New Student Convocation Friday morning.

"By any measure of ability and motivation, this is the largest and best prepared class in the nearly 100-year history of this institution," Dr. Hobson said.

"It is our job to try to provide the environment and climate to help you achieve your goals. You have the responsibility of selecting the subject areas you wish to study and organizing your time.

"Society doesn't demand that you go to college, so we assume you are here because you want to be," Dr. Hobson said.

Terry Schaaf of Hastings, president of the student body, said there are three types of education which can be obtained at the university — scholastic, social and extra-curricular. The secret to success in college is organizing your time and knowing how you are spending your time.

Dr. G. Robert Ross, vice chancellor and dean of students, presided at the convocation. Lee Chatfield, associate dean of students, conducted a general orientation session.

VINCENT QUICK

Many Benefits

Providing fast and efficient service to customers on his paper route has paid off in a variety of ways for Lincoln Star carrier salesman Vincent Quick of Milligan.

An increase in self confidence, acceptance of responsibility and a $22 profit every four weeks are some of the benefits cited by Vincent and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Quick.

Thrift also rates high with 13-year-old Vincent. Every penny he earns goes into a savings account for a college education.

Like most boys, Vincent is interested in sports and is an active participant in his two favorites — football and basketball. But water skiing and fishing are high on his list of enjoyable pastimes too.

Born in England, Vincent would like to return to the place of his birth some day and visit his English grandparents.

COEDS chose Friday ceremonies

St. Michael's Church in Fairbury was decorated with lighted white candles and tall arrangements of white gladioli Friday afternoon, Sept. 9, for the wedding of Miss Rebecca Ruth Brackle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan E. Brackle of Fairbury, and Max E. Cory, son of Dr. and Mrs. Max E. Cory of Lincoln. The 2 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Father Barry.

Empire sheaths of brocade and crepe in tones of acquamarine and turquoise were chosen for Miss Linda Jackson of Omaha, the honor attendant; and the bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Rasse, Sioux Falls, S.D.; Miss Peggy Blue, Miss Mary Lynn Durrie and Miss Karen Salisbury, Lincoln.

Serving his brother as best man was William Cory, and the corps of ushers included Phil Holly, Philadelphia; Jeff Shafer, Greeley, Colo.; Tom Roode, Fairbury; John Schissel, Milford, Iowa; John Cravens, Sanborn, Iowa; Ron McGinnis, Falls City; Don Vodra and Steve West, Lincoln.

For her wedding, the bride selected her mother's bridal gown of ivory-tone mousseline de soie. Seed pearl embroidery in the bowknot motif patterned the yoke of the long-sleeved bodice, which was designed with a jewel throatline, and the full skirt continued into a whisper train. Her tiered veil of silk illusion was train-length and was held to the head by a pillbox cap of jeweled silk, and she carried a crescent of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

The couple will live at 1328 E. in Lincoln where both are students at the University of Nebraska. The bride is a member of Alpha Phi, and Mr. Cory, who attended Denver University last year, is a member of Sigma Chi.

The candlelighted chancel of Christ Methodist Church was appointed with tall arrangements of white and yellow gladioli Friday evening, Sept. 9, for the marriage of Miss Dearwyn Elaine Loewenstein, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Duane E. Loewenstein, to Dennis Paul Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hudson. The Rev. Marvin Ruebsamen read the lines of the 7:30 o'clock service, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Vaughn Janike, organist, who also accompanied Miss Jill Eiche, the vocalist.

Frocks of brocade and crepe in the turquoise shade sashed in velvet were worn by the attendants: Mrs. Larry S. Axthelm, the matron of honor; Miss Delaine Loewenstein, as her sister's maid of honor; Miss Jean Hudson and Miss Stacy James, the bridesmaids; and the junior bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Hudson and Miss Arlene Busboom.

Serving as best man was Frank L. Knott, and seating the guests were Dave Lindberg, Omaha; Randy Nelson, Dick Frank, Larry Axthelm and Doug Murphy.

Re-embroidered Alencon lace appliqued the bride's gown of peau de soie in antique white. The basque was highlighted by fitted, elbow sleeves edged with deep ruffles of the lace, and the lace was repeated at the hem of the slim skirt and in medallion appliques on the court train, caught at either shoulder with tailleur bows of the silk. Her illusion veil was held by a coiffure coronet of crystal beading, and she carried a cascade of pale yellow roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, both students at the University of Nebraska, will make their home at 1220 B.

Chapel Wedding

The marriage of Miss Marilyn Ann Asper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Asper of Lincoln, to Sgt. Thomas Michael Rutherford, USMC, son of Mrs. C. P. Miller and of Thomas O. Rutherford, West Palm Beach, Fla., was solemnized Friday evening, Aug. 26, in the chapel of the Italian Embassy in Ankara, Turkey. The 7 o'clock service was read by the Rev. Bernard P. Foley, Marine Corps Base Chaplain in Ankara.

The maid of honor and bride's only attendant was Miss Marilyn McPherson of Houston, Tex. Norris Newmeyer of Ankara, served as best man.

The bride wore for her wedding a sheath gown of white delustered satin and lace. Embroidery of seed pearls and sequins touched the scalloped neckline of the long-sleeved bodice of lace, and the slim satin skirt was completed by a panel train of lace-trimmed satin. The lace was repeated at the border of her circular veil of illusion.

The couple will return to the United States later this fall and will reside in Norfolk, Va. The bride has served as secretary with the U.S. Agency for International Development in Ankara, and Sgt. Rutherford has been stationed at the American Embassy in Ankara.

TALK of the town

We love September. It is filled to the brim with all sorts of interesting things such as guests, for instance—and parties—for another for instance—and homecomers—and football.

Guests have their own special way of adding glamour to what might just be normal activity—Right now we have Dr. and Mrs. Harry Senger and their two sons, Jeffrey and Richard, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., in mind. Mrs. Senger and the two young Sengers arrived nearly two weeks ago for a visit with Mrs. Senger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Aitken, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor Greer. Dr. Senger joined his family on Wednesday, and next Tuesday the four visitors will leave for Cincinnati, Ohio, and a visit with Dr. Senger's family, before returning home.

But between yesterday and next Tuesday there was a party—On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gates Minnick entertained a group of guests at their home as an informal courtesy to Dr. and Mrs. Senger.

There also will be interest in the arrival of Mrs. Cullen Serr and her young son, Kevin, on Friday, Sept. 16. Mrs. Serr (Mary Lou Calhoun) and her young son will be the house guests of Mrs. Serr's mother, Mrs. O. V. Calhoun, but also will visit her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Walt Weaver.

On Wednesday, Sept. 21, we are told, Mrs. Weaver will be a luncheon hostess complimenting her sister. The guest list will include former high school friends of Mrs. Serr.

Back in town after a five weeks holiday are Mr. and Mrs. E. Shelden Hallet who, this summer, devoted their time to the west coast. The travelers went first to San Francisco for a stay of several days—then to Carmel, and to the Napa Valley. Then back to San Francisco before going on to Portland, Ore. In Portland Mrs. Hallett attended the national convention of Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority, at which she was named district director. During the convention Mr. Hallet hurried himself off to Seattle where he was the guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hallet, and where Mrs. Hallet joined him for a week's stay before they departed for home.

It probably isn't at all necessary to mention that there is a football weekend coming up very soon. We are mentioning it, however, because we have some pre-game parties.

One of the parties has developed into something of a tradition—It is the football brunch for which Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holmquist, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schorr, III, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hudson always are hosts and hostesses preceding the first game each season. This year the brunch will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holmquist.

Also on the pre-game host and hostess list are Chancellor and Mrs. Clifford Hardin who have invited guests for brunch at their home in The Knolls.

News Of Suburbia

News of the State Fair is a fitting way to tie together this week's activities throughout Lincoln, especially in the suburban areas. If there were guests in town—and there were—you can bet a special time on the agenda was reserved for taking in the Fair.

Other news this morning deals with vacation returnees and new residents, and it's no coinciecence that both have arrived in time to get settled before the school doors open on Monday.

SOUTHBROOK SUMMIT

The State Fair meant a hustle of activity for Mrs. Howard Burkett who spent most of the week at the Porkettes' booth at the Fair. The Porkettes is an organization of Lincoln women who are actively promoting Nebraska's Centennial cut, the Husker Chop. The Husker Chop, according to Mrs. Burkett, is a four inch square cut from the loin eye of a porker. Other specifications are that it have at least one-fourth inch of fat around it and a minimum one-inch thickness. Mrs. Burkett's job at the Fair was to pass out booklets of special recipes created for the Husker Chop.

PARK MANOR

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Price Jr. are among the other new residents in Park Manor. They changed their Country Club Terrace address to 6901 Monterey Dr. at the end of July. This weekend they hosted a housewarming buffet dinner to introduce their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dunkers and their daughter, Michelle, of Grand Island.

On Monday, the Prices went to Sioux City, Iowa, to retrieve the sons, Shaun and Terry, who were weekend guests of their paternal grandmother, Mrs. Marvin Price.

EASTBOROUGH

Out of town guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aksamit abound this weekend. The reason for their abundance is the Saturday morning wedding of the Aksamit's daughter, Dianne to Eugene Blaser. Guests include Dianne's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Bill Glassman of Omaha and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Aksamit of St. Joseph, Mo.

Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neal welcomed Mrs. Neal's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strotman and their daughters, Becky, Karla, and Shirley, of Aurora, for a day of visiting the State Fair. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Neal hosted a duo-birthday party for the Strotmans, who both celebrate September anniversaries.

COEDS chose Friday ceremonies

St. Michael's Church in Fairbury was decorated with lighted white candles and tall arrangements of white gladioli Friday afternoon, Sept. 9, for the wedding of Miss Rebecca Ruth Brackle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan E. Brackle of Fairbury, and Max E. Cory, son of Dr. and Mrs. Max E. Cory of Lincoln. The 2 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Father Barry.

Empire sheaths of brocade and crepe in tones of acquamarine and turquoise were chosen for Miss Linda Jackson of Omaha, the honor attendant; and the bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Rasse, Sioux Falls, S.D.; Miss Peggy Blue, Miss Mary Lynn Durrie and Miss Karen Salisbury, Lincoln.

Serving his brother as best man was William Cory, and the corps of ushers included Phil Holly, Philadelphia; Jeff Shafer, Greeley, Colo.; Tom Roode, Fairbury; John Schissel, Milford, Iowa; John Cravens, Sanborn, Iowa; Ron McGinnis, Falls City; Don Vodra and Steve West, Lincoln.

For her wedding, the bride selected her mother's bridal gown of ivory-tone mousseline de soie. Seed pearl embroidery in the bowknot motif patterned the yoke of the long-sleeved bodice, which was designed with a jewel throatline, and the full skirt continued into a whisper train. Her tiered veil of silk illusion was train-length and was held to the head by a pillbox cap of jeweled silk, and she carried a crescent of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

The couple will live at 1328 E, in Lincoln where both are students at the University of Nebraska. The bride is a member of Alpha Phi, and Mr. Cory, who attended Denver University last year, is a member of Sigma Chi.

The candlelighted chancel of Christ Methodist Church was appointed with tall arrangements of white and yellow gladioli Friday evening, Sept. 9, for the marriage of Miss Dearwyn Elaine Loewenstein, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Duane E. Loewenstein, to Dennis Paul Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hudson. The Rev. Marvin Ruebsamen read the lines of the 7:30 o'clock service, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Vaughn Janike, organist, who also accompanied Miss Jill Eiche, the vocalist.

Frocks of brocade and crepe in the turquoise shade sashed in velvet were worn by the attendants: Mrs. Larry S. Axthelm, the matron of honor; Miss Delaine Loewenstein, as her sister's maid of honor; Miss Jean Hudson and Miss Stacy James, the bridesmaids; and the junior bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Hudson and Miss Arlene Busboom.

Serving as best man was Frank L. Knott, and seating the guests were Dave Lindberg, Omaha; Randy Nelson, Dick Frank, Larry Axthelm and Doug Murphy.

Re-embroidered Alencon lace appliqued the bride's gown of peau de soie in antique white. The basque was highlighted by fitted, elbow sleeves edged with deep ruffles of the lace, and the lace was repeated at the hem of the slim skirt and in medallion appliques on the court train, caught at either shoulder with tailleur bows of the silk. Her illusion veil was held by a coiffure coronet of crystal beading, and she carried a cascade of pale yellow roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, both students at the University of Nebraska, will make their home at 1220 B.

Chapel Wedding

The marriage of Miss Marilyn Ann Asper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Asper of Lincoln, to Sgt. Thomas Michael Rutherford, USMC, son of Mrs. C. P. Miller and of Thomas O. Rutherford, West Palm Beach, Fla., was solemnized Friday evening, Aug. 26, in the chapel of the Italian Embassy in Ankara, Turkey. The 7 o'clock service was read by the Rev. Bernard P. Foley, Marine Corps Base Chaplain in Ankara.

The maid of honor and bride's only attendant was Miss Marilyn McPherson of Houston, Tex. Norris Newmeyer of Ankara, served as best man.

The bride wore for her wedding a sheath gown of white delustered satin and lace. Embroidery of seed pearls and sequins touched the scalloped neckline of the long-sleeved bodice of lace, and the slim satin skirt was completed by a panel train of lace-trimmed satin. The lace was repeated at the border of her circular veil of illusion.

The couple will return to the United States later this fall and will reside in Norfolk, Va. The bride has served as secretary with the U.S. Agency for International Development in Ankara, and Sgt. Rutherford has been stationed at the American Embassy in Ankara.

TALK of the town

We love September. It is filled to the brim with all sorts of interesting things such as guests, for instance—and parties—for another for instance—and homecomers—and football.

Guests have their own special way of adding glamour to what might just be normal activity—Right now we have Dr. and Mrs. Harry Senger and their two sons, Jeffrey and Richard, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., in mind. Mrs. Senger and the two young Sengers arrived nearly two weeks ago for a visit with Mrs. Senger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Aitken, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor Greer. Dr. Senger joined his family on Wednesday, and next Tuesday the four visitors will leave for Cincinnati, Ohio, and a visit with Dr. Senger's family, before returning home.

But between yesterday and next Tuesday there was a party—On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gates Minnick entertained a group of guests at their home as an informal courtesy to Dr. and Mrs. Senger.

BRIDE

at evening wedding

Miss Carolynne Sue Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers, became the bride of Robert Kenneth Fensler, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Fensler, at an evening ceremony, Friday, Sept. 9. Bouquets of white and pink gladioli decorated the altar of Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church for the service, which was solemnized by the Rev. Vernon Schroeder.

Mrs. Terry Holsclaw of Otis, Colo., as the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Diane Mendlik, Miss Vicki Rothe, Miss Patricia Rothe and Miss Darlene Wilhelm, wore slim-skirted frocks of satin brocade in pastel shades of pink, blue, lavender, mint green and yellow.

Serving Mr. Fensler as best man was Terry Holsclaw of Otis, Colo., and the groomsmen were Dennis Carlson, Robert Cooper, Dick Miller, LeeRoy Rothe, Ron Wise and John Leonhardt, Jr

The bride appeared in an Empire gown of re-embroidered French lace and silk crepe in traditional white. Long sleeves and a scalloped neckline accented the lace bodice, and the slender crepe skirt was complemented by a court train of the lace. Her illusion veil was held by a crown of pearls and crystal beading, and she carried a white Bible ornamented with a single white orchid.

Mrs. Fensler is a student at National Business Institute, and the bridegroom, who is serving in the Army, currently is stationed at Ft Polk, La.

ABBY

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 47-year-old woman who has been married for nearly 30 years to a 56-year-old railroad man. We have nine grown children.

You may not believe this, but my husband has left me for a 62-year-old woman. Will you please tell me what this old lady could possibly offer him that I can't?

VERA

DEAR VERA: Social security, maybe.

DEAR ABBY: I have never told anyone about my problem because I wouldn't want it known that it bothers me, but it does. I have been married for many years to a wonderful woman whose sisters have married very well. I have always made a fairly good living, but I am not in their class financially.

I have attended many family weddings, anniversary parties, and any number of elaborate family celebrations where professional photographers have been hired to take pictures of the guests. These pictures are later made into albums.

Well, from looking at these albums you would never know I was even there. Can it be "coincidence" that I am always excluded? Sign this, "The Little Man Who . . .

. . .WASN'T THERE"

DEAR MAN: Possibly. The best pictures of family celebrations are usually "candid." And if the same people seem to show up in almost every picture, you can be sure they stuck their faces in every shot possible. It's to your credit that you did not.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "READY, WILLING AND ABLE:" Many people gamble on horses, why not gamble on people? For instance a man in your position could:

1. Offer employment to someone who has served a prison term;
2. Extend additional credit to someone who has suffered financial reverses;
3. Believe in a person even after he has told an untruth;
4. Be willing to forgive and forget after a bitter quarrel. (P.S. I am indebted to Rabbi Bernard S. Raskas for this priceless bit of wisdom.)

Bridal Attendants Announced

Announcing plans for her wedding this morning is Miss Carol Mentzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mentzer, who will become the bride of Steven D. Cherep of Detroit, Mich., on Saturday, Sept. 24.

For the 4 o'clock wedding, which will be solemnized at Fairhill United Presbyterian Church, Miss Mentzer has named her fiance's sister, Miss Lydia Cherep of Detroit, as her honor attendant, and her bridesmaid will be Mrs. Rosemary Schrader.

Gerald Mentzer, brother of the bride-elect, will serve as best man, and the groomsman will be Walter Ostmann.

Opening lead — nine of hearts.

This hand goes back many years and arose in a duplicate pair game, where the prime consideration is to get a better score than other pairs who play the same hand.

The bidding occurred as shown. West, having paid his card fee, felt entitled to bid whenever the mood moved him. The spade bid is hard to explain, but the double of five clubs, seemingly incomprehensible, actually made some sense.

The hand was played in the days when there was no 50-point bonus for making a doubled contract. West reasoned that the opponents would go on to a slam if he passed five clubs, and he hoped, by doubling, to slow down the bidding. He also realized that if the contract was redoubled, no harm would come to him even if declarer made an overtrick.

Five clubs redoubled with an overtrick would come to 900 points, while a slam in clubs (undoubled) would come to 920 points. Minus 900 points was obviously better than minus 920 points.

But declarer also appreciated the situation when he saw dummy. Making six would not compensate for the lost slam. So South initiated a plan to make seven and thus overcome the loss of the slam.

He ruffed the heart lead with the king and played a trump to the eight. He then ruffed a heart with the ace.

Still needing three entries to dummy to accomplish his aim, South led a low diamond and finessed the seven.

He then ruffed the last heart to complete the dummy reversal. After entering dummy with a diamond he drew three rounds of trumps on which he discarded the J-10-2 of spades.

It is true that West could have stopped declarer from making seven by playing the nine on the first diamond lead, but who in the world would want to spoil such an excellent story?

Club Year Begins

Opening a new season to activities on Wednesday will be the members of La Sertoma who will entertain at a membership coffee at the home of Mrs. J. Vaulx Risser, 3600 So. 30th.

The members and their guests have been invited for the hours from 9:30 o'clock to 11:30 o'clock.

The Havelock YWCA Center has a variety of activities scheduled for the fall season to begin on Wednesday.

Of interest to young people will be a special class for youth leaders. Also appealing to the younger set will be the classes in creative dramatics and modern dance.

Special interest groups have been scheduled for adults and senior citizens, and a highlight of the autumn will be the annual flower show.

The officers are Mrs. Lindgren, president; Mrs. C. E. Mitchell, vice president; Mrs. D. W. Baird, educational director; Miss Norma Hansen, recording secretary; Miss Agnes van Ackeren, corresponding secretary; Miss Frances Brusnahan, treasurer; and Mrs. Irving Schneider, sergeant-at-arms.

BRIDE at evening wedding

Miss Carolynne Sue Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers, became the bride of Robert Kenneth Fensler, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Fensler, at an evening ceremony, Friday, Sept. 9. Bouquets of white and pink gladioli decorated the altar of Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church for the service, which was solemnized by the Rev. Vernon Schroeder.

Mrs. Terry Holsclaw of Otis, Colo., as the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Diane Mendlik, Miss Vicki Rothe, Miss Patricia Rothe and Miss Darlene Wilhelm, wore slim-skirted frocks of satin brocade in pastel shades of pink, blue, lavender, mint green and yellow.

Serving Mr. Fensler as best man was Terry Holsclaw of Otis, Colo., and the groomsmen were Dennis Carlson, Robert Cooper, Dick Miller, LeeRoy Rothe, Ron Wise and John Leonhardt, Jr.

The bride appeared in an Empire gown of re-embroidered French lace and silk crepe in traditional white. Long sleeves and a scalloped neckline accented the lace bodice, and the slender crepe skirt was complemented by a court train of the lace. Her illusion veil was held by a crown of pearls and crystal beading, and she carried a white Bible ornamented with a single white orchid.

Mrs. Fensler is a student at National Business Institute, and the bridegroom, who is serving in the Army, currently is stationed at Ft. Polk, La.

ABBY
maybe social security
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 47-year-old woman who has been married for nearly 30 years to a 56-year-old railroad man. We have nine grown children.

You may not believe this, but my husband has left me for a 62-year-old woman. Will you please tell me what this old lady could possibly offer him that I can't?

VERA

DEAR VERA: Social security, maybe.

DEAR ABBY: I have never told anyone about my problem because I wouldn't want it known that it bothers me, but it does. I have been married for many years to a wonderful woman whose sisters have married very well. I have always made a fairly good living, but I am not in their class financially.

I have attended many family weddings, anniversary parties, and any number of elaborate family celebrations where professional photographers have been hired to take pictures of the guests. These pictures are later made into albums.

Well, from looking at these albums you would never know I was even there. Can it be "coincidence" that I am always excluded? Sign this, "The Little Man Who . . .

. . .WASN'T THERE"

DEAR MAN: Possibly. The best pictures of family celebrations are usually "candid." And if the same people seem to show up in almost every picture, you can be sure they stuck their faces in every shot possible. It's to your credit that you did not.

☆ ☆ ☆

CONFIDENTIAL TO "READY, WILLING AND ABLE:" Many people gamble on horses, why not gamble on people? For instance a man in your position could:

1. Offer employment to someone who has served a prison term;

2. Extend additional credit to someone who has suffered financial reverses;

3. Believe in a person even after he has told an untruth;

4. Be willing to forgive and forget after a bitter quarrel. (P.S. I am indebted to Rabbi Bernard S. Raskas for this priceless bit of wisdom.)

Bridal Attendants Announced

Announcing plans for her wedding this morning is Miss Carol Mentzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mentzer, who will become the bride of Steven D. Cherep of Detroit, Mich., on Saturday, Sept. 24.

For the 4 o'clock wedding, which will be solemnized at Fairhill United Presbyterian Church, Miss Mentzer has named her fiance's sister, Miss Lydia Cherep of Detroit, as her honor attendant, and her bridesmaid will be Mrs. Rosemary Schrader.

Gerald Mentzer, brother of the bride-elect, will serve as best man, and the groomsman will be Walter Ostmann.

The bidding:

Pass	1♦	1♠(!)	1 NT
2♥	3♥	Pass	3 NT
Pass	4♠	Pass	4 NT
Pass	5♣	Dble(!)	Redble

Opening lead — nine of hearts.

This hand goes back many years and arose in a duplicate pair game, where the prime consideration is to get a better score than other pairs who play the same hand.

The bidding occurred as shown. West, having paid his card fee, felt entitled to bid whenever the mood moved him. The spade bid is hard to explain, but the double of five clubs, seemingly incomprehensible, actually made some sense.

The hand was played in the days when there was no 50-point bonus for making a doubled contract. West reasoned that the opponents would go on to a slam if he passed five clubs, and he hoped, by doubling, to slow down the bidding. He also realized that if the contract was redoulbed, no harm would come to him even if declarer made an overtrick.

Five clubs redoubled with an overtrick would come to 900 points, while a slam in clubs (undoubled) would come to 920 points. Minus 900 points was obviously better than minus 920 points.

But declarer also appreciated the situation when he saw dummy. Making six would not compensate for the lost slam. So South initiated a plan to make seven and thus overcome the loss of the slam.

He ruffed the heart lead with the king and played a trump to the eight. He then ruffed a heart with the ace.

Still needing three entries to dummy to accomplish his aim, South led a low diamond and finessed the seven.

He then ruffed the last heart to complete the dummy reversal. After entering dummy with a diamond he drew three rounds of trumps on which he discarded the J-10-2 of spades.

It is true that West could have stopped declarer from making seven by playing the nine on the first diamond lead, but who in the world would want to spoil such an excellent story?

Club Year Begins

Opening a new season to activities on Wednesday will be the members of La Sertoma who will entertain at a membership coffee at the home of Mrs. J. Vaulx Risser, 3600 So. 30th.

The members and their guests have been invited for the hours from 9:30 o'clock to 11:30 o'clock.

The Havelock YWCA Center has a variety of activities scheduled for the fall season to begin on Wednesday.

Of interest to young people will be a special class for youth leaders. Also appealing to the younger set will be the classes in creative dramatics and modern dance.

Special interest groups have been scheduled for adults and senior citizens, and a highlight of the autumn will be the annual flower show.

The officers are Mrs. Lindgren, president; Mrs. C. E. Mitchell, vice president; Mrs. D. W. Baird, educational director; Miss Norma Hansen, recording secretary; Miss Agnes van Ackeren, corresponding secretary; Miss Frances Brusnahan, treasurer; and Mrs. Irving Schneider, sergeant-at-arms.

DID YOU KNOW THIS? IT'S A FACT:

The National Park Service, created by Congress in 1916, today protects more than 230 great parks, shrines, seashores, riverways, parkways, battlefields, cultural and industrial sites of historic interest, and other public treasures.

The hydrofoil ship Victoria was launched in Baltimore in July 1965. She is designed to carry as many as 75 passengers across Puget Sound between Seattle, Washington and Victoria, B.C.

In many African tribes, a stool is the symbol of authority. The British once fought to get the golden stool of the Ashantis in West Africa, knowing its capture would intimidate the tribe.

Yellowstone, which became the first national park in 1872, is still the nation's largest with 3,472 square miles.

Some African tribesmen use wood ashes — rich in potassium — as a condiment instead of salt.

California has the tallest of all living things — the coast redwoods — and the oldest known — bristlecone pines.

Fifty-eight of the 96 United States mountains exceeding 13,905 feet rise in Colorado.

Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, substract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you. THE GIRLS

By Franklin Folger

NU Co-Captains Want To Keep On Winning

. . . SCHEDULE ROUGHER

Nebraska's 1966 football co-captains, Bob Churchich and Larry Wachholtz, aren't planning any crusades, but they are determined to keep their teammates thinking about only one thing—winning.

"It certainly isn't an honor I ever expected," Churchich said. "I thought the fellows would elect someone like LaVerne Allers or Kelley Petersen. I guess maybe it is an added responsibility, but I don't look at it that way.

"We're used to winning and we want to keep the same feeling and enthusiasm going," Churchich said. "That's everyone's job, not just the captain's, and our attitude has been good."

The 5-11, 178-pound senior from Omaha admitted the Huskers were dragging a little as two-a-day drills ended.

"You know, everyone is all fired up when practice starts, then they get tired in the two-a-days," he said. "Then you come back up for the start of the season."

Wachholtz, now the smallest Husker at 5-8, 166, since Frank Solich has graduated, agrees with Churchich that being a co-captain is a "great honor and responsibility," but that all the players share the same responsibility for leadership.

"I'm not going on a crusade or start giving anyone the devil," Larry grinned. "Everyone has to lead and contribute. Coach Devaney has given us a winning tradition and we've been winning the Big Eight since I've been in school. That's the way we want to keep it. None of the players get tired of winning and the squad attitude is one of dedication."

Referring to his size, Wachholtz said, "I guess it's natural for people to think that small players can't get the job done. But you look around the Big 8 and see guys like Larry Elliott of Oklahoma State and Frank Solich—they were pretty good players. A little guy can make a place for himself, if he wants to badly enough."

Larry feels Nebraska has the "potential" to have "the best team since I've been here," but he quickly adds, "That doesn't mean I'm predicting an undefeated season. We can be a good team and still lose a game because we're playing some darn tough teams. But we're sure shooting for a good season to keep up the tradition."

Wachholtz also feels the Nebraska defense has improved and he credits Alabama for that.

"I think the Black Shirts have a different attitude, and I noticed it in the spring," he said. "It was the Orange Bowl game—all of us knew our defense had been a factor in the loss and we want to make it up to Coach Devaney."

Churchich chimed in with agreement by saying, "I can testify that the defense is hitting a lot harder this year than last."

Bobby, who is within range of a number of NU aerial records, feels the end problem is being solved, too. "Our inexperienced ends are improving and I think we'll be able to throw okay," he said. "Sure, we'll miss the deep threat of Freeman White, but our ends can do the job."

Both Wachholtz and Churchich agree that the one thing in the world they're not worrying about is another unbeaten season.

"We're thinking only about TCU," Churchich said. "They'll be a fine team and we'll have to play darn well to beat them. If we can, maybe we can start building some momentum—but the big problem is TCU."

Lincoln High Captures Victory Over Columbus

. . . BY 20-12 MARGIN

Columbus — Lincoln High ground out a 20-12 victory over Columbus here Friday night in a game dominated by running attacks.

Columbus drove 66 yards in six plays to score on the opening kickoff with Rick Warner going over from the three-yard line.

Garry Garett knotted the game at six-all when he bucked over from the three-yard line and Melvin Tarpley scored the second to for the Links on a 46-yard run.

Columbus pulled within one point, 13-12, at halftime on a 53-yard pass play from Warner to Danny Abel. Lincoln High wrapped up the contest when Garrett bulled his way over from the two-yard line in the final quarter.

The Links had another touchdown called back by a penalty in the third quarter after Charles Moore has raced 60 yards.

Both teams stuck to a ground attack with Columbus hitting on four of five pass attempts and Lincoln High missing all three passes it attempted.

K-State Schedules Scrimmage Today

The No. 1 offense and defense will meet the remainder of the team at 2 p.m. Saturday in a regular scrimmage.

Pius Starts Early, Posts 46-0 Romp

Sioux City—Lincoln Pius X raced to a 33-0 halftime lead against South Sioux City and then coasted in with 13 points in the second half to a 46-0 victory.

The Bolts' second score came on a 35-yard drive capped by a 2-yard plunge by fullback Roger Jochum.

The South Sioux City Cardinals took to the air in the second quarter, but were quickly grounded when linebacker Scott Dosek picked off a short pass behind scrimmage and flew 20 yards for a touchdown.

The Cardinals charged to the Bolts three late in the half behind the passing of quarterback Rod Saylors, but failed to score as time ran out.

After end Dan Jablonski snatched another South Sioux City aerial attempt in the third period, Pius opened up its passing game and end Mike Adams scored on a 30-yard play.

Fowler hauled in three passes to keep Sioux City's futile second quarter drive alive.

Pius' offensive standouts were Rierden, Jochum and Joe Glenn.

Morning Scrimmage Set Today

A full lineup of sports activity on television this afternoon has caused Nebraska coaches to move the football scrimmage from a matinee affair to the morning.

"I want to watch the fight (Clay-Mildenberger)," Devaney said in explaining the shift of the scrimmage session to this morning. "And we also wanted to let the players watch the football games that are on Saturday afternoon."

The scrimmage will be conducted as a game-type affair, Devaney said Friday. "We'll have the squad split and we'll use regular officials.

"This will be the final scrimmage of any consequence before our opening game next week." Devaney never scrimmages after the season gets under way.

For today's final dress rehearsal, Devaney has split the squad with the No. 1 and No. 4 offensive and defensive units going against the second and third units.

What's his prediction on the fight?

Knights Score Upset

North Platte—The Lincoln Southeast Knights rolled to an impressive 26-6 upset victory in their 1966 debut against North Platte Friday night.

Southeast's defense, stopped North Platte cold, limiting the westerners' ground game to minus four yards, with end Bill Guilford leading the Knights' charge.

Southeast displayed seasoned ball-handling and heads-up play and outcharged the North Platte line to take advantage of fumble recoveries. The Knights racked up 149 yards themselves along the ground.

Craig Lutz tossed scoring passes of 21 yards to Bill Leinberger in the first period and 37 lengths in the second round to Roger Nelson for a 13-0 Southeast halftime lead.

North Platte crept to within a touchdown of the Knights on an 80-yard march in the third quarter. Gary Hart caught four passes along the way.

But Lutz then came back to hit Jon Roberts from the seven and Southeast pulled further away on a nine-yard scoring dash by Dave McEwen.

Norfolk Golfer Battles For Iowa Open Lead

Bridge shot a 70 to tie for sixth place. Another 18-hole round will be played Saturday to determine qualifiers for the 36-hole championship finals Sunday.

Kansas Finishes Double Workouts

Lawrence, Kan., (AP) — The University of Kansas wound up two-a-day football workouts Friday with a light afternoon session emphasizing play polishing.

The top two offensive and defensive units will scrimmage against the rest of the squad Saturday. The workout will be closed to the public.

Sophomore offensive backs Bill Esters of Detroit and Mike Harris of Terr Haute., Ind., were in full pads Friday for the first time since each had knee surgery.

Tigers Skinned By 10-0 Score

. . . NE MASTERY INTACT

By KENT SAVERY
Star Sports Writer

Lincoln Northeast continued its mastery over Fremont's Tigers with a 10-0 victory in the season opener for both clubs at Seacrest Field Friday night.

It was the fourth straight year the Rockets had whitewashed Fremont and their seventh consecutive win over the Tigers.

Northeast boasted an impressive statistical advantage over the visitors but was slow to get onto the scoreboard.

In fact Northeast didn't score until big Wally Winter booted a field goal after the Rockets stalled on the Fremont five-yard-line with just 45 seconds remaining in the first half.

Mann had gained 26 yards in five previous carries during the 78-yard drive capped by his touchdown scamper.

Mann had a total of 55 yards rushing in 11 carries for the game. Three teammates were also over the half-century mark in rushing, with right halfback Tom Purbaugh the game's leader, picking up 69 yards in 15 carries.

Rich Olson rushed for 56 yards in 10 attempts with 24 coming on a fourth-quarter run that gave the Rockets a first down at the Fremont 21-yard line.

That drive had started at the Rocktes' 27 but stalled moments after Olson's run when Tiger defender Dennis Hughes threw Dennis Beranek for a seven-yard loss on a third-and-eight situation at the 19.

However, Beranek had a good night for the Rockets over-all, as he toted 15 times for 52 yards.

It appeared Fremont might be first to score when Ken Emry pounced on a fumb- by Rocket quarterback Jim Campbell at the Northeast five, with just seconds to go in the first quarter. The fumble followed a 49-yard punt by Tiger quarterback Eric York and a clipping penalty on the Rockets.

But the stout Northeast defense wouldn't budge as Winter, Ron Williams, Dick Boline and Dave Mann made key defensive plays on three Tiger runs before York overthrew his target on fourth down, ending the threat.

Fremont didn't really threaten after that, while the Rockets nearly scored when Olson fielded a punt at his own 22 and raced to the Tiger 27 where he fumbled with Fremont regaining possession with 25 seconds remaining in the game.

Cocky Clay 10-1 Favorite

. . . FIRST TITLE BOUT IN GERMANY

Frankfurt, Germany (AP)—A relaxed, almost bored Cassius Clay was a 10-1 favorite Friday to beat left-hander Karl Mildenberger Saturday night in Germany's first world heavyweight championship fight.

This will be the undefeated, 24-year-old American's sixth title defense and fourth this year and he was taking it in stride.

On the eve of the 15-round battle, which was not expected to go more than six round Clay said "I'm looking ahead to others." He was referring to possible defenses against Cleveland Williams in Houston, Tex., and Ernie Terrell in either Chicago or New York.

Ring history is filled with stories of long-shot winners, including Clay's own conquest of Sonny Liston for the title, but there were only a few optimists in this city who believe it could happen again Saturday.

There may be between 45,000 and 50,000 spectators in the 80,000 seat outdoor Wald Stadium for the fight according to latest estimates.

The bout will be telecast to the United States by Early Bird Satellite and it will be shown on both regular television and theater television.

The ABC telecast to the U.S. will start at 12:30 p.m., CST. The fight will start about 1 p.m., CST.

Clay has been guaranteed $250,000 plus a percentage of the television receipts. Mildenberger will collect $15,000 plus a share of the gate and TV receipts.

"I'll wind up with no more than about $150,000," said Clay. "I pay such high taxes that the defense here adds up to about that money."

Clay had a chance to watch a film of one of Mildenberger's fights Friday but he passed it up.

"I'm ready," the confident champion said. "I'm always ready. I'm never out of training because I defend my title all the time.

Mildenberger was hopeful of pulling an upset.

"I've seen a few things about Clay," said the handsome, 28-year-old challenger, holder of the European title. "Perhaps I've got tactics to surprise him. I'll go for body. That's my best way of fighting."

He may have trouble getting close enough against a younger foe who has every physical advantage.

Unbeaten in the last 4½ years, the black-haired German's best hope has to be in scoring a knockout. Although he has 17 knockouts to his credit in 54 pro fights, Mildenberger is not rated as a puncher.

He couldn't even floor Ivan Prebeg, a 33-year-old, part-time Yugoslav boxer in a 15-round defense of his European crown here on June 15. A year ago Mildenberger was floored three times by Dave Bailey of Philadelphia, a former Clay sparring partner, in gaining a 10-round decision.

—RUNNELS APPOINTED—

Red Sox Manager Herman Dismissed

Herman was third base coach for the Red Sox for five years before becoming manager in 1965. The Red Sox finished ninth last season and are in the same position this year, one-half game ahead of the New York Yankees.

"Although the Red Sox have played more exciting baseball under Billy Herman this year, we think a change was necessary to insure that the club will continue to climb in the AL standings," said General Manager Dick O'Connell. "We informed Billy of our intention at this time to enable him to contact other clubs."

O'Connell said he hoped the club would be able to name its 1967 manager before the start of the World Series next month.

Herman is the fifth big league manager to lose his job this season. The others were Johnny Keane of the New York Yankees, Bobby Bragan of Atlanta, Don Heffner of Cincinnati and Bridie Tebbetts of Cleveland.

"I think Billy did the best job he could," said Tom Yawkey, the Red Sox' owner. "However, I think a change was in order."

Herman, 55, managed Pittsburgh in 1947. He was a coach for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1952 through 1957 and for the Milwaukee Braves in 1958 and 1959.

He moved to Boston in 1960, succeeding Johnny Pesky as manager when the latter was fired after the 1964 season.

Herman was a star second baseman for the Chicago Cubs during the 1930s and early 1940s.

NU Co-Captains Want To Keep On Winning

. . . SCHEDULE ROUGHER

Nebraska's 1966 football co-captains, Bob Churchich and Larry Wachholtz, aren't planning any crusades, but they are determined to keep their teammates thinking about only one thing—winning.

"It certainly isn't an honor I ever expected," Churchich said. "I thought the fellows would elect someone like LaVerne Allers or Kelley Petersen. I guess maybe it is an added responsibility, but I don't look at it that way.

"We're used to winning and we want to keep the same feeling and enthusiasm going," Churchich said. "That's everyone's job, not just the captain's, and our attitude has been good."

The 5-11, 178-pound senior from Omaha admitted the Huskers were dragging a little as two-a-day drills ended.

"You know, everyone is all fired up when practice starts, then they get tired in the two-a-days," he said. "Then you come back up for the start of the season."

Wachholtz, now the smallest Husker at 5-8, 166, since Frank Solich has graduated, agrees with Churchich that being a co-captain is a "great honor and responsibility," but that all the players share the same responsibility for leadership.

"I'm not going on a crusade or start giving anyone the devil," Larry grinned. "Everyone has to lead and contribute. Coach Devaney has given us a winning tradition and we've been winning the Big Eight since I've been in school. That's the way we want to keep it. None of the players get tired of winning and the squad attitude is one of dedication."

Referring to his size, Wachholtz said, "I guess it's natural for people to think that small players can't get the job done. But you look around the Big 8 and see guys like Larry Elliott of Oklahoma State and Frank Solich—they were pretty good players. A little guy can make a place for himself, if he wants to badly enough."

Larry feels Nebraska has the "potential" to have "the best team since I've been here," but he quickly adds, "That doesn't mean I'm predicting an undefeated season. We can be a good team and still lose a game because we're playing some darn tough teams. But we're sure shooting for a good season to keep up the tradition."

Wachholtz also feels the Nebraska defense has improved and he credits Alabama for that.

"I think the Black Shirts have a different attitude, and I noticed it in the spring," he said. "It was the Orange Bowl game—all of us knew our defense had been a factor in the loss and we want to make it up to Coach Devaney."

Churchich chimed in with agreement by saying, "I can testify that the defense is hitting a lot harder this year than last."

Bobby, who is within range of a number of NU aerial records, feels the end problem is being solved, too. "Our inexperienced ends are improving and I think we'll be able to throw okay," he said. "Sure, we'll miss the deep threat of Freeman White, but our ends can do the job."

Both Wachholtz and Churchich agree that the one thing in the world they're not worrying about is another unbeaten season.

"We're thinking only about TCU," Churchich said. "They'll be a fine team and we'll have to play darn well to beat them. If we can, maybe we can start building some momentum—but the big problem is TCU."

Morning Scrimmage Set Today

A full lineup of sports activity on television this afternoon has caused Nebraska coaches to move the football scrimmage from a matinee affair to the morning.

"I want to watch the fight (Clay-Mildenberger)," Devaney said in explaining the shift of the scrimmage session to this morning. "And we also wanted to let the players watch the football games that are on Saturday afternoon."

The scrimmage will be conducted as a game-type affair, Devaney said Friday. "We'll have the squad split and we'll use regular officials.

"This will be the final scrimmage of any consequence before our opening game next week." Devaney never scrimmages after the season gets under way.

For today's final dress rehearsal, Devaney has split the squad with the No. 1 and No. 4 offensive and defensive units going against the second and third units.

What's his prediction on the fight?

Knights Score Upset

North Platte—The Lincoln Southeast Knights rolled to an impressive 26-6 upset victory in their 1966 debut against North Platte Friday night.

Southeast's defense, stopped North Platte cold, limiting the westerners' ground game to minus four yards, with end Bill Guilford leading the Knights' charge.

Southeast displayed seasoned ball-handling and heads-up play and outcharged the North Platte line to take advantage of fumble recoveries. The Knights racked up 149 yards themselves along the ground.

Craig Lutz tossed scoring passes of 21 yards to Bill Leinberger in the first period and 37 lengths in the second round to Roger Nelson for a 13-0 Southeast halftime lead.

North Platte crept to within a touchdown of the Knights on an 80-yard march in the third quarter. Gary Hart caught four passes along the way.

But Lutz then came back to hit Jon Roberts from the seven and Southeast pulled further away on a nine-yard scoring dash by Dave McEwen.

Southeast .... 6 7 0 13—26
North Platte .... 0 0 6 0— 6

Southeast—Leinberger 21 pass from Lutz; Nelson 37 pass from Lutz; Roberts 7 pass from Lutz; McEwen 9 run. PAT—Guilford 2.

Norfolk Golfer Battles For Iowa Open Lead

Bridge shot a 70 to tie for sixth place. Another 18-hole round will be played Saturday to determine qualifiers for the 36-hole championship finals Sunday.

Lincoln High Captures Victory Over Columbus

. . . BY 20-12 MARGIN

Columbus — Lincoln High ground out a 20-12 victory over Columbus here Friday night in a game dominated by running attacks.

Columbus drove 66 yards in six plays to score on the opening kickoff with Rick Warner going over from the three-yard line.

Garry Garett knotted the game at six-all when he bucked over from the three-yard line and Melvin Tarpley scored the second to for the Links on a 46-yard run.

Columbus pulled within one point, 13-12, at halftime on a 53-yard pass play from Warner to Danny Abel. Lincoln High wrapped up the contest when Garrett bulled his way over from the two-yard line in the final quarter.

The Links had another touchdown called back by a penalty in the third quarter after Charles Moore has raced 60 yards.

Lincoln High .... 0 13 0 7—20
Columbus .... 6 6 0 0—12

Lincoln High—Garrett (2), 3 run, 2 run; Tarpley, 46 run.

Columbus—Warner, 3 run; Abel, 53 pass from Warner.

East Butler 8, Norris 0

East Butler — Dale Dvorak plowed across from the 2-yard line in the opening quarter for the only touchdown of the game as East Butler opened 1965 prep football action with an 8-0 triumph over Norris.

East Butler also tacked on a safety when Ted Castle stopped a Norris ballcarrier in the end zone in the second period.

The No. 1 offense and defense will meet the remainder of the team at 2 p.m. Saturday in a regular scrimmage.

Pius Starts Early, Posts 46-0 Romp

Sioux City—Lincoln Pius X raced to a 33-0 halftime lead against South Sioux City and then coasted in with 13 points in the second half to a 46-0 victory.

The Bolts' second score came on a 35-yard drive capped by a 2-yard plunge by fullback Roger Jochum.

The South Sioux City Cardinals took to the air in the second quarter, but were quickly grounded when linebacker Scott Dosek picked off a short pass behind scrimmage and flew 20 yards for a touchdown.

The Cardinals charged to the Bolts three late in the half behind the passing of quarterback Rod Saylors, but failed to score as time ran out.

After end Dan Jablonski snatched another South Sioux City aerial attempt in the third period, Pius opened up its passing game and end Mike Adams scored on a 30-yard play.

Fowler hauled in three passes to keep Sioux City's futile second quarter drive alive.

Pius' offensive standouts were Rierden, Jochum and Joe Glenn.

ROCKETS BLANK FREMONT

Tigers Skinned By 10-0 Score

. . . NE MASTERY INTACT

By KENT SAVERY
Star Sports Writer

Lincoln Northeast continued its mastery over Fremont's Tigers with a 10-0 victory in the season opener for both clubs at Seacrest Field Friday night.

It was the fourth straight year the Rockets had whitewashed Fremont and their seventh consecutive win over the Tigers.

Northeast boasted an impressive statistical advantage over the visitors but was slow to get onto the scoreboard.

In fact Northeast didn't score until big Wally Winter booted a field goal after the Rockets stalled on the Fremont five-yard-line with just 45 seconds remaining in the first half.

Mann had gained 26 yards in five previous carries during the 78-yard drive capped by his touchdown scamper.

Mann had a total of 55 yards rushing in 11 carries for the game. Three teammates were also over the half-century mark in rushing, with right halfback Tom Purbaugh the game's leader, picking up 69 yards in 15 carries.

Rich Olson rushed for 56 yards in 10 attempts with 24 coming on a fourth-quarter run that gave the Rockets a first down at the Fremont 21-yard line.

That drive had started at the Rocktes' 27 but stalled moments after Olson's run when Tiger defender Dennis Hughes threw Dennis Beranek for a seven-yard loss on a third-and-eight situation at the 19.

However, Beranek had a good night for the Rockets over-all, as he toted 15 times for 52 yards.

It appeared Fremont might be first to score when Ken Emry pounced on a fumbby Rocket quarterback Jim Campbell at the Northeast five, with just seconds to go in the first quarter. The fumble followed a 49-yard punt by Tiger quarterback Eric York and a clipping penalty on the Rockets.

But the stout Northeast defense wouldn't budge as Winter, Ron Williams, Dick Boline and Dave Mann made key defensive plays on three Tiger runs before York overthrew his target on fourth down, ending the threat.

Fremont didn't really threaten after that, while the Rockets nearly scored when Olson fielded a punt at his own 22 and raced to the Tiger 27 where he fumbled with Fremont regaining possession with 25 seconds remaining in the game.

Cocky Clay 10-1 Favorite

. . . FIRST TITLE BOUT IN GERMANY

Frankfurt, Germany (AP)—A relaxed, almost bored Cassius Clay was a 10-1 favorite Friday to beat left-hander Karl Mildenberger Saturday night in Germany's first world heavyweight championship fight.

This will be the undefeated, 24-year-old American's sixth title defense and fourth this year and he was taking it in stride.

On the eve of the 15-round battle, which was not expected to go more than six round Clay said "I'm looking ahead to others." He was referring to possible defenses against Cleveland Williams in Houston, Tex., and Ernie Terrell in either Chicago or New York.

Ring history is filled with stories of long-shot winners, including Clay's own conquest of Sonny Liston for the title, but there were only a few optimists in this city who believe it could happen again Saturday.

There may be between 45,000 and 50,000 spectators in the 80,000 seat outdoor Wald Stadium for the fight according to latest estimates.

The bout will be telecast to the United States by Early Bird Satellite and it will be shown on both regular television and theater television.

The ABC telecast to the U.S. will start at 12:30 p.m., CST. The fight will start about 1 p.m., CST.

Clay has been guaranteed $250,000 plus a percentage of the television receipts. Mildenberger will collect $15,000 plus a share of the gate and TV receipts.

"I'll wind up with no more than about $150,000," said Clay. "I pay such high taxes that the defense here adds up to about that money."

Clay had a chance to watch a film of one of Mildenberger's fights Friday but he passed it up.

"I'm ready," the confident champion said. "I'm always ready. I'm never out of training because I defend my title all the time.

Mildenberger was hopeful of pulling an upset.

"I've seen a few things about Clay," said the handsome, 28-year-old challenger, holder of the European title. "Perhaps I've got tactics to surprise him. I'll go for body. That's my best way of fighting."

He may have trouble getting close enough against a younger foe who has every physical advantage.

Unbeaten in the last 4½ years, the black-haired German's best hope has to be in scoring a knockout. Although he has 17 knockouts to his credit in 54 pro fights, Mildenberger is not rated as a puncher.

He couldn't even floor Ivan Prebeg, a 33-year-old, part-time Yugoslav boxer in a 15-round defense of his European crown here on June 15. A year ago Mildenberger was floored three times by Dave Bailey of Philadelphia, a former Clay sparring partner, in gaining a 10-round decision.

—RUNNELS APPOINTED—

Red Sox Manager Herman Dismissed

Herman was third base coach for the Red Sox for five years before becoming manager in 1965. The Red Sox finished ninth last season and are in the same position this year, one-half game ahead of the New York Yankees.

"Although the Red Sox have played more exciting baseball under Billy Herman this year, we think a change was necessary to insure that the club will continue to climb in the AL standings," said General Manager Dick O'Connell. "We informed Billy of our intention at this time to enable him to contact other clubs."

O'Connell said he hoped the club would be able to name its 1967 manager before the start of the World Series next month.

Herman is the fifth big league manager to lose his job this season. The others were Johnny Keane of the New York Yankees, Bobby Bragan of Atlanta, Don Heffner of Cincinnati and Bridie Tebbetts of Cleveland.

"I think Billy did the best job he could," said Tom Yawkey, the Red Sox' owner. "However, I think a change was in order."

Herman, 55, managed Pittsburgh in 1947. He was a coach for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1952 through 1957 and for the Milwaukee Braves in 1958 and 1959.

He moved to Boston in 1960, succeeding Johnny Pesky as manager when the latter was fired after the 1964 season.

Herman was a star second baseman for the Chicago Cubs during the 1930s and early 1940s.

The first place Pittsburgh Pirates beat the St. Louis Cardinals 3-2 on Bill Mazeroski's 12th inning sacrifice fly while the Los Angeles Dodgers and SKAN Francisco Giants were switching places behind the in the National League pennant fight.

Mazeroski's decisive fly came afher Matty Aluo's hit and two walks and kept the Pirates 1½ gmaes ahead of both the Dodgers and the Giants.

The Dodgers, however, retook second place by two percentage points behind the Giants by clubbing Houston 7-0 on Claude Osteen's three-hitter while the Giants lost to Chicago 6-0.

The Dodgers, however, retook second place by two percentage points over the jgian by clubbing Houston 7-0 on Claude Osteen's three-hitter while the Giants lost to Chicago 6-0.

Orlando Cepeda drove in the two Cardinal runs with a double and single and Willie Stargell kept Pittsburgh in the game with a run-scoring single., and a sacrifice fly.

Osteen, emmpleting his first game in more than two onts, did not allow a man past first base as he ran his record to 15-11.

Ken Holtzman stopped the Giants on three hits for 7 2-3 innings and Bill Hands got him out of a bases loaded jam in the eighth by striking out Jim Hart as the Cubs dealth Juan Marichal his sixth loss against 21 victories. San Francisco errors gave the Cubs five unearned runs.

Tony Taylor doubled and Bill White singled him home in the eighth inning to give ralelied from a 5-0 deficit to a 6-6 tie on Leo jeardenas three -run homer.

Atlanta moved into a tie for fifth place in the National League with St. Louis by being the New York Mets on homers by Joe Torre, No. 34, and Felipe Alou, No. 28, and four hits and four runs batted in by Rico Carty.

Jim Kaat became the winningest pitcher in the major leagues as he breezed to his 23rd victory as Minnesota beat Baltimore 6-1 and snapped a six-game Oriole winning streak. Kaat scattered eight hits in winning his eighth straight for a 23-9 record.

Mickey Lolich walked Rick Monday with the bases loaded in the 10th inning to give Kansas City a 2-1 victory over Detroit.

Rookie Bill Davis hit a pinch homer with a man on in the last of the 10th inning, carrying Cleveland by California 8-7. The Angels had scored once in the top of the inning.

In another 10-inning affair, Ken McMullen's error on a bases loaded grounder by John Romano gave Chicago a 1-0 victory over Washington, wasting a two-hitter by Pete Richert.

The New York Yankees ended a one-day stay in the American League celler by whipping Boston 2-1 to end a five-game losing streak and move a half game ahead of the Red Sox. Fred Talbot and rookie Stan Bahnsen combined for a five-hitter.

Oklahoma State Improves Slightly

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — The Oklahoma State Cowboys went through their last two-a-day workouts Friday, and coach Phil Cutchin appeared a little encouraged with what he called a "slight improvement."

Cutchin put his troops through a two-hour scrimmage which he said showed improvement in the passing and kicking game, compared with Tuesday's scrimmage.

"Now we've got to get our legs back, sharpen up and go do battle," Cutchin said.

He praised the running of sophomore back Jack Reynolds and the defensive efforts of guard Jim Goodwin, and backs Willard Nahrgang and Charles Trimble

Haynie Leading Despite Bad Day

Eugene, Ore. (AP)—Blue-eyed Sandra Haynie survived five bogeys, including four on the final nine holes Friday, and clung to her one-stroke lead in the Pacific Ladies Professional Golf Classic.

Milford 12, Exeter 2

Milford—Milford, led by the defensive efforts of Jim Hauder, Rick Roth and Larry Jacox, scored a 12-2 win over Exeter here Friday night.

Exeter's only score came on a fourth quarter safety. Cousins William Eicher and Steve Eicher combined on a 15-yard pass play for the first Milford touchdown and Mark Springer plunged two yards for the final score.

Beatrice Rolls Past Crete, 25-0

By DON FORSYTHE
Prep Sports Writer

Beatrice — Quarterback Al Klaus turned the heavy work over to his junior backfield mates Friday night as Beatrice rolled to a 25-0 win over Crete in its 1966 football-opener.

The 1-2 punch of halfbacks Lanny Graves and Jim Sederberg and added wallop from fullback Rick Halterman provided most of the damage as the Orangemen ground out 368 yards on the ground against their Class B foes.

Sederberg started the Beatrice scoring parade with a 10-yard sprint around end in the first quarter, but it was Graves who caused most of the problems for the Cardinals.

The 185-pound junior carried 14 times for 151 yards and scored two of the four Beatrice touchdowns.

He plunged in from a yard out to cap a 42-yard drive midway in the second quarter, then broke loose for a 40-yard gallop on a dive play over right tackle later in the period to give the hosts a comfortable 19-0 halftime edge.

Crete, relying on the line smashes of Bob Bals, had the upper hand in the third quarter but the Orangemen took control again early in the final period to put together a 94-yard touchdown march.

Crete, which lost quarterback Ben McDowell early because of a groin injury, couldn't muster any attack through the air, but did roll for 148 yards on the ground against the Orangemen.

Injured Sooners Back In Action

Norman, Okla. (AP) — Knee casts were removed from three University of Oklahoma football players Friday and two of the gridders, tackle Ed Hall and guard Vernon Burkett, were expected to be ready for the season opener with Oregon here Sept. 17.

The third player, linebacker Rick Goodwin, ran on the sidelines with Burkett and Hall but apparently was making a slower recovery.

Coach Jim Mackenzie said he was pleased with the day to day progress made by the squad in areas where it lacked polish. The team worked out two hours.

Ceresco 19, Wahoo Neumann 6

Ceresco—Kenny Kramer and Bill Erickson scored all three touchdowns in Ceresco's opening 19-6 win over Wahoo Neumann here Friday night.

Kramer scored on a 14-yard pass from Erickson and ran 55 yards for another tally. Erickson scored on a 15-yard run.

Stolle, Casals Make Semis

Forest Hills, N.Y. (AP)—Fred Stolle's rapier-like service returns defeated Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 Friday and set up an all-foreign semifinals in the National Tennis Championships.

The only thing Americans had to cheer about in the tournament was the plucky play of 17-year-old Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, who battled her way into the women's semifinals with an upset 6-4, 6-4 victory over fourth seeded Francoise Durr of France.

Pro Grid Merger Receives Support

Washington (AP)—A measure to give the National and American Football Leagues a specific exemption from anti-trust laws so they can merge was introduced in the Senate Friday by Democratic and Republican leaders.

The measure was introduced by Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, assistant Democratic leader, and Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

There has been no opposition to the merger from the Justice Department, but NFL Commission Pete Rozelle has sought a specific exemption for the planned merger.

However, Rozelle's request was turned down Thursday by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

Bucs Maintain 1½-Game Lead

. . . CUBS BLANK GIANTS

By Associated Press

The first place Pittsburgh Pirates beat the St. Louis Cardinals 3-2 on Bill Mazeroski's 12th inning sacrifice fly while the Los Angeles Dodgers and SKAN Francisco Giants were switching places behind the in the National League pennant fight.

Mazeroski's decisive fly came afher Matty Aluo's hit and two walks and kept the Pirates 1½ gmaes ahead of both the Dodgers and the Giants.

The Dodgers, however, retook second place by two percentage points behind the Giants by clubbing Houston 7-0 on Claude Osteen's three-hitter while the Giants lost to Chicago 6-0.

The Dodgers, however, retook second place by two percentage points over the jgian by clubbing Houston 7-0 on Claude Osteen's three-hitter while the Giants lost to Chicago 6-0.

Orlando Cepeda drove in the two Cardinal runs with a double and single and Willie Stargell kept Pittsburgh in the game with a run-scoring single. and a sacrifice fly.

Osteen, cmmpleting his first game in more than two onts, did not allow a man past first base as he ran his record to 15-11.

Ken Holtzman stopped the Giants on three hits for 7 2-3 innings and Bill Hands got him out of a bases loaded jam in the eighth by striking out Jim Hart as the Cubs dealth Juan Marichal his sixth loss against 21 victories. San Francisco errors gave the Cubs five unearned runs.

Tony Taylor doubled and Bill White singled him home in the eighth inning to give ralelied from a 5-0 deficit to a 6-6 tie on Leo jcardenas three -run homer.

Atlanta moved into a tie for fifth place in the National League with St. Louis by being the New York Mets on homers by Joe Torre, No. 34, and Felipe Alou, No. 28, and four hits and four runs batted in by Rico Carty.

Jim Kaat became the winningest pitcher in the major leagues as he breezed to his 23rd victory as Minnesota beat Baltimore 6-1 and snapped a six-game Oriole winning streak. Kaat scattered eight hits in winning his eighth straight for a 23-9 record.

Mickey Lolich walked Rick Monday with the bases loaded in the 10th inning to give Kansas City a 2-1 victory over Detroit.

Rookie Bill Davis hit a pinch homer with a man on in the last of the 10th inning, carrying Cleveland by California 8-7. The Angels had scored once in the top of the inning.

In another 10-inning affair, Ken McMullen's error on a bases loaded grounder by John Romano gave Chicago a 1-0 victory over Washington, wasting a two-hitter by Pete Richert.

The New York Yankees ended a one-day stay in the American League celler by whipping Boston 2-1 to end a five-game losing streak and move a half game ahead of the Red Sox. Fred Talbot and rookie Stan Bahnsen combined for a five-hitter.

Beatrice Rolls Past Crete, 25-0

By DON FORSYTHE
Prep Sports Writer

Beatrice — Quarterback Al Klaus turned the heavy work over to his junior backfield mates Friday night as Beatrice rolled to a 25-0 win over Crete in its 1966 football-opener.

The 1-2 punch of halfbacks Lanny Graves and Jim Sederberg and added wallop from fullback Rick Halterman provided most of the damage as the Orangemen ground out 368 yards on the ground against their Class B foes.

Sederberg started the Beatrice scoring parade with a 10-yard sprint around end in the first quarter, but it was Graves who caused most of the problems for the Cardinals.

The 185-pound junior carried 14 times for 151 yards and scored two of the four Beatrice touchdowns.

He plunged in from a yard out to cap a 42-yard drive midway in the second quarter, then broke loose for a 40-yard gallop on a dive play over right tackle later in the period to give the hosts a comfortable 19-0 halftime edge.

Crete, relying on the line smashes of Bob Bals, had the upper hand in the third quarter but the Orangemen took control again early in the final period to put together a 94-yard touchdown march.

Crete, which lost quarterback Ben McDowell early because of a groin injury, couldn't muster any attack through the air, but did roll for 148 yards on the ground against the Orangemen.

Schuyler 25, Wahoo 7

Schuyler—Three fumble recoveries were turned into touchdowns for Schuyler Friday night in a 25-7 season-opening triumph over Wahoo.

Two recoveries on the Wahoo 33, by guard George Heavican in the opening quarter and halfback Glenn Cudley in the last stanza, and another grab by Schuyler tackle John Neeson on his own 43 in the second quarter paved the way for scoring marches by the winners.

Oklahoma State Improves Slightly

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — The Oklahoma State Cowboys went through their last two-a-day workouts Friday, and coach Phil Cutchin appeared a little encouraged with what he called a "slight improvement."

Cutchin put his troops through a two-hour scrimmage which he said showed improvement in the passing and kicking game, compared with Tuesday's scrimmage.

"Now we've got to get our legs back, sharpen up and go do battle," Cutchin said.

He praised the running of sophomore back Jack Reynolds and the defensive efforts of guard Jim Goodwin, and backs Willard Nahrgang and Charles Trimble

Haynie Leading Despite Bad Day

Eugene, Ore. (AP)—Blue-eyed Sandra Haynie survived five bogeys, including four on the final nine holes Friday, and clung to her one-stroke lead in the Pacific Ladies Professional Golf Classic.

Injured Sooners Back In Action

Norman, Ikla. (AP) — Knee casts were removed from three University of Oklahoma football players Friday and two of the gridders, tackle Ed Hall and guard Vernon Burkett, were expected to be ready for the season opener with Oregon here Sept. 17.

The third player, linebacker Rick Goodwin, ran on the sidelines with Burkett and Hall but apparently was making a slower recovery.

Coach Jim Mackenzie said he was pleased with the day to day progress made by the squad in areas where it lacked polish. The team worked out two hours.

Ceresco 19, Wahoo Neumann 6

Ceresco—Kenny Kramer and Bill Erickson scored all three touchdowns in Ceresco's opening 19-6 win over Wahoo Neumann here Friday night.

Kramer scored on a 14-yard pass from Erickson and ran 55 yards for another tally. Erickson scored on a 15-yard run.

Stolle, Casals Make Semis

Forest Hills, N.Y. (AP)—Fred Stolle's rapier-like service returns defeated Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 Friday and set up an all-foreign semifinals in the National Tennis Championships.

The only thing Americans had to cheer about in the tournament was the plucky play of 17-year-old Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, who battled her way into the women's semifinals with an upset 6-4, 6-4 victory over fourth seeded Francoise Durr of France.

Pro Grid Merger Receives Support

Washington (AP)—A measure to give the National and American Football Leagues a specific exemption from anti-trust laws so they can merge was introduced in the Senate Friday by Democratic and Republican leaders.

The measure was introduced by Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, assistant Democratic leader, and Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

There has been no opposition to the merger from the Justice Department, but NFL Commission Pete Rozelle has sought a specific exemption for the planned merger.

However, Rozelle's request was turned down Thursday by Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

Odell Ends Barneston Winning String At 19

. . . GIESBRECHT LEADS ATTACK

By DEAN TERRILL
Southeast Nebraska Bureau

Odell — A two-season, 19-game win streak marred only by one tie came to an embarrassing end for Barneston here, 44-19, Friday night.

Coach Ron Bruening's Indians held Odell to 6-6 at the first quarter and 13-19 at halftime. Then the gears of halfback Jim Giesbrecht and Co. meshed for four TDs while giving up a single score.

on Gal Searcey, versatile quarterback who packs but 155 pounds on a 6-3 frame. His high knees accounted for all three scores, a good arm for several impressive aerials.

Barneston did make a better paper showing on first downs, 10 to 8, but this was outshown by several long Odell gains. Sophomore halfback David Weyer and David Myallahn, junior guard, drew staff praise along with Searcy.

In his second grid season after five as basketball coach, Jerry Rupprecht apparently has designs to top last year's 6-3 showing.

Barneston had run up 18 wins and one tie since a 1963 loss to Dawson-Verdon.

Golf's World Series Gets Rolling Today

. . . NICKLAUS TOP-SEEDED

Akron, Ohio (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, graciously accepting his familiar role of favorite, faces a trio of strong challengers in the fifth annual World Series of Golf beginning Saturday.

Although Nicklaus hasn't won a tournament since the British Open and has played only one round of exhibition golf in the last two weeks, he has been made the even-money choice over Billy Casper, Al Geiberger and Gene Littler.

Nicklaus originally qualified for the World Series by winning the Masters and then paved the way for Littler to grab a berth by capturing the British Open.

Casper, the National Open champion, is a 2-1 choice followed by Geiberger, the PGA winner, at 5-1, and Littler at 6-1.

With Nicklaus winning two major tournaments and Casper also taking the Western Open, the first alternate tournament, Littler was accepted because of his Canadian Open triumph last year.

On the basis of recent performances, Geiberger could very well carry the favorite's role. He won the PGA on the vast Firestone course last month, and the American Golf Classic last year, over the same 7,180-yard layout which carries a 35-35-70 standard.

In each of those tournaments, Geiberger shot an even par 280 for 72 holes. Would Geiberger settle for a 140 par in this weekend's event?

"I wouldn't be ashamed of it," said the thin man who has helped peanut butter and jelly sandwiches regain popularity. "But I have a feeling it might take a better score than that to win the big money."

The "big money" is the top prize of $50,000. Second place is worth $15,000, third $7,500 and fourth $5,000 in the nationally televised event.

Casper, the leading money winner with a total of $107,665, is heading for golfer-of-the-year honors, and could clinch it with a world series victory.

In addition to his national and western titles, he also has won the San Diego Open and the Indianapolis 500.

Littler has had a banner year although he has not won a championship. Seven times he has finished among the top five and three times he has finished second including a playoff loss to Joe Campbell at Tucson.

Despite the credentials carried by the other three, Nicklaus is the man to beat. Big Jack won the inaugural world series in 1962 with a two-round total of 135, five under par, and then repeated in 1963 by shooting an even par 140.

Colorado Offense Goes Wide Open

Boulder, Colo. (AP)—Quarterback Dan Kelly retrieved a wild snap from center and sprinted 102 yards for a touchdown Friday to highlight a full-game scrimmage by the Colorado University football team.

Kelly was back to punt when the errant snap from the 24-yard line forced him to run.

Ernie McCall threw touchdown passes of 34 and 54 yards to slot end Larry Plantz as the Buffaloes scored seven touchdowns, a field goal and a safety.

Defensive end Sam Harris intercepted two of McCall's passes and ran 22 yards for a touchdown after scooping up a blocked punt.

Offensive halfback Wilmer Cooks accounted for two more touchdowns on short runs and defensive back Steve Tracy scored a 32-yard run after intercepting a pass by McCall.

Jets Hold Off Dolphin Rally

Miami, Fla. (AP)—The New York Jets, bolstered by the return of Joe Namath to action, needed all the help they could get Friday night to stave off a furious last-quarter rally by the Miami Dolphins and squeeze out a 19-14 victory.

Rick Norton of Kentucky, a quarterback who commanded almost as big a price as Namath, threw a 43-yard touchdown pass and Pete Jaquess, a recent pickup from San Diego, intercepted a Namath pass for a 27-yard scoring run as the underdog Dolphins came close to pulling it out.

Namath, injured in the first game of the American Football League exhibition season, took over in the second half after the Dolphins had given Mike Taliaferro a rough time in the early going.

Wayne Hosts South Dakotans In Opener

Wayne—Wayne State's football machine goes into motion tonight for the first time in 1966 with Southern State of South Dakota as the foe at 7:30 in Wayne's Memorial Stadium.

The two teams have not met since 1940, when Wayne scored a 38-0 win. In four earlier games, Southern won three.

Iowa State Holds Controlled Contact

Ames, Iowa (AP) — The offensive and defensive units worked against each other in a 30-minute controlled scrimmage Friday as the Iowa State football team pushed preparations for its season opener Sept. 17 at Wisconsin.

Odell Ends Barneston Winning String At 19

By DEAN TERRILL
Southeast Nebraska Bureau

Odell — A two-season, 19-game win streak marred only by one tie came to an embarrassing end for Barneston here, 44-19, Friday night.

Coach Ron Bruening's Indians held Odell to 6-6 at the first quarter and 13-19 at halftime. Then the gears of halfback Jim Giesbrecht and Co. meshed for four TDs while giving up a single score.

on Gal Searcey, versatile quarterback who packs but 155 pounds on a 6-3 frame. His high knees accounted for all three scores, a good arm for several impressive aerials.

Barneston did make a better paper showing on first downs, 10 to 8, but this was outshown by several long Odell gains. Sophomore halfback David Weyer and David Myallahn, junior guard, drew staff praise along with Searcy.

In his second grid season after five as basketball coach, Jerry Rupprecht apparently has designs to top last year's 6-3 showing.

Barneston had run up 18 wins and one tie since a 1963 loss to Dawson-Verdon.

Golf's World Series Gets Rolling Today

. . . NICKLAUS TOP-SEEDED

Akron, Ohio (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, graciously accepting his familiar role of favorite, faces a trio of strong challengers in the fifth annual World Series of Golf beginning Saturday.

Although Nicklaus hasn't won a tournament since the British Open and has played only one round of exhibition golf in the last two weeks, he has been made the even-money choice over Billy Casper, Al Geiberger and Gene Littler.

Nicklaus originally qualified for the World Series by winning the Masters and then paved the way for Littler to grab a berth by capturing the British Open.

Casper, the National Open champion, is a 2-1 choice followed by Geiberger, the PGA winner, at 5-1, and Littler at 6-1.

With Nicklaus winning two major tournaments and Casper also taking the Western Open, the first alternate tournament, Littler was accepted because of his Canadian Open triumph last year.

On the basis of recent performances, Geiberger could very well carry the favorite's role. He won the PGA on the vast Firestone course last month, and the American Golf Classic last year, over the same 7,180-yard layout which carries a 35-35-70 standard.

In each of those tournaments, Geiberger shot an even par 280 for 72 holes. Would Geiberger settle for a 140 par in this weekend's event?

"I wouldn't be ashamed of it," said the thin man who has helped peanut butter and jelly sandwiches regain popularity. "But I have a feeling it might take a better score than that to win the big money."

The "big money" is the top prize of $50,000. Second place is worth $15,000, third $7,500 and fourth $5,000 in the nationally televised event.

Casper, the leading money winner with a total of $107,665, is heading for golfer-of-the-year honors, and could clinch it with a world series victory.

In addition to his national and western titles, he also has won the San Diego Open and the Indianapolis 500.

Littler has had a banner year although he has not won a championship. Seven times he has finished among the top five and three times he has finished second including a playoff loss to Joe Campbell at Tucson.

Despite the credentials carried by the other three, Nicklaus is the man to beat. Big Jack won the inaugural world series in 1962 with a two-round total of 135, five under par, and then repeated in 1963 by shooting an even par 140.

Colorado Offense Goes Wide Open

Boulder, Colo. (AP)—Quarterback Dan Kelly retrieved a wild snap from center and sprinted 102 yards for a touchdown Friday to highlight a full-game scrimmage by the Colorado University football team.

Kelly was back to punt when the errant snap from the 24-yard line forced him to run.

Ernie McCall threw touchdown passes of 34 and 54 yards to slot end Larry Plantz as the Buffaloes scored seven touchdowns, a field goal and a safety.

Defensive end Sam Harris intercepted two of McCall's passes and ran 22 yards for a touchdown after scooping up a blocked punt.

Offensive halfback Wilmer Cooks accounted for two more touchdowns on short runs and defensive back Steve Tracy scored a 32-yard run after intercepting a pass by McCall.

Jets Hold Off Dolphin Rally

Miami, Fla. (AP)—The New York Jets, bolstered by the return of Joe Namath to action, needed all the help they could get Friday night to stave off a furious last-quarter rally by the Miami Dolphins and squeeze out a 19-14 victory.

Rick Norton of Kentucky, a quarterback who commanded almost as big a price as Namath, threw a 43-yard touchdown pass and Pete Jaquess, a recent pickup from San Diego, intercepted a Namath pass for a 27-yard scoring run as the underdog Dolphins came close to pulling it out.

Namath, injured in the first game of the American Football League exhibition season, took over in the second half after the Dolphins had given Mike Taliaferro a rough time in the early going.

Sen. Burbach Again Calls For Special Unicam Session

The chairman of the Legislature's interim road study committee Friday again called for a special session of the Legislature to put a constitutional amendment permitting revenue bonds for highway construction on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Sen. J. W. Burbach of Crofton said, "Ample time still remains for a special session call" by the governor, the Legislature's executive committee or by the Legislative Council.

Gov. Frank Morrison has declined to call a special session, and the Executive Committee deadlocked on the issue. Twenty-nine senators could force a call by written petition.

Hossack Statement Cited

Prompting Burbach's renewed plea was State Engineer John Hossack's statement this week that Nebraska's highway system will wear out faster than it can be rebuilt unless current trends in financing are reversed.

Hossack said the three per cent annual increase in highway revenue isn't keeping pace with highway building costs, which jumped 16 to 20% during the past six months.

Burbach also noted additional costs that will result from a U.S. Bureau of Public Roads directive that roadside hazards for out-of-control vehicles be eliminated in future road improvements and design.

The bureau is directing signs, lighting standards and other fixed structures be 30 feet from the road pavement and slopes be made more gradual.

'Major Catastrophe'

"If such a serious matter is ignored for another two or four years," Burbach said, "it will be a major catastrophe for Nebraska."

"Certainly the people in power and authority cannot continue to reject such a major issue," he added.

Both the governor and the Legislative Council's executive board members have indicated a reluctance to submit a financing issue to the voters until the state's comprehensive highway study is completed later this year by three consulting firms.

SEN. J. W. BURBACH

Sorensen Says Rival Offers Only Platitudes

Lt. Gov. Philip Sorensen Friday said Nebraska voters must choose in November between his specific proposals and experience in state government and "Mr. Tiemann's platitudes, which are backed only by a naive understanding of government."

"Nor," Sorensen said, "has he set forth one single position of policy pertinent to state problems or needs — other than (to be absolutely fair) to propose, prematurely, the elimination of state bonded indebtedness in the area of highway construction."

Similar Intentions

Tiemann and Sorensen "do hold similar intentions and goals for Nebraska," Sorensen said, but the difference comes in terms of specific proposals to meet those goals.

The Democratic nominee noted that he has outlined in detail proposals for economic development, taxation, education and the older Nebraskan in position papers on those subjects.

Sorensen said he will issue additional position papers on vocational and technical education, municipal affairs, agriculture, recreational facilities and economy in government.

"My opponent and I agree —I don't know anyone who would disagree—that Nebraska should stimulate industrial development, that Nebraska must seek to prevent the out-migration of its young and energetic men and women, that Nebraska must have a fair and equitable tax system, that Nebraska must upgrade its educational institutions, that Nebraska must develop its research in agriculture," the lieutenant governor noted.

"But my opponent has consistently refused to go beyond these vague and glittering generalities.

'Refused to Tell'

Sorensen said Tiemann has "systematically and categorically" denounced the programs of the late Gov. Ralph Brooks and Gov. Frank Morrison.

Most of those programs, Sorensen said, have been effective.

"I am not suggesting that we can be satisfied even with this remarkable record of achievement," he noted, "for we all know that Nebraska still has problems which must be solved, and improvements which must be made."

In reply to questioning at a news conference, Sorensen said taxation still is an issue in the contest with Tiemann.

Not Inevitabilities

Tiemann "talks about inevitabilities which are not inevitabilities" in taxation, Sorensen said, but "he has never made a public statement that he would support or propose a sales and income tax."

Sorensen has said that he would propose a sales-income combination if the voters reject both the 1965 state income tax law and the state property tax system in November.

Asked about recent political surveys, Sorensen said the only one he has seen was taken by Democrats in Douglas County a month or six weeks ago and its results were "quite favorable" for his candidacy.

Extension Of River Barge Lane Sought

The Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors has recommended a $57.8-million extension of the 9-foot barge navigation channel on the Missouri River from Sioux City, Iowa to Yankton, S.D., Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., reported Friday.

The board recommended the stabilization of river banks to control erosion which has damaged farmland, polluted the river with silt and handicapped fish and wildlife.

The board also recommended establishment of 12 20-acre recreation areas

The cost-benefit ratio on the project was listed as 1.3 to 1.

The board is an independent review agency established to study project proposals of the corps of engineers.

Callan said the report and recommendations will now go to the chief of engineers for further evaluation, and for submission to the states and other agencies concerned. Later it would be forwarded to the secretary of the Army, Budget Bureau and Congress.

NSEA Head Raps Bus Amendment 'Gimmick'

By United Press International

The executive secretary of the Nebraska State Education Association (NSEA) said Friday forces supporting the school bus amendment are using "gimmicks" to promote the proposal.

John E. Lynch of Lincoln referred specifically to a billboard that used a state fair theme to boost the controversial measure.

The amendment, which will appear as No. 6 on the Nov. 8 ballot, would extend free school bus transportation to parochial and private school students. Now only public school youngsters are picked up and dropped off.

'Make Our State Fair'

The billboard in question carried this message: "Let's Make Our State Fair to All Kids. Vote for Amendment 6, the School Bus Bill."

Lynch said, "Probably 99 out of 100 who read that ad made a quick connection between the state fair and amendment 6—so if they were for the state fair, and that's why they were coming to Lincoln, they had to be for Amendment 6.

"We should enlighten the voter on the merits of each amendment but is this the way to do it?"

Lynch said it isn't fair to amend the constitution by "gimmicks" hatched by public relations firms.

"For those who came to the fair in Lincoln, some of you may have seen a billboard that must rate somewhere near the top in gimmicks," he wrote in the NSEA's official publication, "Nebraska Education News."

Big Red Letters

"The big red letters read 'State Fair.' Right above it in smaller letters was 'Help Make Our.' Now everyone coming to the fair would be in favor of that.

"At the bottom the ad said, 'Vote for Amendment 6.' Knowing that Amendment 6 was the school bus amendment, it was difficult to get the connection between the state fair and whether parochial school kids ride the public school bus or not."

Falls City, Millard Water Jobs OKd

The Nebraska Water Pollution Council Friday reported that the federal government has approved grants totalling $239,224 for pollution control projects at Falls City and Millard.

Pending

The council said federal grant applications for pollution abatement projects at Thedford, Pleasanton, Winnebago, and Holdrege are still pending.

Nebraska will receive $1,491,000 in federal funds for pollution abatement projects during the fiscal year which began July 1.

Omaha is expected to request $500,000 to pay 40% of the cost of three grit removal facilities on the city sewer system.

In other action, State Sanitation Engineer T. A. Filipi reported he will ask the 1967 Legislature for three more sanitation engineers and a scientist on the department staff.

$64,000 For Personnel

He said the additional personnel would cost $64,000 during the next two years and are needed to step up the state's slow-paced sanitation programs.

Filipi said increased efforts are needed to catch up with 25 years of neglect in the state's water pollution problem.

McPherson Pulls Out Of Proposed Voc-Tech School

McPherson County Friday, withdrew its bid to join the Mid-Plains Vocational-Technical School, State Education Commissioner Floyd Miller announced.

Miller said the county commissioners voted to exclude McPherson from the list of 10 others which seek to establish the trade school near North Platte.

A hearing set for Sept. 13 has been canceled, he said.

Movement To Spread

Houston (UPI)—One of the leaders of Texas' march for higher farm pay said the movement will spread into 16 other states that have many Mexican-Americans.

Sen. Burbach Again Calls For Special Unicam Session

The chairman of the Legislature's interim road study committee Friday again called for a special session of the Legislature to put a constitutional amendment permitting revenue bonds for highway construction on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Sen. J. W. Burbach of Crofton said, "Ample time still remains for a special session call" by the governor, the Legislature's executive committee or by the Legislative Council.

Gov. Frank Morrison has declined to call a special session, and the Executive Committee deadlocked on the issue. Twenty-nine senators could force a call by written petition.

Hossack Statement Cited

Prompting Burbach's renewed plea was State Engineer John Hossack's statement this week that Nebraska's highway system will wear out faster than it can be rebuilt unless current trends in financing are reversed.

Hossack said the three per cent annual increase in highway revenue isn't keeping pace with highway building costs, which jumped 16 to 20% during the past six months.

Burbach also noted additional costs that will result from a U.S. Bureau of Public Roads directive that roadside hazards for out-of-control vehicles be eliminated in future road improvements and design.

The bureau is directing signs, lighting standards and other fixed structures be 30 feet from the road pavement and slopes be made more gradual.

'Major Catastrophe'

"If such a serious matter is ignored for another two or four years," Burbach said, "it will be a major catastrophe for Nebraska."

"Certainly the people in power and authority cannot continue to reject such a major issue," he added.

Both the governor and the Legislative Council's executive board members have indicated a reluctance to submit a financing issue to the voters until the state's comprehensive highway study is completed later this year by three consulting firms.

Sorensen Says Rival Offers Only Platitudes

Lt. Gov. Philip Sorensen Friday said Nebraska voters must choose in November between his specific proposals and experience in state government and "Mr. Tiemann's platitudes, which are backed only by a naive understanding of government."

During the entire gubernatorial campaign, Sorensen said, Republican nominee Norbert Tiemann "has not put forward one single program, nor one single idea.

The Democratic nominee noted that he has outlined in detail proposals for economic development, taxation, education and the older Nebraskan in position papers on those subjects.

Sorensen said he will issue additional position papers on vocational and technical education, municipal affairs, agriculture, recreational facilities and economy in government.

"My opponent and I agree —I don't know anyone who would disagree—that Nebraska should stimulate industrial development, that Nebraska must seek to prevent the outmigration of its young and energetic men and women, that Nebraska must have a fair and equitable tax system, that Nebraska must upgrade its educational institutions, that Nebraska must develop its research in agriculture," the lieutenant governor noted.

"But my opponent has consistently refused to go beyond these vague and glittering generalities.

'Refused to Tell'

Sorensen said Tiemann has "systematically and categorically" denounced the programs of the late Gov. Ralph Brooks and Gov. Frank Morrison.

Tiemann "talks about inevitabilities which are not inevitabilities" in taxation, Sorensen said, but "he has never made a public statement that he would support or propose a sales and income tax."

Sorensen has said that he would propose a sales-income combination if the voters reject both the 1965 state income tax law and the state property tax system in November.

Record Corn Crop Forecast; Top Wheat Yield Already In

From Press Reports

The U. S. Department of Agriculture forecast a record corn crop yield of 70 bushels an acre, compared to the previous record of 67 bushels an acre, harvested last year.

Already harvested is a wheat crop which averaged 35 bushels an acre—an all-time high.

Up From 63

"This is one of the most fantastic corn crops in Nebraska history. Many experts had written it off after the heat in June or July but it made a remarkable recover" Logan said.

"If the frost holds off until the entire crop is mature and we get some warm weather, this could rank as one of our best, if not the best, corn crop in Nebraska history," he said.

On the heels of two weeks of dry July weather came four weeks of below-normal temperatures and above-normal rainfall in August. For the most part, the corn thrived on this cool, humid weather, crop men said.

Nationally, improved weather in many areas last month boosted 1966 prospects for all major crops except oats, the government reported.

The latest forecast showed an expected corn production of nearly 4.1 billion bushels. This is only two percent below last year's record crop but nine per cent above the average for the first five years of this decade.

A wheat crop of nearly 1.3 billion bushels was forecast—one per cent more than predicted last month. This would be six per cent above the five-year average and about two per cent below 1965 production.

Prof, Student Are Married Against Will

New Orleans, La., (AP) — A Tulane University professor and his erstwhile student assistant are still wondering whether they are legally married.

Henry Orenstein, professor of sociology, told Judge S. Sanford Levy that in August, 1961, he went to India to conduct some sociology studies. While there, he was assisted by a Miss Alberte Colleyn, who was studying for a degree in anthropology.

When natives of an Indian village became restless because Orenstein and Miss Colleyn were living in separate quarters, the natives urged the couple to participate in an Indian marriage ceremony. The couple decided to assent to the natives' request to assure cooperation from the villagers.

Even though they were presented with an Indian marriage certificate, Orenstein claimed that he and Miss Colleyn never "lived together as husband and wife" and requested the annulment.

Judge Levy refused the petition for annulment and said no evidence showed the marriage was valid or invalid under laws of the Indian government.

Judge Levy said the couple apparently made no effort to have the marriage revoked when there was "an official of the Indian government" present and that he thought it would be against public policy to annul such a marriage.

He said, "The parties entered into . . . a marriage ceremony . . . without making any effort to void the ceremony until . . . the marriage had served their purpose, five years later."

Conference Set To Aid Hospitals With Medicare

One of the requirements for hospital participation in the Medicare program is the employment of trained medical record librarians. Representatives of 15 small Nebraska libraries will be given such training at the conference.

The conference is co-sponsored by the University's College of Medicine and the medicare division of the State Department of Health.

Humphrey Meets Bashful Child

Importance Of Food Arsenal Told By HHH

Jefferson, Iowa (AP) — The United States must have an arsenal of food as well as military weapons to keep its place as a world leader, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey declared Friday.

"Our position of world leadership requires that we maintain an arsenal of food and fiber just as we maintain an arsenal of military weapons. But your government has no intention of calling upon the American farmer to provide that arsenal at the sacrifice of fair price and a decent income."

The vice president credited the Johnson administration's farm program with raising agricultural income and said those programs should not be abandoned.

Declining food production and spiraling populations in Asia and Latin America place increasing importance on farmers in the United States, said Humphrey, adding:

"In a world of hunger, there can be no peace. Governments have risen and fallen on their ability or inability to feed their people."

"Food power is our secret weapon," said the vice president.

Hruska Critical

Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., another speaker, charged the administration's agricultural policies are "cynical abandonment of rural America in favor of the vote rich urban centers of this country."

Hruska said the "dumping of government owned grains to depress prices, the cutback in defense pork purchases, Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman's elation at lower farm prices, the President's advice to housewives to buy cheaper cuts of meat" were "calculated to win political favor where the votes are but to deprive the farm family of its fair share of the national economy."

He said Freeman has attempted to paint a rosy picture on net farm income, but it doesn't stand up under close scrutiny.

Wheat Mission From Japan Will Visit Nebraska

The Nebraska Wheat Commission will host a seven-man Japanese Government Wheat Mission team for visits to eastern Nebraska wheat handling and processing facilities Wednesday through Friday.

Ervain Friehe, commission chairman said the team will be in Nebraska as part of a tour of U.S. wheat facilities. Western Wheat Associates, a regional wheat marketing association, arranged the tour in cooperation with U.S. government officials. The group will arrive in Lincoln Wednesday and leave for Minneapolis, Minn., Friday. Members will visit milling, handling, baking and processing of wheat at facilities near Lincoln and Omaha.

Extending 9-Foot Missouri Channel Is Recommended

Norfolk (AP)—The office of Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., reported Friday that the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors has recommended extension of the nine foot barge and navigation channel on the Missouri River from Sioux City, Ia. to Yankton, S.D.

Cost would be $57,852,000.

The report said the project would include stabilization of banks along 78 miles of river channel to control erosion.

The project also would include 12 20-acre recreation areas which would also serve as wildlife refuges.

The recommendation of the board will go to the chief of Army Engineers for review, then be circulated to other government agencies and states involved before being sent to the Bureau of the Budget and Congress, the spokesman said.

Narcotics Seized

Hong Kong (AP)—Hong Kong police said they had seized 3,000 pounds of raw opium and 300 pounds of morphine.

From Press Reports

Nebraska corn and wheat farmers are headed for their greatest harvests in the history of Nebraska.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture forecast a record corn crop yield of 70 bushels an acre, compared to the previous record of 67 bushels an acre, harvested last year.

Already harvested is a wheat crop which averaged 35 bushels an acre—an all-time high.

Up From 63

A month ago the forecast was for a 63-bushel-an-acre crop.

"This is one of the most fantastic corn crops in Nebraska history. Many experts had written it off after the heat in June or July but it made a remarkable recover" Logan said.

"If the frost holds off until the entire crop is mature and we get some warm weather, this could rank as one of our best, if not the best, corn crop in Nebraska history," he said.

On the heels of two weeks of dry July weather came four weeks of below-normal temperatures and above-normal rainfall in August. For the most part, the corn thrived on this cool, humid weather, crop men said.

The Sept. 1 outlook for other crops (Aug. 1 figures in parentheses):

Oats: 24,050,000 bushels or 37 bushels an acre (same).
Sorghum grain: 131,690,000; 65 bushels an acre 104,940,000; per acre figure unavailable.
Dry beans: 1,445,000 hundred-weight; 1,700 pounds per acre (1,530,000; 1,800).
Sugar beets: 1,273,000 tons; 19 tons an acre (1,206,000; 18).

Nationally, improved weather in many areas last month boosted 1966 prospects for all major crops except oats, the government reported.

The latest forecast showed an expected corn production of nearly 4.1 billion bushels. This is only two percent below last year's record crop but nine per cent above the average for the first five years of this decade.

A wheat crop of nearly 1.3 billion bushels was forecast—one per cent more than predicted last month. This would be six per cent above the five-year average and about two per cent below 1965 production.

All-time record highs were forecast for soybeans and sorghum grains.

Prof, Student Are Married Against Will

New Orleans, La., (AP) — A Tulane University professor and his erstwhile student assistant are still wondering whether they are legally married.

Henry Orenstein, professor of sociology, told Judge S. Sanford Levy that in August, 1961, he went to India to conduct some sociology studies. While there, he was assisted by a Miss Alberte Colleyn, who was studying for a degree in anthropology.

When natives of an Indian village became restless because Orenstein and Miss Colleyn were living in separate quarters, the natives urged the couple to participate in an Indian marriage ceremony. The couple decided to assent to the natives' request to assure cooperation from the villagers.

Even though they were presented with an Indian marriage certificate, Orenstein claimed that he and Miss Colleyn never "lived together as husband and wife" and requested the annulment.

Judge Levy refused the petition for annulment and said no evidence showed the marriage was valid or invalid under laws of the Indian government.

Judge Levy said the couple apparently made no effort to have the marriage revoked when there was "an official of the Indian government" present and that he thought it would be against public policy to annul such a marriage.

He said, "The parties entered into . . . . a marriage ceremony . . . without making any effort to void the ceremony until . . . the marriage had served their purpose, five years later."

HERE IN LINCOLN

Selmer To Talk — Carl Selmer, Cornhusker assistant coach will discuss Nebraska prospects before a 7:45 a.m. Wednesday meeting of the Gateway Sertoma at Skyline.

Educational Conference — West-central YMCA secretaries, including members from Nebraska, Kansas, Wyoming, Missouri and Colorado, will meet at the Nebraska Center Sunday through Wednesday.

Paintings Displayed — A GOP fund-raising supper will be the scene for an exhibition of 12 paintings by Charles McVicker depicting great moments in Republican party history. The paintings will be unveiled at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Lincoln Hotel and shown at the supper in Pershing Auditorium at 6 p.m.

Conference Set To Aid Hospitals With Medicare

For the second time this year the Nebraska Center has arranged a special conference to help small Nebraska hospitals qualify in the federal Medicare program.

A five-day course on the keeping of medical records will be held at the center Monday through Friday.

One of the requirements for hospital participation in the Medicare program is the employment of trained medical record librarians. Representatives of 15 small Nebraska libraries will be given such training at the conference.

The conference is co-sponsored by the University's College of Medicine and the medicare division of the State Department of Health.

Humphrey Meets Bashful Child

Importance Of Food Arsenal Told By HHH

Jefferson, Iowa (AP) — The United States must have an arsenal of food as well as military weapons to keep its place as a world leader, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey declared Friday.

"Our position of world leadership requires that we maintain an arsenal of food and fiber just as we maintain an arsenal of military weapons. But your government has no intention of calling upon the American farmer to provide that arsenal at the sacrifice of fair price and a decent income."

The vice president credited the Johnson administration's farm program with raising agricultural income and said those programs should not be abandoned.

Declining food production and spiraling populations in Asia and Latin America place increasing importance on farmers in the United States, said Humphrey, adding:

"In a world of hunger, there can be no peace. Governments have risen and fallen on their ability or inability to feed their people."

"Food power is our secret weapon," said the vice president.

Hruska Critical

Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., another speaker, charged the administration's agricultural policies are "cynical abandonment of rural America in favor of the vote rich urban centers of this country."

Hruska said the "dumping of government owned grains to depress prices, the cutback in defense pork purchases, Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman's elation at lower farm prices, the President's advice to housewives to buy cheaper cuts of meat" were "calculated to win political favor where the votes are but to deprive the farm family of its fair share of the national economy."

He said Freeman has attempted to paint a rosy picture on net farm income, but it doesn't stand up under close scrutiny.

The Nebraska Wheat Commission will host a seven-man Japanese Government Wheat Mission team for visits to eastern Nebraska wheat handling and processing facilities Wednesday through Friday.

Ervain Friehe, commission chairman said the team will be in Nebraska as part of a tour of U.S. wheat facilities. Western Wheat Associates, a regional wheat marketing association, arranged the tour in cooperation with U.S. government officials. The group will arrive in Lincoln Wednesday and leave for Minneapolis, Minn., Friday. Members will visit milling, handling, baking and processing of wheat at facilities near Lincoln and Omaha.

Extending 9-Foot Missouri Channel Is Recommended

Norfolk (AP)—The office of Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., reported Friday that the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors has recommended extension of the nine foot barge and navigation channel on the Missouri River from Sioux City, Ia. to Yankton, S.D.

Cost would be $57,852,000.

The report said the project would include stabilization of banks along 78 miles of river channel to control erosion.

The project also would include 12 20-acre recreation areas which would also serve as wildlife refuges.

The recommendation of the board will go to the chief of Army Engineers for review, then be circulated to other government agencies and states involved before being sent to the Bureau of the Budget and Congress, the spokesman said.

Narcotics Seized

Hong Kong (AP)—Hong Kong police said they had seized 3,000 pounds of raw opium and 300 pounds of morphine.

Stock Market's Gain Is Small

Other statistics, however, showed a clearer verdict for the bullish side of the market. Of 1,389 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 657 rose and 469 fell. New lows for the year totaled 123 and new highs two.

Opinion was divided among businessmen and economists regarding the President's proposals, among them a 16-month suspension of the 7 per cent tax credit on business investment.

In early trading, the market looked more depressed than optimistic. Airlines, particularly, were down sharply. These and many other issues improved as the day wore on.

A great deal of the improvement was in glamor stocks and other fast-stepping issues. Much of their late improvement was laid to precautionary short covering prior to a weekend.

This is the purchase of stock to replace shares borrowed and sold short in the hope that lower prices would bring the sellers a profit. In a bear market, this preweekend buying to cover short positions is a species of profit taking.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 1.3 to 280.9 with industrials up 1.1, rails up .8 and utilities up 1.4.

The glamor stocks, in which large short positions have been reported, were dominant among the 15 most active stocks. Of these 13 rose and two fell.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. The exchange's index rose $.07 to $13.21.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were generally higher.

Barrows And Gilts Are Steady

Buying Flurry Boosts All Grain Futures

Chicago (AP) — An impending government crop report and an unconfirmed rumor among traders that Communist China might intervene in North Viet Nam set off a flurry of late buying in the grain futures market Friday which boosted all commodities into their broadest gains of the week.

All soybean deliveries finished about 7 cents a bushel higher after a little late profit cashing trimmed extreme gains. For a while the March contract traded at the limit gain of 10 cents for a single day.

Wheat added 3 cents or more at best and finished at the day's peaks while corn moved up well over a cent. Oats and rye also were strong.

At the close, wheat was 2⅛-3½ cents a bushel higher, September $1.92; corn 1⅛-2¼ higher, September $1.44⅝-¼; oats ⅝-1¼ higher, September 74¼ cents; rye 1½-2¾ higher, September $1.30¼; soybeans 6⅞-7¾ higher, September $3.38¾-39.

Feeder Cattle Market Weak

Omaha (UPI)—The National Livestock Feeders Association said Friday feeder cattle trading showed weakness this week. Several markets reported most loss on steers over 750 pounds. However, Kansas City quoted prices on fleshy steers over 800 pounds 25 to 50 cents higher.

River Markets—Calves sarce at Kansas City and Omaha. Prices quoted for choice probably include prime end most cases. Choice steer calves Sioux City 30.00-33.00. Choice heifer calves Sioux City 27.00-29.00. Steers 550-700 lbs., choice 27.00-29.00, with lightweight short yearlings to 31.00 at Sioux City and Omaha; good and choice 26.00-28.00. Steers 700-900 lbs., choice 25.00-27.50. Heavy, fleshy steers 900-1,050 lbs., mostly 24.50-25.50, some to 26.00. Heifers 550-750 lbs., choice 24.50-27.00; good and choice Kansas City 22.50-24.50.

Sidings Laminated

Chicago—Smooth, uniform, nonporous exterior wood sidings that can be painted easily and effectively have been developed. The secret is a new laminating system. Paint on three sidings lasts three to four times longer than usual because shrinkage or expansion caused by moisture change is more uniform

House Refuses To Set Limit On Interest Rate

Washington (AP)—The House passed, 271 to 68, a bill designed to ease competition between banks and other thrift institutions for deposits—but refused to set fixed limits on interest rates.

There was no individually recorded vote on the decision against decreeing a temporary 4½% limit on interest that banks may pay on deposits left for a fixed time. Members stood up to be counted and the tally was 104 to 39.

One of the purposes of the bill is to protect savings and loan associations, traditional source of financing for home building, from the competition of high interest bearing certificates of deposit issued by commercial banks. Another is to nudge interest rates generally downward.

The bill, which now goes to the Senate, would provide for one-year authority for the Federal Reserve Board to decree different interest levels on bank deposits, considering such factors as the size of the deposit and the conditions prevailing in different parts of the country.

Similar authority, as to interest paid by savings and loan associations, would be given to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, which now can control interest rates only indirectly.

The Federal Reserve Board would be authorized to increase up to 10% the reserves banks must maintain against time deposits. The present maximum is 6% and the increase would tend toward restraint.

Finally, the Federal Reserve's Open Market Committee would be authorized, on request of the secretary of the Treasury, to buy obligations of the Federal Home Loan Banks and the Federal National Mortgage Association, thus helping to assure a flow of funds into the home financing market.

G&T Protesting Loup's Proposal For New Line

The Nebraska Electric Generation and Transmission cooperative (G & T) Friday protested Loup River Public Power District's application to construct a 345-kilovolt electric transmission line from Grand Island to Omaha.

The protest was laid before the Nebraska Power Review Board, which has tenatively scheduled the Loup proposal for hearing on Sept. 21.

Loup proposes to interconnect the line with facilities of the Omaha Public Power District. No waivers have been filed by OPPD.

Among issues raised by G & T in its protest was Loup's unwillingness to make its transmission facilities available for rural electric districts to wheel power purchased from sources other than the Nebraska Public Power System.

U.S. Rejects New Korean Conference

Washington (AP)—The United States in effect turned down Friday a North Korean proposal for a conference of the powers involved in the Korean War to settle the Korean question.

The North Korean proposal, bypassing the United Nations, drew from State Department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey a strong endorsement of the U.N. formula for the unification of Korea.

"Our position on Korean unification has been stated before," the spokesman said. "We support fully the United Nations' competence and authority to handle the question."

McCloskey said that along with the South Korean government and the great majority of countries in the U.N. General Assembly, "We endorse the U.N. formula which provides free national elections under United Nations supervision leading to the establishment of a free, unified and independent Korea."

Asked if this meant the United States has rejected the North Korean proposal, McCloskey replied, "Draw your own conclusions."

Assault Count Trial Results In Hung Jury

A Federal District Court jury deliberating an assault with a deadly weapon charge failed to reach a verdict Friday and was dismissed by Judge Robert Van Pelt.

Indicted by a grand jury earlier for allegedly threatening an Internal Revenue Service employe with a pistol on March 10 this year was John L. Guyant, 56, of Grand Island. His trial started Wednesday and the jury was handed the case Thursday shortly after noon.

When the hung jury was announced, Judge Van Pelt dismissed the entire panel. Guyant faces a new trial when a new jury is called. He is free on $3,000 bond.

The federal complaint alleges that after revenue agent George Langdale, also of Grand Island, notified Guyant's employers of his tax liability, Guyant went to Langdale's home and threatened to kill him.

Stock Market's Gain Is Small

Trading was moderate. Volume totaled 5.28 million shares compared with 6.66 million Thursday.

Other statistics, however, showed a clearer verdict for the bullish side of the market. Of 1,389 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 657 rose and 469 fell. New lows for the year totaled 123 and new highs two.

Opinion was divided among businessmen and economists regarding the President's proposals, among them a 16-month suspension of the 7 per cent tax credit on business investment.

In early trading, the market looked more depressed than optimistic. Airlines, particularly, were down sharply. These and many other issues improved as the day wore on.

A great deal of the improvement was in glamor stocks and other fast-stepping issues. Much of their late improvement was laid to precautionary short covering prior to a weekend.

This is the purchase of stock to replace shares borrowed and sold short in the hope that lower prices would bring the sellers a profit. In a bear market, this preweekend buying to cover short positions is a species of profit taking.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 1.3 to 280.9 with industrials up 1.1, rails up .8 and utilities up 1.4.

The glamor stocks, in which large short positions have been reported, were dominant among the 15 most active stocks. Of these 13 rose and two fell. Polaroid was the most active stock, up 3 at 137⅞ on 109,000 shares.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. The exchange's index rose $.07 to $13.21.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were generally higher.

Buying Flurry Boosts All Grain Futures

Chicago (AP) — An impending government crop report and an unconfirmed rumor among traders that Communist China might intervene in North Viet Nam set off a flurry of late buying in the grain futures market Friday which boosted all commodities into their broadest gains of the week.

All soybean deliveries finished about 7 cents a bushel higher after a little late profit cashing trimmed extreme gains. For a while the March contract traded at the limit gain of 10 cents for a single day.

Wheat added 3 cents or more at best and finished at the day's peaks while corn moved up well over a cent Oats and rye also were strong.

At the close, wheat was 2⅛-3½ cents a bushel higher, September $1.92; corn 1¼-2⅛ higher, September $1.44⅝-¼; oats ⅝-1¼ higher, September 74¾ cents; rye 1½-2¾ higher, September $1.30¼; soybeans 6⅞-7¾ higher, September $3.38¼-39.

Feeder Cattle Market Weak

Omaha (UPI)—The National Livestock Feeders Association said Friday feeder cattle trading showed weakness this week. Several markets reported most loss on steers over 750 pounds. However, Kansas City quoted prices on fleshy steers over 800 pounds 25 to 50 cents higher.

River Markets—Calves sarce at Kansas City and Omaha. Prices quoted for choice probably include prime end most cases. Choice steer calves Sioux City 30.00-33.00. Choice heifer calves Sioux City 27.00-29.00. Steers 550-700 lbs., choice 27.00-29.00, with lightweight short yearlings to 31.00 at Sioux City and Omaha; good and choice 26.00-28.00. Steers 700-900 lbs., choice 25.00-27.50. Heavy, fleshy steers 900-1,050 lbs., mostly 24.50-25.50, some to 26.00. Heifers 550-750 lbs., choice 24.50-27.00; good and choice Kansas City 22.50-24.50.

Sidings Laminated

Chicago—Smooth, uniform, nonporous exterior wood sidings that can be painted easily and effectively have been developed. The secret is a new laminating system. Paint on three sidings lasts three to four times longer than usual because shrinkage or expansion caused by moisture change is more uniform

House Refuses To Set Limit On Interest Rate

Washington (AP)—The House passed, 271 to 68, a bill designed to ease competition between banks and other thrift institutions for deposits—but refused to set fixed limits on interest rates.

There was no individually recorded vote on the decision against decreeing a temporary 4½% limit on interest that banks may pay on deposits left for a fixed time. Members stood up to be counted and the tally was 104 to 39.

One of the purposes of the bill is to protect savings and loan associations, traditional source of financing for home building, from the competition of high interest bearing certificates of deposit issued by commercial banks. Another is to nudge interest rates generally downward.

The bill, which now goes to the Senate, would provide for one-year authority for the Federal Reserve Board to decree different interest levels on bank deposits, considering such factors as the size of the deposit and the conditions prevailing in different parts of the country.

Similar authority, as to interest paid by savings and loan associations, would be given to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, which now can control interest rates only indirectly.

The Federal Reserve Board would be authorized to increase up to 10% the reserves banks must maintain against time deposits. The present maximum is 6% and the increase would tend toward restraint.

Finally, the Federal Reserve's Open Market Committee would be authorized, on request of the secretary of the Treasury, to buy obligations of the Federal Home Loan Banks and the Federal National Mortgage Association, thus helping to assure a flow of funds into the home financing market.

G&T Protesting Loup's Proposal For New Line

The Nebraska Electric Generation and Transmission cooperative (G & T) Friday protested Loup River Public Power District's application to construct a 345-kilovolt electric transmission line from Grand Island to Omaha.

The protest was laid before the Nebraska Power Review Board, which has tenatively scheduled the Loup proposal for hearing on Sept. 21.

Loup proposes to interconnect the line with facilities of the Omaha Public Power District. No waivers have been filed by OPPD.

Among issues raised by G & T in its protest was Loup's unwillingness to make its transmission facilities available for rural electric districts to wheel power purchased from sources other than the Nebraska Public Power System.

Car Wait Years-Long

U.S. Rejects New Korean Conference

Washington (AP)—The United States in effect turned down Friday a North Korean proposal for a conference of the powers involved in the Korean War to settle the Korean question.

The North Korean proposal, bypassing the United Nations, drew from State Department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey a strong endorsement of the U.N. formula for the unification of Korea.

"Our position on Korean unification has been stated before," the spokesman said. "We support fully the United Nations' competence and authority to handle the question."

McCloskey said that along with the South Korean government and the great majority of countries in the U.N. General Assembly, "We endorse the U.N. formula which provides free national elections under United Nations supervision leading to the establishment of a free, unified and independent Korea."

Asked if this meant the United States has rejected the North Korean proposal, McCloskey replied, "Draw your own conclusions."

Assault Count Trial Results In Hung Jury

A Federal District Court jury deliberating an assault with a deadly weapon charge failed to reach a verdict Friday and was dismissed by Judge Robert Van Pelt.

Indicted by a grand jury earlier for allegedly threatening an Internal Revenue Service employe with a pistol on March 10 this year was John L. Guyant, 56, of Grand Island. His trial started Wednesday and the jury was handed the case Thursday shortly after noon.

When the hung jury was announced, Judge Van Pelt dismissed the entire panel. Guyant faces a new trial when a new jury is called. He is free on $3,000 bond.

The federal complaint alleges that after revenue agent George Langdale, also of Grand Island, notified Guyant's employers of his tax liability, Guyant went to Langdale's home and threatened to kill him.

Fair Chief Brandt Lauds Lawmen

Law enforcement and security officers received high praise from Nebraska State Fair Manager Henry Brandt Friday for their service as a deterrent to rumored demonstrations and strife during the seven-day fair.

'I owe a real debt of gratitude to the sheriff's office—Merle Karnopp, the State Safety Patrol, the National Guard and the Lincoln Fire Department for their wonderful job of security" on the Fairgrounds, Brandt told newsmen.

He said he "wasn't a bit worried," because of the Security planning beforehand, designating who would be on the grounds, when and where.

He estimated there was never less than 20 law enforement men, in addition to the fair's Pinkerton security police, on the grounds at any one time.

Noting that the fair had "no major problem out here at all," Brandt added, "We didn't even have a good fight.'

Indicating that he would like to have the cooperation of the Safety Patrol, National Guard, sheriff's office, Lincoln fire and police departments continue in future fair years, Brandt attributed the lack of trouble during the fair to the presence of law enforcement officers in large numbers.

Wallace Orders Negro Teachers Re-Transferred

Montgomery, Ala. (UPI) — Gov. George Wallace Friday ordered Negro teachers assigned to white students sent back to their old jobs and bluntly threatened use of "state police powers" to "wrest back control of our schools."

Wallace declined to elaborate on his threat except to say, "Someday, if the trend continues, the police power will have to be used.

"The police power of a state supercedes that of any other. It may have to be used within the law to protect the peace and safety of the people of the state"

Gov. Morrison Urged To 'Put Forth Concrete Proposals'

Omaha (AP)—Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., called on Democratic Gov. Frank Morrison Friday to "put forth some concrete proposals instead of attacking Carl Curtis with charges of 'hate' and 'ineffectiveness.'"

"Judged by his dreary record of three terms in the state house and by his willingness to come to grips with the real issues of the senatorial campaign, he has forfeited his claim on the confidence and support of the people of Nebraska," Hruska said.

The remarks were contained in a talk to a group of Omaha business and civic leaders at a dinner meeting Friday evening, where Hruska appeared in support of the re-election bid of his colleague, Sen. Curtis.

"Carl Curtis' record of the past 27 years is there for everyone to inspect and judge," Hruska said. "It is a solid record of leadership and achievement, written in black and white, votes of yets and no."

In his address Hruska asked what is known of Morrison's views on inflation, the war in Viet Nam, farm policy, foreign aid, balance of payments, defense policy — "all of those things on which a senator must seek to represent his state."

"The governor's lack of leadership in the tax tangle in which Nebraska is now snarled and his inability to solve even the most elementary state problems are well demonstrated, and certainly give no cause for confidence in his ability to deal with decisions affecting not only the whole country, but the world," Hruska declared.

NU Intercampus Buses Operating

The buses, which shuttle students between East and City Campus, make it possible for students to attend classes on either campus. On class days, beginning Monday one or more buses leave the City Campus 35 minutes after the hour, and East Campus five minutes after the hour.

The special, pre-class service has been offered the students for the first time this year to assist them in registration, purchase of books, and other activity preliminary to the beginning of classes.

Fair Chief Brandt Lauds Lawmen

Law enforcement and security officers received high praise from Nebraska State Fair Manager Henry Brandt Friday for their service as a deterrent to rumored demonstrations and strife during the seven-day fair.

'I owe a real debt of gratitude to the sheriff's office—Merle Karnopp, the State Safety Patrol, the National Guard and the Lincoln Fire Department for their wonderful job of security" on the Fairgrounds, Brandt told newsmen.

He said he "wasn't a bit worried," because of the Security planning beforehand, designating who would be on the grounds, when and where.

He estimated there was never less than 20 law enforement men, in addition to the fair's Pinkerton security police, on the grounds at any one time.

Noting that the fair had "no major problem out here at all," Brandt added, "We didn't even have a good fight.'

Indicating that he would like to have the cooperation of the Safety Patrol, National Guard, sheriff's office, Lincoln fire and police departments continue in future fair years, Brandt attributed the lack of trouble during the fair to the presence of law enforcement officers in large numbers.

Nettleton Schools Workshop Scheduled

Ninety deans, teachers and administrators of the Nettleton business schools will hold a workshop at Nebraska Center Sept. 16 and 17 to update the faculties of the five institutions on recent developments in the business education field.

Installation Sunday

Hebron — Pastor Eldred L. Hofmann, a native of New Orleans, La., will be installed as new pastor for the Faith and Trinity Lutheran Churches Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Faith church. Installation services at Trinity church will be held at 8 p.m.

Wallace Orders Negro Teachers Re-Transferred

Montgomery, Ala. (UPI) — Gov. George Wallace Friday ordered Negro teachers assigned to white students sent back to their old jobs and bluntly threatened use of "state police powers" to "wrest back control of our schools."

Wallace declined to elaborate on his threat except to say, "Someday, if the trend continues, the police power will have to be used.

"The police power of a state supercedes that of any other. It may have to be used within the law to protect the peace and safety of the people of the state"

Gov. Morrison Urged To 'Put Forth Concrete Proposals'

Omaha (AP)—Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., called on Democratic Gov. Frank Morrison Friday to "put forth some concrete proposals instead of attacking Carl Curtis with charges of 'hate' and 'ineffectiveness.'"

"Judged by his dreary record of three terms in the state house and by his willingness to come to grips with the real issues of the senatorial campaign, he has forfeited his claim on the confidence and support of the people of Nebraska," Hruska said.

The remarks were contained in a talk to a group of Omaha business and civic leaders at a dinner meeting Friday evening, where Hruska appeared in support of the re-election bid of his colleague, Sen. Curtis.

"Carl Curtis' record of the past 27 years is there for everyone to inspect and judge," Hruska said. "It is a solid record of leadership and achievement, written in black and white, votes of yets and no."

In his address Hruska asked what is known of Morrison's views on inflation, the war in Viet Nam, farm policy, foreign aid, balance of payments, defense policy — "all of those things on which a senator must seek to represent his state."

"The governor's lack of leadership in the tax tangle in which Nebraska is now snarled and his inability to solve even the most elementary state problems are well demonstrated, and certainly give no cause for confidence in his ability to deal with decisions affecting not only the whole country, but the world," Hruska declared.

NU Intercampus Buses Operating

University of Nebraska officials have set in motion a special intercampus bus service prior to the regular scheduled runs during class days.

The buses, which shuttle students between East and City Campus, make it possible for students to attend classes on either campus. On class days, beginning Monday one or more buses leave the City Campus 35 minutes after the hour, and East Campus five minutes after the hour.

The special, pre-class service has been offered the students for the first time this year to assist them in registration, purchase of books, and other activity preliminary to the beginning of classes.

FOR GREATEST ECONOMY — start your ad for 10 times, cancel when you obtain results. You pay only the rate earned at the time of cancellation.

These low-cost rates apply to Want Ads from within the State of Nebraska which are placed for consecutive days and are paid for within 10 days after the ad expires or is canceled. Daily rates for ads from outside Nebraska are 8 cents per word or 40 cents per line.

Single paper rates either evening Journal or morning Star, are 93% of the combination rates. These ads would appear under "Too Late To Classify" column.

DEADLINES FOR FAMILY WANT ADS—Lincoln Journal (Evening)—Call before 10 a.m. Monday through Saturday for publication the same day. Lincoln Star (Morning)—Call before 6 p.m. Monday through Friday for publication on following day. Call before 5 p.m. Saturdays for Monday morning publication. Sunday Journal and Star—Call anytime before 1 p.m. on Saturdays for publication Sunday.

ERRORS: Advertisers should check their ad on first insertion and report any errors at once. Dial 477-8902.

ADJUSTMENTS: The company is responsible for typographical errors or misclassification only to cancel the first day's charge on that portion of an ad that may be rendered valueless by that error. All ads will be classified properly.

BLIND BOX SERVICE: There is a 50c additional charge for this confidential service. When using a Blind Box Number, ad 4 additional words to your Want Ad copy, figure the charges from the above table and add 50c for Blind Box Service Charges.

OFFICE HOURS: Daily, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Saturday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sunday, 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

The Way Grows Much Brighter When God Gives Us Our Marching Orders

an Optimistic View

Hurray for youth!... the juveniles of our community. Let us, during national youth week, honor the 95% of our young people who are law-abiding citizens and will be the dependable community men and women of tomorrow. God help the small minority (only 5%) referred to as delinquents. They are the ill-advised, law-breaking thugs who glory in character assassination and destruction of public property.

Optimist Clubs International are leading in the crusade to give the good youngsters of our world their rightful place in the sun. May this huge army of juveniles not forget that the church on the corner will aid greatly in helping them keep their feet on the right road.

The Way Grows Much Brighter
When God Gives Us Our Marching Orders

an Optimistic View

Hurray for youth!... the juveniles of our community. Let us, during national youth week, honor the 95% of our young people who are law-abiding citizens and will be the dependable community men and women of tomorrow. God help the small minority (only 5%) referred to as delinquents. They are the ill-advised, law-breaking thugs who glory in character assassination and destruction of public property.

Optimist Clubs International are leading in the crusade to give the good youngsters of our world their rightful place in the sun. May this huge army of juveniles not forget that the church on the corner will aid greatly in helping them keep their feet on the right road.
